Message from the Superintendent and SRC Chairman

Welcome to the 2013-14 school year, a time of challenge and opportunity for The School District of Philadelphia.

The new school year symbolizes a fresh start as we work towards constant improvements and innovations. Everyone has a role to play in building safe, high-quality and high-performing schools for every student in every neighborhood. With your commitment and support, we will continue our focus on addressing the hard problems and finding the right solutions.

We hope that the energy and excitement you feel on the first day of school will infuse your classrooms and homes all year long.

Wishing everyone a productive school year!

Sincerely,
William R. Hite, Jr., Ed.D.
