

What is a 1098T?

Families filing a U.S. tax return may be eligible for educational tax credits when claiming their Purdue student as a dependent. The IRS Form 1098-T is the form provided to help file for these tax credits.

How do I view and print my 1098T?

AUTHORIZED USERS WILL LOG INTO THIS WEBSITE: https://secure.touchnet.com/C21261_tsa/web/login.jsp

- Using your Purdue career account user name and password, login to myPurdue at <https://mypurdue.purdue.edu>.

The top navigation bar has tabs for 'New Student', 'Need to Know', 'Academic', 'Financial' (which is selected and circled in red with a red arrow pointing to it), 'Resources', and 'Help'. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'Quick Links' on the left with links for personal information, courses, and links; 'Campus Announcements' and 'Personal Announcements' both stating 'There are no announcements'; 'Career Account Password Status' with an error message 'There was an error rendering this channel. Please try again later.'; 'Important Announcements' with a notice about Summer 2010 registration/financial functions and STAR students; and 'Student News' with links to articles about Purdue female undergrads racing an airplane and students participating in the 2010 Air Race Classic.

- Click on the 'Manage My Account' link.

The screenshot shows the Purdue University Financial Aid website. The top navigation bar has tabs for 'New Student', 'Need to Know', 'Academic', 'Financial' (selected), 'Resources', and 'Help'. A red arrow points to the 'Manage My Account' link in the 'TouchNet Payment Portal' section. The 'Quick Links' section on the left lists various links under 'Personal Information', 'Financial Aid', 'Financial Aid Awards', and 'Student Account'. The 'Enrollment Confirmation' section states that confirming enrollment is required for the coming semester. The 'Financial Aid Requirements' section shows that there are no requirements for the 2009-10 year. The 'Financial Calculators' section provides links to estimate financial aid eligibility, tuition, fees, and campus housing costs. The 'Financial Resources' section lists important financial aid links, student job postings, internship resources, professional practice/co-op information, and financial planning cash course.

- Under the section '1098-T Statement,' click on the 'View' link of the year you want to view and print.
- Make sure you are using the most recent version of Internet Explorer and have your 'pop-up blocker' turned off.
