Small Estates Affidavit

Oregon law allows an abbreviated procedure for handling small estates which may otherwise require a probate proceeding. See ORS 114.505 through 114.560 (copy attached). This process is accomplished by filing an "Affidavit of Claiming Successor", sometimes referred to as a small estate affidavit.

Estates That Qualify:

An Affidavit of Claiming Successor may be filed if:

1. The estate has personal property that has fair market value of $75,000 or less, and/or
2. The estate has real property that has fair market value of $200,000 or less.

"Fair Market Value" is the value of the property on the open market (between unrelated parties), not reduced to reflect debts owed against the property.

"Real Property" is land or interests in land.

"Personal Property" is all other property that is not real property, including contracts for the sale of real property, bank accounts, vehicles, etc. The dollar amounts do not include any property that transfers without probate or the small estate procedure.

An Affidavit of Claiming Successor that includes a safe-deposit box as an asset cannot be filed until the requirements of ORS 114.537 and ORS 708A.655 have been met.

Who May File:

The small estate affidavit must be filed by one or more "claiming successors." A claiming successor is: 1. An heir or devisee of the decedent (depending on whether a will exists); 2. The person nominated as personal representative in the decedent's will. 3. A creditor of the estate who has not been paid within 60 days after the decedent's death (Note: If the decedent died without a will or heirs, the creditor must have the written authorization from the Division of State Lands); 4. The Director of the Division of State Lands, if there is no will and no heirs.

What to File:

You can buy printed forms at some stationery stores. If the decedent had a will, the affidavit will be for a "Testate Estate". If the decedent did not have a will, the affidavit will be for an "Intestate Estate". The decedent's "heirs" are the people who would inherit property under Oregon's laws of intestacy. The "devisee" of the decedent are people named to receive property in the decedent's will. An "interest" in decedent's property is what each heir/devisee is to receive from the estate.

In addition to the affidavit, a certified copy of the death certificate must be filed. If the decedent died testate, the original will must be filed with the affidavit. The filing fee in Washington County is currently $111.00. To obtain a certified copy of the affidavit, the fee is $5.00 plus $.25 per page.

When to File:

The affidavit may not be filed until 30 days after the death of the decedent.

Where to File

The affidavit can be filed with the probate court for: 1) The county where the decedent died; 2) The county where the decedent lived or had a home at the time of death; 3) A county where property of the decedent is located at the time the affidavit is filed or was located at the time of the decedent's death.

Duties of the Claiming Successor:

The person who filed the affidavit is the affiant and has the following duties required by law:

1. Mail or deliver a copy of the affidavit to the following: a) The heirs and devisees. If there is a will, a copy should be included with the affidavit; b) Each creditor, if any, who has not been paid in full; c) Any person known to the affiant who asserts a claim against the estate; d) Department of Human Services, Estate Administration Unit, P.O. Box 14021, Salem, Oregon 97309-9913; e) Oregon Health Authority, 500 Summer Street NE E20, Salem Oregon 97301. This must be done within 30 days after filing the affidavit.

2. Take Control of the property. See ORS 114.535.

3. Pay estate claims and expenses from estate property.
See ORS 114.545(1)(c).

4. After four months from the date the affidavit is filed and if no personal representative is appointed for the estate, the affiant should transfer the estate property to the heirs and devisees. Before the four months expire, the affiant may transfer property as allowed by ORS 114.545 (1)(e) and (f).

Accountability of the Claiming Successor:

The affiant and any other claiming successor who receives property under the small estate statute is personally answerable and accountable to: 1) estate creditors, to the extent of the value of the property received; 2) to any personal representative appointed within four months after the affidavit is filed; 3) any omitted heir or devisee.

(1) If a claiming successor or other person who is eligible to file an affidavit under ORS 114.515 is aware that the decedent was the sole lessee or the last surviving lessee of a safe deposit box at the time of the decedent's death, the claiming successor or other person may not file an affidavit under ORS 114.515 until the person requests an inventory of the box under ORS 708A.655, if the lessor of the box is an Oregon operating institution as defined in ORS 706.008, or under ORS 723.844, if the lessor of the box is a credit union as defined in ORS 723.008. Upon receiving the request, the lessor of the box shall cause an inventory of the contents of the box to be made. The lessor shall retain the original inventory in the box and shall provide a copy of the inventory to the person requesting the inventory. The person requesting the inventory shall take the contents of the box into consideration in determining whether the estate of the decedent is within the limits prescribed by ORS 114.515 (2). If an affidavit under ORS 114.515 is filed by the person, the value of the contents of the box shall be stated in the affidavit.

Upon receiving the request, the lessor of the box shall cause an inventory of the contents of the box to be made. The lessor shall retain the original inventory in the box and shall provide a copy of the inventory to the person requesting the inventory. Upon providing the lessor of the box with a certified copy of the amended affidavit, the lessor shall allow the person to take possession of the contents of the box. If the estate of the decedent exceeds the limits prescribed by ORS 114.515 (2) after consideration of the value of the contents of the box, the person may not file an amended affidavit under ORS 114.515 and shall file notice with the court that the estate of the decedent is not subject to ORS

114.505 to 114.560 and shall serve a copy of the notice on the lessor of the box. The lessor of the box shall thereafter deliver the contents of the box to the personal representative for the decedent, or to such other person as may be provided for under the terms of the lease of the box. 114.540 Procedure for claims; disallowance; summary determination. (1) A claim against an estate with respect to which an affidavit is filed under ORS 114.515 may be presented to the affiant within four months after the affidavit was filed. If an amended affidavit is filed under ORS 114.515 (7), claims against the estate must be filed within four months after the filing of the amended affidavit. If a supplemental affidavit is filed under ORS 114.515 (8), claims against the estate must be filed within four months after the filing of the supplemental affidavit. Each claim presented to the affiant must include the information required by ORS 115.025.

(2) A claim presented to the affiant shall be considered allowed as presented unless within 60 days after the date of presentment of the claim the affiant mails or delivers a notice of disallowance of the claim in whole or in part to the claimant and any attorney for the claimant. A notice of disallowance of a claim shall inform the claimant that the claim has been disallowed in whole or in part and, to the extent disallowed, will be barred unless:

(a) The claimant proceeds as provided in subsection (3) of this section; or

(b) A personal representative is appointed within the time allowed under ORS 114.555.

(3) A creditor of the estate whose claim has been presented within the time permitted by subsection (1) of this section and disallowed by the affiant may within 30 days after the date of mailing or delivery of the notice of disallowance file with the probate court a petition for summary determination of the claim by the court. A creditor of the decedent whose claim is listed in the affidavit as disputed may within four months after the filing of the affidavit file with the probate court a petition for summary determination of the creditor's claim by the court. The court shall hear the matter without a jury, after notice to the creditor and affiant, and any interested person may be heard in the proceeding. The claim may be proved as provided in ORS 115.195 (2). Upon the hearing the court shall determine the claim in a summary manner and shall make an order allowing or disallowing the claim in whole or in part. If the court allows the claim in whole or in part, the order shall direct the affiant, to the extent of property of the estate allocable to the payment of the claim pursuant to ORS 115.125, or any claiming successor to whom payment, delivery or transfer has been made under ORS 114.505 to 114.560 as a person entitled thereto as disclosed in the affidavit, to the extent of the value of the property received, to pay to the creditor the amount so allowed. No appeal may be taken from the order of the court made upon the summary determination. [1989 c.228 §7; 2003 c.523 §3; 2005 c.122 §4]

114.545 Duties of person filing affidavit; payment of claims; conveyance of real property; liability of person to whom property transferred or payment made. (1) The affiant:

(a) Shall take control of the property of the estate coming into the possession of the affiant.

(b) Within 30 days after filing the affidavit shall mail, deliver or cause to be recorded each instrument which the affidavit states will be mailed, delivered or recorded.

(c) From and to the extent of the property of the estate, shall pay or reimburse any person who has paid:

(A) Expenses described in ORS

115.125 (1)(b) and (c) and listed in the affidavit;

(B) Claims listed in the affidavit as undisputed;

(C) Allowed claims presented to the affiant within the time permitted by ORS 114.540; and

(f) May convey any real or personal property that is part of the estate before the completion of the period established under ORS 114.555, provided that each heir or devisee succeeding to the interest conveyed joins in the conveyance and that any proceeds of sale, net of the reasonable expenses of sale and any debt secured as of the date of the decedent's death by a duly perfected lien on the property, shall become a part of the estate subject to ORS 114.505 to 114.560. If the property is a manufactured structure as defined in ORS 446.561, the affiant must assign interest in the structure as provided in ORS 446.616. Any conveyance to a purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration made by the affiant and the heir or devisee succeeding to the interest conveyed, or made by the heir or devisee succeeding to the interest conveyed after completion of the period established under ORS 114.555, conveys the interest stated in the conveyance free of any interest of the claiming successors, and the purchaser has no duty with respect to application of the consideration paid for the conveyance.

(2) Any claiming successor to whom payment, delivery or transfer is made under ORS 114.505 to 114.560 as a person entitled thereto as disclosed in the affidavit is personally answerable and accountable:

(a) To the extent of the value of the property received, to creditors of the estate to the extent such creditors are entitled to payment under subsection (1) of this section; and

(b) To any personal representative of the estate of the decedent thereafter appointed.

(3) The affiant shall cause to be recorded in the deed records of any county in which real property belonging to the decedent is situated an affiant or claiming successor's deed executed in the manner required by ORS chapter 93.

(4) For a manufactured structure as defined in ORS 446.561 belonging to a decedent and assessed as personal property, the affiant shall file with the Department of Consumer and Business Services the necessary information for recording the successor's interest in the manufactured structure on an ownership document. [1973 c.710 §7; 1979 c.340 §4; 1985 c.300 §5; 1989 c.148 §6; 1989 c.228 §5; 1991 c.191 §4; 2003 c.655 §61]

114.550 Summary review of administration of estate; hearing. The affiant or any claiming successor of the estate who has not been paid the full amount owed such claiming successor may, within two years after the filing of an affidavit under ORS 114.515, file with the probate court a petition for summary review of administration of the estate. A creditor may not file a petition under this section if the creditor received a copy of an affidavit filed under ORS 114.515 delivered or mailed to such creditor within 30 days after the date the affidavit was filed, the creditor was shown as a disputed creditor in the affidavit, and the creditor has not filed a petition for summary determination under ORS 114.540. The court shall hear the matter without a jury, after notice to the claiming successor and the affiant, and any interested person may be heard in the proceeding. Upon the hearing the court shall review administration of the estate in a summary manner and may order the affiant to sell property of the estate and pay creditors, to pay creditors of the estate from property of the estate or of the affiant, or to distribute property of the estate to the claiming successors, or may order any person who has received property of the estate to pay amounts owed to claiming successors of the estate in whole or in part. [1989 c.228 §8; 2003 c.196 §3]

114.552 Filing fees. A copy of the will shall be retained in the box. At the request of the interested person, a copy of the will, together with copies of any documents pertaining to the disposition of the remains of the decedent, may be given to the interested person.

(5) If the box is opened for the purpose of conducting a trust instrument search, the Oregon operating institution shall remove any document that appears to be a trust instrument creating a trust of which the decedent was a trustor or trustee at the time of the decedent's death, make a true and correct copy of it and deliver the original trust instrument to a person designated in the trust instrument to serve as the successor trustee on the death of the decedent.
