

Flyers and Door Hangers

It is always good to create informative outreach materials that help spread the word to families and children about feeding sites in their communities. The more who know about the program, the more children will come to eat. Some examples of effective materials include:

- Banners
- Posters
- Door hangers for families and schools
- Flyers for families
- Letters to parents

Please feel free to download and use these materials from USDA:

USDA Summer Food Service Program Promotional Flyer English Spanish

USDA Summer Food Service Program Customizable Promotional Flyer English Spanish

USDA Summer Food Service Program Door Hanger English Spanish

