

PETITION FOR CONFIDENTIAL MEDIATION PACKET

General Information

Family Code Section 3170 requires mediation whenever issues of custody or visitation are in dispute. This applies whenever a “party to the case” wants to obtain or change a custody or visitation order and the other party does not agree to the change.

A Petition for Confidential Mediation (local form FL/E- ME-804) may be filed without a Request for Order. Filing a Petition for Confidential Mediation is without prejudice to a party’s right to future hearing.

Confidential (non-recommending) mediation will be conducted by a Family Court Services Mediator who will facilitate negotiation between the parties to reach an agreement regarding custody and parenting issues.

Mediation Report

For mediations scheduled by filing of a Petition for Confidential Mediation, if the parties reach an agreement, Mediator will issue a written report specifying the agreement reached by the parties. However, if the parties are unable to reach an agreement the Mediator will not provide any written or verbal report. No recommendation will be submitted to Court.

Confidentiality

No information presented by the parties during confidential mediation will be reported or disclosed to anyone, except for the following situations. When child abuse or neglect is suspected by the Mediator, a report will be made to the Child Protective Services. Additionally, if a threat is made against a specific person during mediation, a law enforcement agency and the person against whom a threat was made will be contacted.
