Integrating the Dignity Act Principles into Lesson Plans: A Sample Template

This template provides one possible format to assist educators in developing lessons that incorporate and support the positive nondiscriminatory principles of New York State's Dignity for All Students Act (Dignity Act), including fostering a safe and supportive school climate and culture. It was also developed as an internal tool for educators to use in developing and/or re-aligning lesson plans and school/district curricula to support the Dignity Act.

The Dignity Act, which takes effect on July 1, 2012, amended Section 801-a of New York State Education Law regarding instruction in civility, citizenship, and character education by expanding the concepts of tolerance, respect for others and dignity to include: an awareness and sensitivity to discrimination or harassment and civility in the relations of people of different races, weights, national origins, ethnic groups, religions, religious practices, mental or physical abilities, sexual orientations, genders, and sexes.

The issues addressed by the Dignity Act acknowledge the ever-present impact of students' social and emotional development on their ability to learn, and encourages the integration of Dignity Act-related content across disciplines and throughout the learning process, rather than through short-term programs or units.

Please feel free to use this template as a tool to assist your school/district in ensuring that classroom instruction and all interactions on school property integrate the intent of the Dignity Act to provide students with an environment free from discrimination and harassment.
