If No, what is your religious affiliation? _____

Mountain Mission School is a nationally acclaimed school, which teaches a Christian world-view and promotes Christian values and ethics among its students. The school welcomes international students from other faiths, but desires that they be aware of Mountain Mission's distinctive position before they apply. Please read the following:

Mountain Mission students are expected to participate in the Christian activities of the campus community, including attending church, chapel, and hall and school meetings.

Mountain Mission students are required to follow the student code of conduct known as "The Challenger Way". Violations of code of conduct can result in correctional actions and possible dismissal from school, so it is important that international students be aware of The Challenger Way before submitting an application. Expected conduct of Mountain Mission students include:

- Not using tobacco in any form; not drinking alcohol or using illegal drugs in any form
- Being in the residence hall at the required time each day
- Not entering a residence hall of the opposite gender
- Not entering an opposite gender campus side without permission
- Abstaining from sex outside of marriage between man and women
- Not looking at explicitly sexual or violent material or movies
- Attending church services and chapel during the week
- Refraining from participation in distinctively non-Christian religious rituals or displaying distinctively non-Christian religious material on campus
- Wearing appropriate clothing. See The Challenger Way dress code
- Using appropriate language
- Showing proper respect to fellow student, faculty, and staff
- Respecting the Christian philosophy of the School and using the time at the school to better understand Christianity
- Being punctual to all school activities

After reading the Background Information (Step 2), please answer the following questions:

If you answer "yes" to Questions 1-3, you must provide a brief explanation on separate piece of paper.

Step 7

Agreement

The candidate must read and sign the statements below before the Admissions Committee can consider this application. If candidate is underage (less than 18 years of age), the entire application must be read and then signed by both parents/legal guardians. The undersigned agree that:

1. The school may take such investigation, as it deems proper in connection with this application, and will treat as confidential all information submitted herein or received by the School from any source including without limitation the applicant or his/her family. An applicant may review any information gathered.
2. The Challenger Way addresses both academic and non-academic misconduct and is an integral part of the Mountain Mission School community. This community consists of individuals of diverse backgrounds and experiences dedicated to obtaining a superior education in fidelity to the Christian faith. Central to preserving this community is the personal commitment of the students to conduct themselves in a manner that reflects the highest ideals of moral virtue and professionalism. To this end, the Challenger Way sets forth the disciplinary procedures that apply when misconduct by a student is alleged to have occurred. Students are charged with notice of and are bound by this Code. All students shall agree to comply with the terms of the Challenger Way. A link to all of Liberty's conduct policies will be provided upon acceptance to the school.
3. The filing of this application does not in any way obligate Mountain Mission School to accept the student.
4. I hereby state that I am legally empowered to do so and do release (Name of Student) _____ into the care of Mountain Mission School. This care shall provide for physical, mental, and spiritual needs for the above named student during his/her stay at Mountain Mission School. Further, such care gives to Mountain Mission School full rights to take whatever action is necessary to preserve the life and well being (physical, mental, and spiritual) of the child in the event of emergencies and to insure his welfare under the laws of Virginia.
5. I certify that all of the information given in this application is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge.

I agree to all of the conditions and provisions herein contained.
