Principal Redesign Committee

The 2006 General Assembly passed House Joint Resolution 14 (HJR 14) which instructed the executive director of the EPSB, in cooperation with the president of the Council on Postsecondary Education (CPE) the Commissioner of Education, to convene a task force to present recommendations on the redesign of Kentucky's system for preparing and supporting principals. In August 2006 the Education Leadership Redesign (ELR) task force convened with 30 members and met for nearly one year. The ELR recommendations resulted in changes to 16 KAR 3:050, which became effective October 2008. Next Generational Learning Materials.

Background:

The Center for Innovation in Education (CIE or the Center) supports state efforts to test and scale innovations that result in systemic shifts to deeper learning in every school for all students. The Center pursues a vision that compels actions resulting in shifts to student-centered policies, practices and structures by bringing together and facilitating work among leaders from the state and local levels, partners, researchers and philanthropists. The Center works primarily, but not exclusively, with the states in the Innovation Lab Network as a partner with the Council of Chief State School Officers (CCSSO or Council).

The Innovation Lab Network (ILN or Network) was created by the Council of Chief State School Officers under Gene Wilhoit's leadership in spring 2010 as a group of states working together to test, refine and implement student-centered approaches that transform systems of schooling into systems for learning. The Innovation Lab Network states have committed to setting college and career readiness for every child consistent with deeper learning as the core goal of their systems and to realigning education policy and practice around that goal, using six core design principles:

- World-class expectations
- Personalized learning
- Competency-based systems
- Anytime, anywhere learning
- Comprehensive student supports
- Student agency

The strands of work that the Center is undertaking are:

- Strand One – Being a national voice for a new system to build consensus around a new, more coherent vision of education and to help individual states develop and act on robust theories of change
- Strand Two – Producing developmental frameworks of key skills and dispositions, with associated instructional and assessment strategies, to help states operationalize their understanding of deeper learning

- Strand Three - Personalizing learning in the secondary years to develop strategies for re-shaping the secondary experience so that it is more successful and engaging, using systems levers such as funding
- Strand Four – Building a culture of evidence to develop a comprehensive framework for collecting and managing evidence of learning at the student level
- Strand Five – Empowering the voices of teachers and local leaders to tap the collective potential of and amplify the voices of practitioners in this work
- Strand Six – Facilitating collaboration with postsecondary and business to build support for and direct involvement in the work of the ILN, both within their own states and across all states

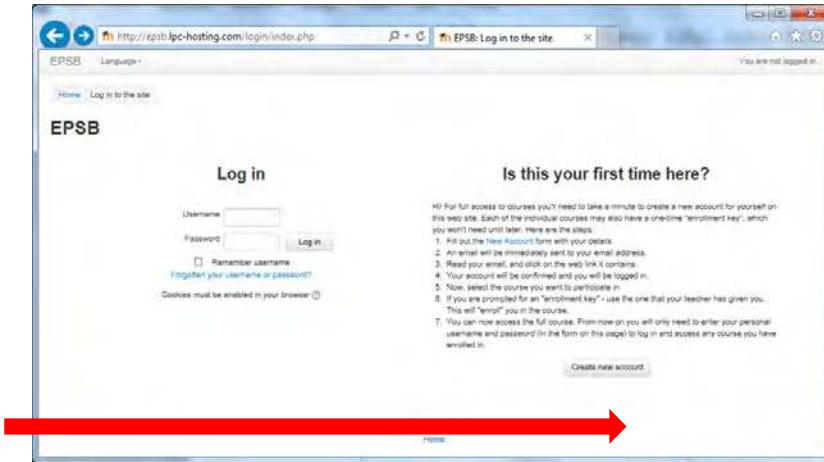

The Center's objectives support the initiatives of the Network for Transforming Educator Preparation (NTEP). The EPSB and its partners have been focused on the grant's goals, as presented by board member Bradley Bielski during the April meeting. Included is the current communication plan required of the CCSSO to help inform and engage stakeholders in this work.

Our Story

If the Kentucky NTEP team uses predictive measures of effective teaching as defined by the Kentucky Teacher Performance Assessments and Professional Growth and Effectiveness System to establish and implement standards for preparation program development, preparation program evaluation, and educator licensure, then individuals granted Kentucky teaching certificates will be learner ready on day one.

This theory of action encompasses our past accomplishments and embraces new goals for our educator preparation programs, with an even clearer focus on student learning. Kentucky has implemented several educator preparation and professional learning reform initiatives. Revisions include, but are not limited to, redesign of the master's programs to sharpen the focus on teacher leadership, principal and superintendent programs, and continuous professional learning, all with a focus on leadership, college- and career-readiness, and impact on accountability. To ensure all students have access to highly effective educators focused on college- and career- readiness, Kentucky must continue to make systematic data-informed revisions and refinements to preparation programs and provide adequate support across every teacher's career.

Kentucky believes this system must provide performance assessments along an educator's career continuum. To achieve this goal, Kentucky is merging the Kentucky Teacher Internship Program (KTIP) aligned to the Kentucky Teacher Standards and the Professional Growth and Effectiveness System (PGES) based on the Danielson Framework that utilizes multiple measures to determine educator growth. By merging KTIP and PGES, Kentucky will develop a system that collects longitudinal developmental data and focuses on growth throughout educator preparation, induction, and the educator's career.

Kentucky has a strong group of stakeholders who have and will continue to provide valuable direction into the NTEP work. These stakeholders consist of a cross-section of leaders who have the skills, credibility, and support for transforming educator preparation.

Outcomes

Kentucky NTEP Engagement and Communication Plan

Revision 06/09/14

1. State standards, national standards, and additional measures including teacher effectiveness outcomes in the accreditation and program approval processes.
2. An online reporting system that include multiple elements (e.g., recruitment of candidates, quality of clinical experiences throughout the program, mastery of content)for educator preparation that allows for continuous monitoring of programs throughout the accreditation cycle
3. A data system that provides a seamless system for program approval, monitoring, and educator licensing

Appendix B: Learner Ready Definition

On day one of their careers, teachers should be able to model and develop in students the knowledge and skills they need to succeed today including the ability to think critically and creatively, to apply content to solving real world problems, to be literate across the curriculum, to collaborate and work in teams, and to take ownership of their own continuous learning.

Specifically, they

- Have deep knowledge of their content and how to teach it;
- Understand the differing needs of their students, hold them to high expectations, and personalize learning;
- Care about, motivate, and actively engage students in learning;
- Collect, interpret, and use student assessment data to monitor progress and adjust instruction;
- Systematically reflect, continuously improve, and collaboratively problem solve;
- Demonstrate leadership and shared responsibility for the learning of all students.

Appendix C: Key Messages

The purpose of the Network for Transforming Educator Preparation (NTEP) is to design and implement policies and practices that can help states ensure that educator preparation programs (EPPs) are preparing candidates to be ready on day one to begin leading schools and teaching students to be college- and career-ready and life-long learners.

	Teaching quality is the most important school-based factor in determining student success.
As we increase our standards for students, we must also assure that teachers entering the profession are prepared to help each student succeed.	We want to assure that all Kentucky teachers enter their first classroom prepared to excel.	Raising the bar for teacher preparation is not an indictment of previous teachers' preparation. It's an acknowledgement that the world has changed and so must we.
	America's next generation of teachers will teach students who need to succeed in an increasingly complex and competitive world.

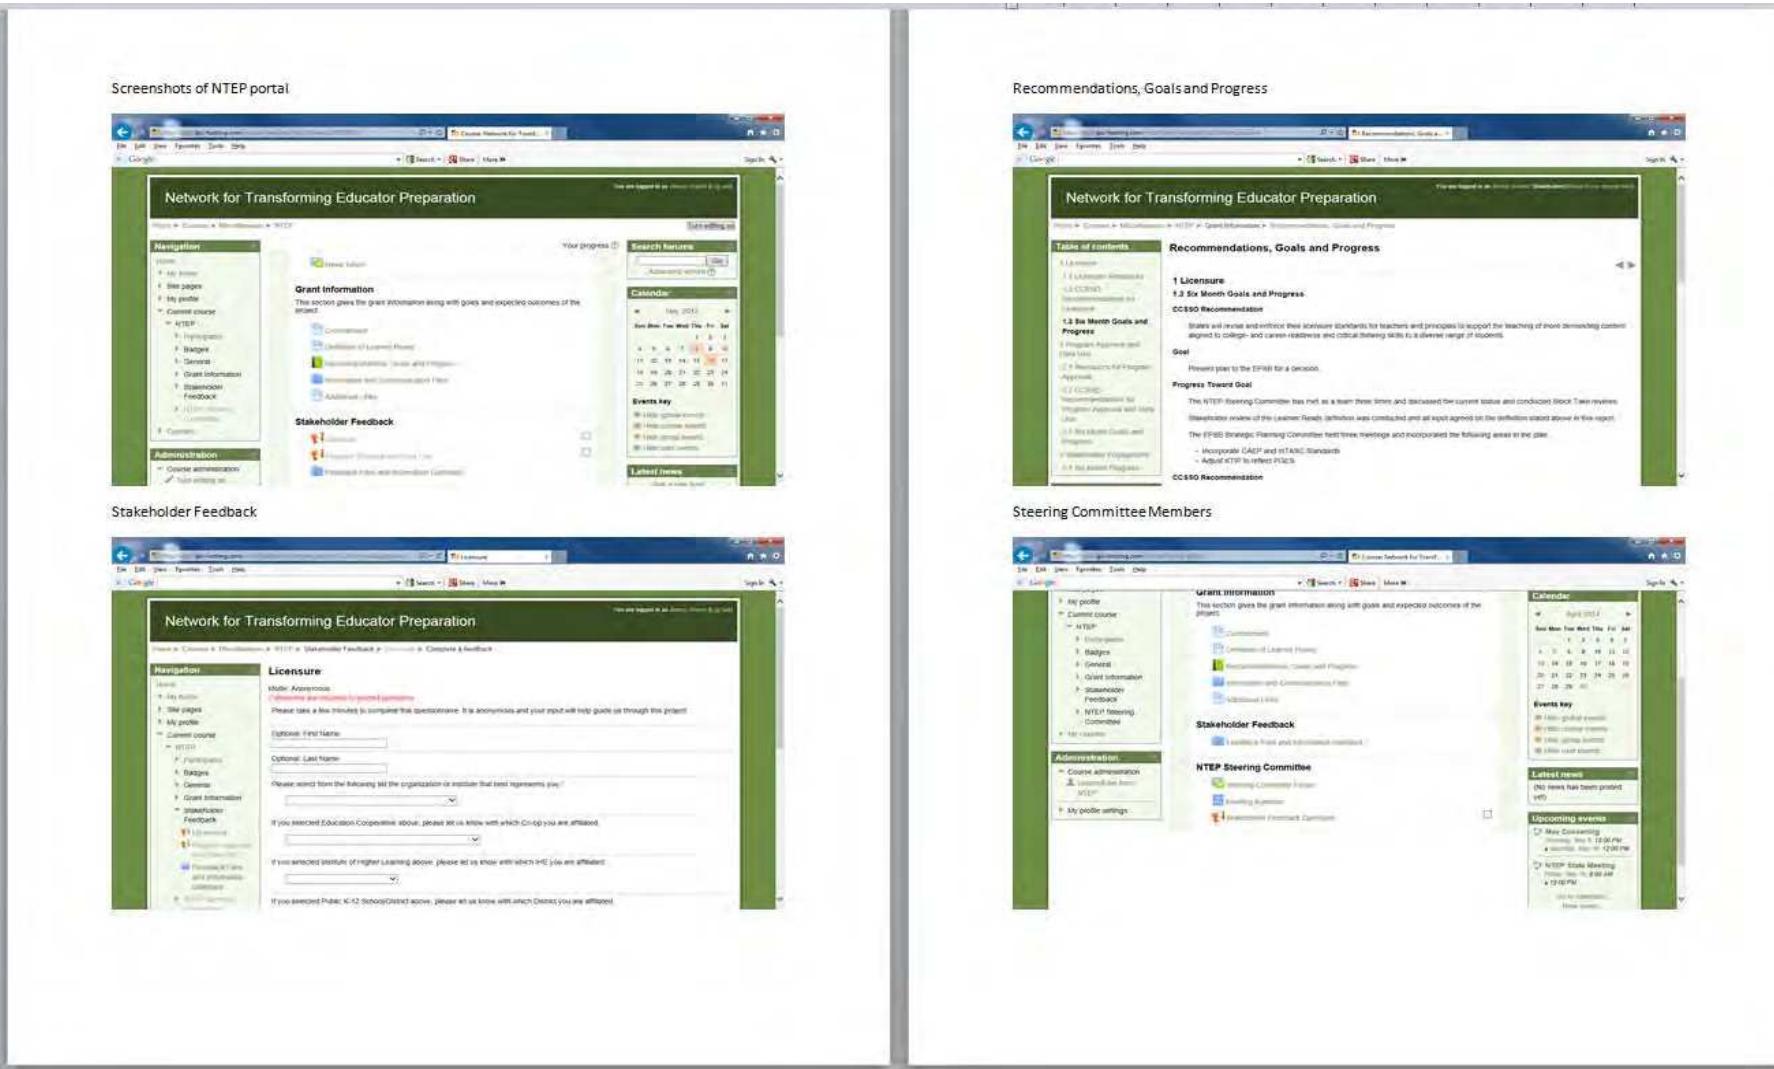

Additional Points to Make for Teacher Audiences

- We want to work together to assure that when you retire, highly-qualified teachers are ready to step up and take your place.
- One key to better-prepared teachers is more real-life experiences in classrooms while they are preparing to be teachers.
- All new teachers, regardless of their path to the profession, should meet the same high standards.
- Holding teacher preparation programs accountable for the success of their graduates will help those programs improve.

Historical public information

EPSB Strategic Agenda

Background:

In September 2014, the Board adopted the recommendations of the Committee to Ensure Ethical Educator Workforce (CEEEW), a committee created by the Board in January of 2013 to study the disciplinary process. Additionally, in March 2014 the board approved the EPSB Strategic Agenda. Goal 2 established strategies and activities to address time frame for case resolution to reduce to an average of 1.5 years. At the June 2014 regular board meeting, board members requested to have the disciplinary regulation discussion placed on the retreat agenda.

Board Recommendation(s)

Staff Action Steps:

Flowchart: Comparison of current EPSB Process to proposed changes for Board Discussion

EPSB language from flow chart	Proposed change and rationale
EPSB receives a complaint against a certificate holder
Complaint reviewed by legal staff to determine whether the complaint establishes an act prohibited by KRS 161.120(1)	Within 30 days of receipt of a written complaint from an identified source, a three person disciplinary subcommittee comprising three K-12 members of the full EPSB will determine whether the complaint establishes an act prohibited by KRS 161.120(1). The disciplinary subcommittee members will be appointed by the chair and will serve one (1) year terms. At least two members of the disciplinary subcommittee will be classroom teacher representatives who are not administrators. The committee should strive to reach consensus on each case but may decide to act by majority vote of its members. General counsel may advise the subcommittee at its request but cannot vote. Anonymous complaints will not be processed and will be dismissed with prejudice. RATIONALE: More than one person should be involved in vetting complaints to determine whether they move forward through the disciplinary process. Anonymous complaints cannot be verified and should not be processed or used to bolster any future complaints.
If the allegations are not credible or do not constitute an act prohibited by KRS 161.120(1), a disciplinary case is not initiated, but the complaint is kept on file in case further information is received	The subject teacher is informed of the complaint and is told that no action will be taken and no response is necessary. The information will not form the basis of any future disciplinary action against the teacher. RATIONALE: The teacher should know that a complaint was made. Complaints that are not credible or that do not constitute an act prohibited by KRS 161.120(1) are not actionable and should be dismissed with prejudice. If the screening committee believes that additional investigation is warranted, they should process the complaint in a way other than dismissal.

If the allegations are credible and constitute an act prohibited by KRS 161.120, a disciplinary case is initiated and notice is sent to the educator. An icon appears on KECI available to only school district human resources directors, superintendents and the respondent noting an active complaint.	If the disciplinary subcommittee determines that probable cause may exist, the educator will be fully informed of the allegations against him or her, including notice of the specific subsection of KRS 161.120(1) that may have been violated. The notice will be served by certified mail and the educator will be given at least thirty (30) days after the date or receipt to respond in writing, which time shall be extended upon request. The educator will be informed that the rebuttal will be included on the docket of the next regularly scheduled meeting if it is received at least three (3) business days before the meeting date. Notice will also include the link to the schedule of upcoming EPSB meetings. If thirty (30) days pass after the date the educator receives notice of the charges and no request for extension is filed, it will be reported to the full board that no rebuttal was filed. NO ICONS APPEAR ANYWHERE. RATIONALE: Respondents are generally not told the specific subsection of KRS 161.120(1) that they are alleged to have violated, so they are left guessing about the kind of evidence that might be gathered against them. Respondents don't know when the EPSB meets, so can't determine whether they should avail themselves of the full thirty days or whether it is to their benefit to respond sooner and get on the docket. The calendar information will give the respondents and their attorneys a better idea of how long the process will take.
After 30 days or upon receipt of a rebuttal, the case is prepared for docket.	The entire redacted initial complaint and redacted written response will be submitted to the full EPSB for consideration.

	RATIONALE: Current practice is for EPSB legal staff to summarize the complaint and supporting evidence (so the board does not see the original documents) but to provide a redacted copy of the educator's original response. The practice of summarizing the complaint information should not continue because a writer cannot escape his or her own point of view. Allowing the same person who decided that a case should be opened to also summarize the complaint and response offers too much opportunity for their own perspective to be inserted into the communication. Redacting identifying information from the complaint and response and providing the board with all the available information will give the board an opportunity to judge the circumstances themselves instead of viewing them through someone else's lens.
Dismiss: The complaint against the educator shall be dismissed. The dismissal may not be based upon the merits of the case, but rather some other aspect, such as weak facts, incomplete reporting, lack of cooperation from witnesses, etc.; therefore, subsequent action on the complaint is not prohibited.	Cases shall be dismissed with prejudice, meaning that the circumstances presented by the complaint do not support disciplinary action and cannot form the basis for any subsequent action by the EPSB. RATIONALE: Dismissal should mean full, final and complete dismissal. If the facts don't support action, no action can be taken. If the screening committee believes further investigation is warranted, they should dispose of the case in another way.
Deferral for training: The evidence presented to the board indicates that the respondent would benefit from remedial training. The board shall defer consideration of the case in order to offer the respondent an opportunity to complete the suggested training. If the respondent provides written proof to the board that he or she has successfully completed the recommended training, the board shall dismiss the case.	The EPSB may defer action and require training that is relevant to the circumstances of the case only after it has determined that appropriate training is available and from whom. The board shall inform the respondent of that information and shall also inform the respondent of the dates of the next 4 board meetings. If the respondent provides written proof to the board that he or she has successfully completed the recommended training, the case shall be dismissed with prejudice at the next regularly

	scheduled board meeting. RATIONALE: The EPSB should not require training that may not exist, and respondents should not have to go on a treasure hunt to find training that complies. The calendar information will help respondents understand the timeline by which they should complete their training and submit that information to the board.
Admonish: The evidence presented to the board provides a clear indication that the alleged misconduct did in fact occur; however, it is not serious enough to warrant a suspension of the certificate. The board issues a written admonishment to the educator with a copy to his or her superintendent.	No copy to the superintendent. RATIONALE: Why? Nothing requires this and none of the other outcomes are provided to the superintendent.
Refer to hearing: The evidence, if true, would indicate that punitive action should be taken against the certificate. Legal staff shall further investigate the allegations and proceed toward an administrative hearing in accordance with KRS 13B.
Case assigned to an attorney	Written notice of the board action, including the name and contact information for the assigned attorney, shall be mailed to the respondent within three (3) business days after the board votes to hear the case. RATIONALE: To avoid undue delay in notifying the respondent.
Attorney investigates initial complaint and any other matters that come to light during investigation.	For a period of 90 days after the board votes to hear the case.
Agreed Order is drafted and sent to respondent for review.	The initial written offer of settlement must be made within ninety (90) days of the date the

	EPSB voted to hear the matter. The written offer shall specify the charges against the educator. RATIONALE: Generally, complaints made to the EPSB have been investigated by the superintendent or are in the process of being investigated by another agency. Therefore, an entirely new investigation will rarely be necessary. Imposing a timeline for the initial offer of settlement encourages timely disposition of cases.
Respondent accepts Agreed Order.	The Agreed Order is presented to the board at its next regularly scheduled meeting. If the board accepts the Agreed Order, a copy of the fully executed Order shall be mailed to the respondent within three (3) business days. Other than the information contained in the board minutes, no information about suspension or revocation will be made available by any means other than a properly tendered Open Records request or valid subpoena. RATIONALE: There is no benefit to the EPSB or to the public in affirmatively publishing disciplinary information without an appropriate Open Records Request. If a certificate is suspended or revoked, it simply should not be accessible in the KECI database for the period of suspension or revocation. Once the respondent completes the period of suspension, the certificate will be automatically reinstated and should be restored to KECI without any mark, since the discipline meted out by the board will have been satisfied. If an application for reinstatement after revocation is successful, the certificate should simply reappear on KECI and no mark should appear for the same reason.
Respondent rejects Agreed Order.	Negotiations may continue until an Agreed Order is ready for submission to the board or

	until the respondent makes a written request for a hearing, whichever first occurs. RATIONALE: Right now there is absolutely no incentive for the EPSB to efficiently practice and dispose of cases, because they can simply ignore requests for hearing.
Respondent makes a written request for a hearing.	The written request for hearing may be made any time after receipt of the initial settlement offer. A written request for hearing shall be sent to the assigned attorney, with a copy to EPSB general counsel and also to the Administrative Hearings Division of the Attorney General. RATIONALE: Allowing a respondent to make a request for a hearing at any time after the initial offer of settlement and requiring the EPSB to respond gives the teacher leverage in the process and should encourage more reasonable negotiating positions.
Administrative hearing charges are drafted.	Within 20 (twenty) days after a written request for hearing is received by the assigned attorney, administrative hearing charges pursuant to KRS 13B.050 shall be drafted and served on the respondent, with a copy simultaneously provided to the Administrative Hearings Division of the Attorney General. RATIONALE: At this point the assigned attorney has had at least 90 days, perhaps longer, to investigate the merits of the case. It should not take more than twenty days to draft the charges and provide the information required by 13B.
Hearing officer assigned.	The hearing officer shall convene a telephonic scheduling meeting with the parties within ten (10) days after the hearing officer's receipt of the charges. The administrative hearing shall begin at least sixty (60) days but not more than ninety (90) days from the date written charges were served upon the respondent unless the respondent requests a later hearing. At least thirty (30) days before

	the hearing date, the EPSB shall serve upon the respondent a list of witnesses the EPSB will call at the hearing, a copy or description of any evidence to be used at the hearing and a copy or description of any exculpatory information in the agency's possession. Respondent shall serve a witness list on the EPSB twenty (20) days before the hearing date. Timelines may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties.
The hearing process proceeds along the timelines set out in KRS 13B	RATIONALE: The language in 13B requires notice of a hearing "at least" 20 days in advance, and also requires witness lists and evidence "at least" 5 days before the hearing. Those timelines are generally taken literally but are much too short to allow the respondent to properly prepare. A regulation can expand the statutory timelines but cannot shorten them.

16 KAR 1:030. Procedures for certificate revocation, suspension, reinstatement and reissuance, and application denial.

RELATES TO: KRS 161.028(1), 161.120, 218A.010(5)

STATUTORY AUTHORITY: KRS 161.028(1), 161.175(2)

NECESSITY, FUNCTION, AND CONFORMITY: KRS 161.028(1) authorizes the Education Professional Standards Board to establish standards and requirements for obtaining and maintaining a teaching certificate. KRS 161.175(2) authorizes the Education Professional Standards Board to promulgate administrative regulations requiring a teacher whose certificate has been suspended or revoked by the Education Professional Standards Board because the teacher engaged in misconduct involving the illegal use of controlled substances to submit to drug testing. This administrative regulation identifies the conditions for initiating a disciplinary action against a teaching or administrative certificate and establishes procedures for certificate reinstatement, reissuance, and application denial.

Section 1. Initiating Disciplinary Action Against a Certificate. The Education Professional Standards Board may initiate disciplinary action against a Kentucky teaching or administrative certificate upon receipt from any source of a report or complaint which contains allegations that an individual who holds a Kentucky teaching or administrative certificate has engaged in conduct listed in KRS 161.120(1).

Section 2. Reinstatement and Reissuance of Certificate. (1)(a) A certificate that has been suspended by the Education Professional Standards Board shall not be reinstated until the certificate holder has met all conditions and requirements ordered by the Education Professional Standards Board.

(b) If a certificate lapses during a period of suspension, at the end of the suspension period and upon completion of all conditions and requirements ordered by the Education Professional Standards Board, the certificate holder shall apply for renewal of the certificate and shall meet all educational requirements for renewal of the certificate.

(2) An individual whose certificate has been revoked shall complete the "Application for Kentucky Certification or Change in Salary Rank", Form TC-1, incorporated by reference in 16 KAR 2:010, prior to the reissuance of the certificate.

(3) The burden of proving suitability for reissuance of a revoked certificate shall rest on the applicant seeking reinstatement.

(4) If reissuing a certificate, the Education Professional Standards Board may include terms and conditions that the board reasonably deems appropriate as a condition of reissuance in accordance with KRS 161.120(11)(b).

(5) An applicant for reissuance of a revoked certificate shall satisfy all current educational requirements for the certificate.

(6)(a) If a certificate is suspended or revoked because the certificate holder engaged in misconduct involving the illegal use of a controlled substance as defined in KRS 218A.010(5), in addition to conditions for reinstatement or reissuance, the certificate holder shall at the certificate holder's own expense provide written evidence that the certificate holder has submitted to a drug test administered by a drug testing facility approved by the Education Professional Standards Board within thirty (30) days of reinstatement or submission of an application for reissuance of the certificate.

(b) If the results of the drug test indicate drug use by the certificate holder, the certificate shall not be reinstated or reissued.

(c) The certificate holder shall arrange for the drug testing facility to send the results of the drug test directly to the Education Professional Standards Board.

(d) A drug test conducted under this subsection shall at a minimum test for the following controlled substances:

1. Marijuana;
2. Cocaine;
3. Opiates;
4. Amphetamines;
5. Phencyclidene;
6. Morphine;
7. MDMA (Ecstasy);
8. Methadone;
9. Benzodiazepines;
10. Barbiturates; and
11. Oxycodone.

(e)1. A certificate holder subject to the terms of this subsection may petition the Education Professional Standards Board to approve a drug testing facility of the certificate holder's choice.

2. The petition shall contain the following information:
 - a. The drug testing facility's name and location;
 - b. The name and telephone number for the director of the facility;
 - c. The method of test specimen collection;
 - d. The drug testing facility's method of assuring identity of the test subject;
 - e. Procedures for testing specimens, including forensic testing methods; and
 - f. Chain of custody protocols.

Section 3. Denial of Application for a Certificate. If the Education Professional Standards Board denies an individual's application for a Kentucky teaching or administrative certificate pursuant to this administrative regulation, the individual may file an appeal in accordance with KRS 161.120(5)(a)2. (19 Ky.R. 1264; Am. 1599; 1751; eff. 2-4-93; 20 Ky.R. 633; eff. 11-4-93; 23 Ky.R. 3617; 4124; eff. 6-16-97; r revictimize the alleged victim or cause harm if an employee is falsely accused;

- (h) Receive, along with investigators hired by the Education Professional Standards Board, training on the dynamics of sexual misconduct of professionals, including the nature of this abuse of authority, characteristics of the offender, the impact on the victim, the possibility and the impact of false accusations, investigative procedures in sex offense cases, and effective intervention with victims and offenders;

Any waiver granted under this subsection shall be subject to revocation if the person or institution falsifies information or subsequently fails to meet the intent of the waiver;
- (s) Promote the development of one (1) or more innovative, nontraditional or alternative administrator or teacher preparation programs through public or private colleges or universities, private contractors, the Department of Education, or the Kentucky Commonwealth Virtual University and waive administrative regulations if needed in order to implement the program;

The temporary certificate shall be valid for a maximum of two (2) years, and shall be contingent upon the candidate's continued enrollment in the preparation program and compliance with all requirements established by the board.  - (a) Being convicted of, or entering an "Alford" plea or plea of nolo contendere to, notwithstanding an order granting probation or suspending imposition of any sentence imposed following the conviction or entry of the plea, one (1) of the following:
 1. A felony;

 - (c) Committing any act that constitutes fraudulent, corrupt, dishonest, or immoral conduct. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action;
 - (d) Demonstrating willful or careless disregard for the health, welfare, or safety of others;
 - (e) Physical or mental incapacity that prevents the certificate holder from performing duties with reasonable skill, competence, or safety;
 - (f) Possessing, using, or being under the influence of alcohol, which impairs the performance of duties;
 - (g) Unlawfully possessing or unlawfully using a drug during the performance of duties;

- (n) Violating any administrative regulation promulgated by the Education Professional Standards Board or the Kentucky Board of Education; or
 - (o) Receiving disciplinary action or having the issuance of a certificate denied or restricted by another jurisdiction on grounds that constitute a violation of this subsection.
- (2) (a) The superintendent of each local school district shall report in writing to the Education Professional Standards Board the name, address, phone number, Social Security number, and position name of any certified school employee in the employee's district whose contract is terminated or not renewed, for cause except failure to meet local standards for quality of teaching performance prior to the employee gaining tenure; who resigns from, or otherwise leaves, a position under threat of contract termination, or nonrenewal, for cause; who is convicted in a criminal prosecution; or who otherwise may have engaged in any actions or conduct while employed in the school district that might reasonably be expected to warrant consideration for action against the certificate under subsection (1) of this section. The duty to report shall exist without regard to any disciplinary action, or lack thereof, by the superintendent, and the required report shall be submitted within thirty (30) days of the event giving rise to the duty to report.
- (b) The district superintendent shall inform the Education Professional Standards Board in writing of the full facts and circumstances leading to the contract termination or nonrenewal, resignation, or other absence, conviction, or otherwise reported actions or conduct of the certified employee, that may warrant action against the certificate under subsection (1) of this section, and shall forward copies of all relevant documents and records in his possession.
- (c) The Education Professional Standards Board may consider reports and information received from other sources.

- (4) The board may issue a written admonishment to the certificate holder if the board determines, based on the evidence, that a violation has occurred that is not of a serious nature. A copy of the written admonishment shall be placed in the official file of the certificate holder. The certificate holder may respond in writing to the admonishment within thirty (30) days of receipt and have that response placed in his official certification file. Alternatively, the certificate holder may file a request for a hearing with the board within thirty (30) days of receipt of the admonishment. Upon receipt of a request for a hearing, the board shall set aside the written admonishment and set the matter for hearing pursuant to the provisions of KRS Chapter 13B.
- (5) (a) The Education Professional Standards Board shall schedule and conduct a hearing in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B:

 - (b) The board shall have discretion to impose conditions that it deems reasonably appropriate to ensure the applicant's fitness and the protection of public safety. Any conditions imposed by the board shall address or apply to only that time period after the revocation of the certificate.

- (12) An appeal from any final order of the Education Professional Standards Board shall be filed in Franklin Circuit Court in accordance with KRS Chapter 13B.

Education Professional Standards Board

VIOLATIONS OF THE ADMINISTRATION CODE FOR KENTUCKY'S EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENT PROGRAM--
COMMONWEALTH ACCOUNTABILITY TESTING SYSTEM (CATS)
PROCEDURE

Approved August 26, 2002

Pursuant to KRS 161.120(1)(n), the Education Professional Standards Board (“the Board”) is empowered to take disciplinary action against a certificate holder for violations of the Administration Code in administering the CATS. In cooperation with the Division of Management Assistance (DMA) at the Kentucky Department of Education, the Board has developed the following procedure for addressing CATS violations:

- 1) DMA receives all initial reports of testing/administrative errors.
- 2) If test scores were not affected by the error, DMA conducts a cursory investigation and may or may not recommend training. The incident is reported to the Board but no action is taken by staff.
- 3) If test scores were affected by the error, DMA conducts an in-depth investigation and determines whether the violation was intentional or unintentional. If the error was unintentional and the first such violation by the teacher:
 - a) DMA advises the superintendent by letter to be mindful of the legal duty to report to the Board;
 - b) Board staff receives a copy of DMA’s letter to the superintendent;
 - c) Board staff enters the educator’s name into its own CATS database;
 1. The district assessment coordinator (DAC), the superintendent, and the educator are all sent a letter advising that the Board has received the DMA report and will close its case upon receipt of proof of three hours DMA or equivalent training.
 2. If such proof is not received within 60 days, a warning letter will be sent;
 3. After 90 days, a regular disciplinary case will be opened pursuant to KRS 161.120
 - d) Board staff will report all “repeat offenders” to the Board.
- 4) If the DMA investigation determines that the violation was intentional, DMA sends a letter to the district advising the superintendent to report to the Board and also notifies

Board staff directly. Staff then opens a regular disciplinary case and it proceeds toward a probable cause determination.

- 5) Violations by administrators and multiple violations by teachers will be reviewed by the Board to determine if further action is necessary under KRS 161.120.

Education Professional Standards Board

DETERMINING PROBABLE CAUSE TO TAKE DISCIPLINARY ACTION PROCEDURE

Amended November 19, 2007

(Approved August 26, 2002)

Pursuant to KRS 161.120(1), the Education Professional Standards Board (hereinafter “the Board”) may take disciplinary action against certified educators. Superintendents have a duty to report misconduct within 30 days of the incident and may be subject to disciplinary action for failing to so report. In addition, other sources may submit complaints to the Board’s legal staff. Legal staff shall initiate a disciplinary case when the allegation in the report or complaint establishes an act prohibited by KRS 161.120 (1).

Upon opening a disciplinary case, the legal staff sends the educator (“respondent”) a copy of the complaint received and he or she is advised in writing of the right to submit any rebuttal material within 30 days. The respondent also has the ability to request a delay in submitting a rebuttal. (This is frequently the case when an employment tribunal or concurrent civil or criminal trial is involved.) Board policy is to authorize legal staff to grant such requests at their discretion and for good cause.

Following receipt of a rebuttal or the expiration of the time limit for its submission, the initial case is presented by legal staff at the next regularly scheduled board meeting. At that time, if the Board does not request further information, it makes one of the following “probable cause” determinations:

Dismiss: The complaint against the educator shall be dismissed. The dismissal may not be based upon the merits of the case, but rather some other aspect, such as weak facts, incomplete reporting, lack of cooperation from witnesses, etc.; therefore, subsequent action on this complaint is not prohibited.

Deferral for training: The evidence presented to the Board indicates that the Respondent would benefit from remedial training. The Board shall defer consideration of this case in order to offer the Respondent an opportunity to complete the suggested training. If the Respondent provides written proof to the Board that he or she has successfully completed the recommended training, the Board shall dismiss the case.

Admonish: The evidence presented to the Board provides a clear indication that the alleged misconduct did in fact occur; however, it is not serious enough to warrant a suspension of the certificate. The Board issues a written admonishment to the educator with a copy to his or her superintendent.

Refer to Hearing: The evidence, if true, would indicate that punitive action should be taken against the certificate. Legal staff shall further investigate the allegations and proceed toward an administrative hearing in accordance with KRS 13B.

Education Professional Standards Board

CHARACTER AND FITNESS APPLICATIONS

PROCEDURE

Approved August 26, 2002

Pursuant to KRS 161.028(1)(a), the Education Professional Standards Board (“the Board”) is responsible for establishing standards and requirements for obtaining and maintaining a certificate. Accordingly, all applicants for initial certification and renewal are required to submit a Character and Fitness application. Therein, the applicant is asked several questions pertaining to past convictions or disciplinary action in relation to past employment. Any “yes” answer requires that the Board approve the application. All such applications are submitted to Legal Services staff and a summary of the self-reported details is prepared and presented at the next regularly-scheduled board meeting.

In evaluating Character and Fitness applications, there are no grounds for automatic denial of certification. However, KRS 160.380(3) prohibits a superintendent from hiring a violent offender or a person convicted of a felony sex crime.

The Board considers, among other things, the nature of the offense, if any children or minors were involved, if any violence or drugs were involved, how long ago the event occurred, the age of the applicant at the time of the offense, and if any terms of a sentence or probation were fulfilled. The Board then determines whether to approve or deny the application. (The Board may also ask for additional information before making its decision.)

The applicant is advised of the Board decision by letter. In the event the application is denied, the applicant is further advised of his or her right to a hearing pursuant to KRS 161.120(5)(a)2. If an applicant exercises that right, the case proceeds along the same course as a disciplinary case, culminating in Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and a Final Order.

Education Professional Standards Board

PRELIMINARY CHARACTER AND FITNESS APPROVAL PROCEDURE

Approved November 16, 1998
Amended August 26, 2002

The Education Professional Standards Board (“the Board”) has an established precedent to approve Character and Fitness applications that indicate certain past misdemeanor convictions. Based upon that precedent, the Board authorizes a staff attorney to issue preliminary approval for certification under the following conditions:

- The applicant is NOT applying for an emergency certificate
- The applicant has a verified offer of employment
- The applicant has only one misdemeanor conviction
- The conviction did not involve children, firearms, or drugs (excluding marijuana)
- The conviction was more than two years ago

Legal staff will notify the applicant of the preliminary approval contingent upon Board approval. Each case of preliminary approval will be submitted to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting for review and final approval. The certificates of those applicants approved by the Board shall remain valid. The certificates of those applicants subsequently denied by the Board shall be automatically revoked and the applicant (and employing district) notified immediately by the Board legal staff. The applicant shall be entitled to appeal as set out in KRS 161.120(5)(a)2.

Re: Education Professional Standards Board compliance with KRS 13A.100(2) and 13A.130

Dear Attorney General Conway:

Please consider this request for an opinion of the Attorney General in accordance with KRS 15.025 and 40 KAR 1:020.

BACKGROUND AND CURRENT FACTUAL SITUATION:

KRS 161.028(1)(f) and KRS 161.120 grant the Education Professional Standards Board authority to take disciplinary action against a teacher's certificate for enumerated reasons. Section 2(a) of KRS 161.120 imposes a very broad reporting requirement on superintendents, requires that a written report of an alleged infraction be made to the EPSB within 30 days of the alleged event, and also requires that the report be made regardless of whether or not the superintendent believes the matter warrants disciplinary action. As of the date of this writing, the only regulation that relates to that statute is 16 KAR 1:030, which does not address the questions presented herein.

The disciplinary process at the EPSB proceeds as follows: 1) the superintendent or other person makes a written report to the EPSB about a teacher's alleged violation of KRS 161.120 or the code of professional ethics; 2) the EPSB's Director of Legal Services reviews all reports and determines which require a case to be opened and which don't require any further action; 3) if the Director of Legal Services determines that a case should be opened, the EPSB sends a certified letter to the teacher informing him or her about the report and asks the teacher to make a written response within thirty (30) days; 4) the EPSB staff then summarizes the allegations and submits the case for consideration by the EPSB members at a subsequent meeting; 5) the EPSB reviews the case and decides whether to dismiss the case entirely or take another action authorized by KRS 161.120; 6) if the EPSB decides to "hear" the case, it is assigned back to the Director of Legal Services or her designee for further investigation; 7) whenever the EPSB investigation concludes, negotiations begin to try and settle the case without a hearing; 8) if negotiations are not successful, the EPSB may file charges and move to a hearing or, in the alternative, the teacher may demand a hearing at any point in this process.

The most important thing to note about the process outlined above is that there are no deadlines by which the EPSB must act. The only deadlines are on the superintendent, who must report allegations within thirty (30) days, and on the teacher, who must respond to the EPSB within thirty (30) days. At every point in the process, the EPSB may take as long as it likes to determine whether a case will be opened, to notify the teacher of that decision, to investigate a case, to offer a settlement, to file charges, or to respond to a demand for a hearing. As a result, it often takes years for a contested disciplinary case to draw to a close. The EPSB Director of Legal Services recently said in an open meeting that she considers a case to be successfully prosecuted if it can be concluded in two (2) years or less. Most cases that are open for investigation take much longer than that.

Prior to 2004, an attorney working on behalf of a teacher or an unrepresented teacher could review the provisions of KRS 161.120 and 16 KAR 1:030, generally understand the disciplinary process described above, and properly advise clients at each step in the process. However, in May and July 2004, by motions at regular meetings, the EPSB voted to implement all of the following practices:

- 1) Approve the surrender of suspended or revoked certificates;
- 2) Approve the notation of periods of suspension and/or revocation on certificates when reissued;
- 3) Approve displaying final AND pending actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website, with access limited to school district administrators.

(See attached "EPSB Staff Note" dated August 2004, marked as pages E21-E23) The staff note indicates that "once approved by the EPSB, these procedures will be implemented immediately." Id. The staff note is entitled "Changes to Disciplinary Practices," and the included excerpt from EPSB board minutes also refers to these actions as "Changes to Disciplinary Practices."

The Honorable Jack Conway
March 19, 2014

However, these important changes to the disciplinary process are not readily accessible to the teachers against whom they are being enforced. The practices have never been formalized as EPSB board policy nor have they been put into statute or regulation.

APPLICABLE LAW:

The following statutes apply to the fact situation presented.

Chapter 13A of the Kentucky Revised Statutes governs the administrative regulation process, limiting and defining the regulatory power granted to state agencies by the legislature.

KRS 13A.100, "Matters which shall be prescribed by administrative regulation," states, in part:

Subject to limitations in applicable statutes, any administrative body which is empowered to promulgate administrative regulations shall, by administrative regulation prescribe, consistent with applicable statutes:

(1) Each statement of general applicability, policy, procedure, memorandum, or other form of action that implements; interprets; prescribes law or policy; describes the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of any administrative body; or affects private rights or procedures available to the public; . . .

(4) The procedures to be utilized by the administrative body in the conduct of hearings by or for the administrative body unless such procedures are prescribed by a statute; and

(5) The disciplinary procedures within the jurisdiction of the administrative body unless such procedures are prescribed by statute.

(Emphasis added). The EPSB practices described above apply only to teachers who are involved in the EPSB disciplinary process. The certificates are marked "investigation pending" in a closed database immediately upon opening a disciplinary case, even before the educator receives notice that a complaint was made, and long before an accused educator is given any opportunity to face his or her accuser and present a defense to the accusation. The mark remains on the certificate during the entire time the disciplinary case remains open and is only removed when the case is resolved, months or years later. Likewise, requiring surrender of certificates that have been suspended or revoked and permanently marking those actions on the face of the certificates is a direct result of the disciplinary process and any resolution thereof, whether the resolution occurs by agreed order or whether it is imposed on the educator after a hearing. These practices are obviously part of the "disciplinary procedures within the jurisdiction" of the EPSB and are not otherwise prescribed by statute.

Just as KRS 13A.100 defines matters that must be incorporated into regulation, KRS 13A.130 defines actions that state agencies cannot take. Entitled "Matters prohibited as subject of internal policy, memorandum or other form of action," KRS 13A.130 states:

(1) An administrative body shall not by internal policy, memorandum, or other form of action:

- (a) Modify a statute or administrative regulation;
- (b) Expand upon or limit a statute or administrative regulation; and
- (c) Except as authorized by the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Kentucky or a statute, expand or limit a right guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Kentucky, a statute, or an administrative regulation.

(2) Any administrative body memorandum, internal policy, or other form of action violative of this section or the spirit thereof is null, void, and unenforceable.

- (3) This section shall not be construed to prohibit an administrative body issuing an opinion or administrative decision which is authorized by statute.

(Emphasis added). The EPSB's practices described above were initiated by "other form of action," since the decisions have never even been formally established as internal policy and are not the result of an internal memorandum. The practices expand upon the disciplinary authority and processes set out in KRS 161.120 and 16 KAR 1:030. For those reasons we believe the actions violate KRS 13A.130 and are "null, void and unenforceable."

The Honorable Jack Conway

QUESTIONS PRESENTED:

1. Whether the provisions of KRS 13A.100(1) and (5) require the "disciplinary practices" implemented by the EPSB in 2004 upon simple motion of the board be prescribed by administrative regulation.
2. If the answer to Question #1 is "yes," whether the provisions of KRS 13A.130(2) render all actions taken by the EPSB on the basis of those disciplinary practices "null, void and unenforceable."

Sincerely,

Rick Nelson

Amendment to EPSB's Determining Probable Cause to Take Disciplinary Action Procedure, Notice of Intent

Applicable Statutes and Regulation:

KRS 161.028, KRS 161.120, 16 KAR 1:020, 16 KAR 1:030

Applicable Goal:

Goal 3: Every credentialed educator exemplifies behaviors that maintain the dignity and integrity of the profession by adhering to established law and EPSB Code of Ethics.

Issue:

Should the EPSB approve the proposed amendments to the EPSB's Determining Probable Cause to Take Disciplinary Action Procedure contained in the EPSB's Policy and Procedure Manual?

Background:

In August 2004, the Board voted to approve the surrender of suspended or revoked certificates, note the periods of suspension and revocation on certificates when reissued, and display final and pending actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website with access limited to school district administrators. Staff used the Kentucky Educator Certification Inquiry (KECI), <https://wd.kyepsb.net/EPSB.WebApps/KECI/>, as the website to display this information. A notation indicating a complaint is pending appears in KECI when a disciplinary case is initiated against an educator, but only school district superintendents and human resource personnel have access to this information. Recently, technology staff also added this view to the educator's homepage in KECI.

If an educator's certificate is suspended or revoked upon the resolution of the disciplinary case, the educator surrenders his or her certificate. Upon reinstatement or reissuance of the certificate, the educator is issued a new certificate with the suspension and revocation dates printed on the certificate. This issue was discussed at the November 2011 board retreat and the Board instructed staff to also include this information on KECI. Currently, if an educator's certificate is revoked or suspended it appears in red and is struck through on KECI. Upon reinstatement or reissuance, the suspension and revocation dates are noted on KECI as seen below:

Goal V: Every teacher and administrator shall maintain the standards of the profession.

Issue:

Should the Education Professional Standard Board (EPSB) approve changes to current disciplinary practices?

Background:

At the May 2004 EPSB meeting and during the July retreat, the General Counsel discussed with board members several options for ensuring that Kentucky school districts and other stakeholders are aware of the suspensions and revocations of the certificates of educators who have engaged in misconduct. The board came to consensus on the following procedures:

- 1) The EPSB should require the surrender of suspended or revoked certificates.
- 2) The EPSB should note on the face of the certificate any periods of suspension and/or revocation when the certificate is reissued.
- 3) The EPSB should display final and pending actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website, with access limited to school district administrators.
- 4) The EPSB should display final actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website, with access open to the public.

Once approved by the EPSB, these procedures will be implemented immediately.

Procedure 3:

1. Approve displaying final and pending actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website, with access limited to school district administrators
2. Do not approve displaying final and pending actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website, with access limited to school district administrators

Procedure 4:

1. Approve displaying final actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website, with access open to the public
2. Do not approve displaying final actions taken against educator certificates on the EPSB website, with access open to the public

Staff Recommendation:

Action 1 for all procedures

Rationale:

KRS 161.120 and 16 KAR 1:030 authorize the EPSB to revoke or suspend certificates, as well as to specify terms and conditions instituted to protect the health, welfare, and safety of school children and the public. Requiring that certificate holders surrender suspended or revoked certificates to the EPSB lessens the possibility that the suspended or revoked certificate holder will present the certificate to a Kentucky public, private, or parochial school to obtain employment.

Noting the periods of suspension and revocation on the face of the certificate, in conjunction with the issuance and expiration dates, provides districts with accurate information as to the certificate's period of validity. Moreover, providing district administrators with access to the status (revoked, suspended, or action pending) of educator certificates facilitates informed employment decisions.

The EPSB currently lists final actions taken against certificates on its website, but this information is not readily accessible. Final actions against certificates (i.e., revocations and suspensions) are matters of public record, and thus should be made more available to the public-at-large.

Model Code of Ethics for State Board and Commission Members

Board members reviewed a memorandum from Ms. Jill LeMaster, Executive Director of the Executive Branch Ethics Commission, requesting that the EPSB give consideration to adopting the Model Code of Ethics for State Board and Commission Members. Upon discussion, board members asked that the General Counsel modify the Code of Ethics to clearly articulate that the code would not prohibit the acceptance of payment for work performed as mentors for candidates pursuing NBPTS certification, cooperating teacher for student teachers, resource teacher for teacher interns or mentors for teachers/administrators.

This item will be brought back at the September 2004 meeting as an action item.

Re: Rep. Rick Nelson's request for an Opinion

Dear Attorney General Conway:

Representative Rick Nelson has requested that the Office of the Attorney General issue an opinion regarding whether the provisions of KRS 13A.100(1) and (5) require the “disciplinary practices” implemented by the Education Professional Standards Board (EPSB) in 2004 to be prescribed by administrative regulation and, if so, whether the provisions of KRS 13A.130(2) render all actions taken by the EPSB on the basis of those disciplinary practices null, void, and unenforceable. The EPSB contends that the motions made in 2004 were directives to staff concerning the dissemination of public information, and therefore were internal matters and not matters described under KRS 13A.100.

In August of 2004, the prior General Counsel for the EPSB brought an action item for the EPSB’s consideration regarding dissemination of information regarding disciplinary matters. Ten (10) years ago, the EPSB was in the process of developing its current website and several online search tools to be used by public. Although the staff note states the action items were related to “disciplinary practices,” only board motion 2004-053 actually involved a “disciplinary practice:” “Motion made by Ms. Thompson, seconded by Ms. Gray, to approve the surrender of suspended or revoked certificates.” EPSB Minutes, August 9, 2004, page 4. Staff implemented that directive by including in all future agreed orders for a suspension or revocation the requirement that the respondent in the disciplinary matter surrender any copies of his or her certificate to the EPSB. If the EPSB suspends or revokes a certificate by final order pursuant to KRS 13B.120, the EPSB is responsible for ordering the surrender of the certificate in the final order. If the agreed order or final order does not include that requirement, the EPSB cannot enforce the surrender of the certificate.

Motions 2004-054 and 2004-055 involved dissemination of public information originating from disciplinary matters. 2004-054 ordered staff to note periods of suspensions and revocations on certificates when reissued and 2004-055 ordered staff to display final and pending actions taken against educator certificate on the EPSB website with access limited to school district administrators. According to the minutes, these motions were made after a discussion on “options for ensuring that Kentucky school districts and other stakeholders are aware of the suspensions and revocations of the certificates of educators who have engaged in misconduct.” EPSB Minutes, August 9, 2004, page 4.

The EPSB’s technology staff implemented motions 2004-054 and 2004-055 as part of the development of the Kentucky Educator Certification Inquiry (KECI), <https://wd.kyepsb.net/EPSB.WebApps/KECI/>. KECI has a public site and secure site which allows additional access to school district and institutions of higher education educator preparation programs (EPPs) personnel to review information pertaining to individual certificate-holders. The technology staff established a notification available only to superintendents and school district human resources officers that simply alerted the district that a complaint was pending before the EPSB. The fact that a complaint is pending before the EPSB has been considered a matter of public information and was released pursuant to the Kentucky Open Records Act, KRS 61.870 et. seq., by EPSB staff. Superintendents and school district human resource personnel are the individuals who most often requested information regarding certified educators, and therefore the information was made automatically available to them through KECI. When certificates were re-issued after August of 2004, any suspensions and revocations dates were noted on the certificate pursuant to the EPSB’s directive. Again, this is considered public information and was available to any requester pursuant to KRS 61.872(1) which states

“all public records shall be open for inspection by any person.” The suspension and revocation information is also noted on KECI’s public site, so if a member of the public looked up an individual certificate holder, any prior suspension or revocation information would appear along with the individual’s current credentials.

The EPSB is a public agency, and therefore all of its records are “public records” pursuant to KRS 61.870. KRS 61.871 states:

The General Assembly finds and declares that the basic policy of KRS 61.870 to 61.884 is that free and open examination of public records is in the public interest and the exceptions provided by KRS 61.878 or otherwise provided by law shall be strictly construed, even though such examination may cause inconvenience or embarrassment to public officials or others.

All the information ordered by the EPSB in motions 2004-054 and 2004-053 is considered a public record and is not covered by an exemption under KRS 61.878. The EPSB’s current legal staff has consistently reviewed the dissemination of information on the EPSB’s website to ensure that “public records containing information of a personal nature where the public disclosure thereof would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy,” KRS 61.878(1)(a) and other exempted information and data are not included on the EPSB’s website or KECI. In the past ten (10) years since the EPSB’s directives to staff were given, the legal staff has reviewed the dissemination of disciplinary information to ensure that the information that is automatically posted is the same information that is available under the Open Records Act.

As a licensing body, the EPSB is aware of its duties under KRS 13A.100 and 13A.130; however the EPSB’s directives to staff through its motions 2004-054 and 2004-055 do not implicate KRS 13A.100 or 13A.130, but are “statements concerning only the internal management of an administrative body and not affecting private rights or procedures available to the public.” KRS 13A.010(2)(a). Whether an individual has a complaint pending against him or her and the dates an individual’s certificate was suspended or revoked is public information and how that information is disseminated to the public is an internal management issue and not an issue which affects any individual’s private rights. Furthermore, the dissemination of this information does not affect any procedure available to the public. The EPSB had directed staff to make it automatically available to school district personnel on its website, but that does not preclude an individual from requesting the information pursuant to KRS 61.872.

In Bowling v. Kentucky Department of Corrections, 301 S.W.3d 478 (Ky. 2009), the Kentucky Supreme Court reviewed whether the Kentucky Department of Corrections (DOC) was required to promulgate a regulation detailing its lethal injection procedures. The Kentucky Supreme Court concluded “regulation is . . . mandated by KRS 13A.100, which requires regulation if, as here, the regulation will prescribe statements of general applicability which implement laws (such as KRS 431.220) or affect private rights.” Id. At 491-492. KRS 431.220 prescribes how the execution of the death sentence shall be implemented. Although disclosure of public information might arguably be an implementation of the Open Records Act, the purpose of the Open Records act is to provide “free an open examination of public record . . . in the public interest.” KRS 61.871. Providing unfettered access to public information on a website is consistent with the Open Records Act, and does not “expand upon or limit a statute or administrative regulation.” KRS 13A.130(1)(b). Under the Bowling analysis, an agency should only have to promulgate a regulation if it is restricting the right to “an open examination of public record,” not if it is making the records available without request.

Additionally, respondents in EPSB disciplinary matters are not penalized by EPSB’s August 2004 order to disseminate information. In Hyatt v. Commonwealth, 72 S.W.3d 566 (Ky. 2002), the Kentucky Supreme Court examined constitutionality of the centralized registry containing convicted sexual offenders’ addresses and the public notification requirements of KRS 17.500 et.seq. The Court stated, “We are persuaded that the designation of sexual predator is not a sentence or a punishment but simply a status resulting from a conviction of a sex crime.” Id. at 572. The Court went on to say, “Although registration might impose a burden on a convicted sex offender, registration is merely a remedial aspect of the sentence . . . The registration laws do not punish sex offenders.” Id. at 573. Finally, the Court opined, “The compilation of the information in one place does not add a punitive consequence to an otherwise regulatory measure.” Id. at 574. The information designated to be released by motions 2004-054 and 2004-055 is simply status information resulting from a complaint received by the EPSB or an action taken by the EPSB pursuant to KRS 161.120, the EPSB’s disciplinary statute. Again, this information is available to the public pursuant to the Open Records Act.

Therefore, despite the use of the term “disciplinary practices” in the staff notes and minutes, motions 2004-054 and 2004-055 are not “practices” but directives from the EPSB to staff regarding internal management. Motion 2004-053 does impact an individual's rights, but the legal staff implemented that motion through settlement negotiations with respondents in disciplinary matters and does not enforce the directive unless the respondent agrees to surrender his or her certificate.

The EPSB strives to ensure that it meets all its statutory duties in a manner that is fair and transparent to the public. If the Office of the Attorney General believes that the implementation of motions from the August 9, 2004 board meeting are required to be promulgated as an administrative regulation pursuant to KRS 13A.100(1) and (5), the actions of the EPSB would not be "null, void, and unenforceable" pursuant to KRS 13A.130(2). The appropriate remedy would be for the EPSB to promulgate regulations as the Supreme Court ordered DOC to do in Bowling, 301 S.W. 3d at 492. If the Office of the Attorney General opines that the public information released on the EPSB's website is a "practice" subject to promulgation in an administrative regulation, then the EPSB respectfully requests the opinion to explicitly give all state agencies guidance on the publication of information on their websites.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Open Speak

Ms. Mardi Montgomery, Deputy Secretary for Education, updated the board on the National Commission on Teaching in American Future (NCTAF) meeting held in July. She indicated that NCTAF is in a transition period with a change of leadership; however, the organization remains focused on research and working with the requirements of the No Child Left Behind (NCLB) Act of 2001 and having a "highly qualified" teacher in every classroom.

Report of the Executive Director and Staff

Dr. Leib discussed concerns received from the Green River Regional Educational Cooperative (GRREC) with regard to proper certification for curriculum consultants and athletic directors in the LEAD (Local Educator Assignment Data) report. After a lengthy discussion, the board agreed to the following:

1. Persons holding responsibilities other than classroom teaching -- i.e., oversight of curriculum or programs, who serve in these positions during the instructional day, and who receive instructional funds (i.e., SEEK monies) for serving in these positions must hold either administrative or consultant certification. Consultant certification requires three years' teaching experience, a master's degree (or the equivalent), and certification in the area of oversight (e.g., language arts; music). This is in keeping with KRS 161.020, which states, in part, that "[n]o person shall be eligible to hold . . . [any position] for which certificates may be issued, or receive salary for services rendered in the position, unless he or she holds a certificate of legal qualifications for the position . . ." This also is in keeping with the intent of the NCLB Act of 2001 that every teacher and administrator shall be deemed "highly qualified." The requirement for consultant certification has been in place since at least 1980.
2. Persons serving in curricular/program oversight roles but not holding either administrative or consultant certification will kick out on this year's LEAD Report as being "out of field." However, in that EPSB staff have been unable for the past several years, because of problems in reconciling our data with that on STI and MUNIS, to identify our-of-field administrators/consultants, the board requested the Executive Director ask Commissioner Wilhoit to hold these persons (and their respective school districts) harmless during the 2004-05 school year so that staff might have the opportunity to work with these persons and districts to get them properly certified. The colleges and universities are on notice that they may be called on to be of assistance, and provisions are in place to help teachers add certificate endorsements and extensions.
3. An athletic director is properly certified if he/she holds administrative certification. Other options are to assign these duties as "extra-curricular" responsibilities, or to make the position "classified." However, if none of these options is possible, and the position remains one being paid with instructional funds during the instructional day, the board is faced with requiring that the position be tied to consultant certification in an instructional area, and the best instructional area staff could come up with is "physical education." The board also understands that "physical education" is not always the best "match," and that a better solution may be possible. The board asked the Executive Director to invite Mr. Mitch Crump, Chair, GRREC, Mr. Wayne Young, Executive Director, Kentucky Association of School Administrators, a representative of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association, and a representative of the Kentucky Association of Athletic Directors to attend the September 20, 2004 meeting to further discuss how to deal with athletic director certification.

Dr. Marilyn Troupe introduced the following individuals: Dr. Jacqueline Woodbury-Sand, Dean of Education, Dr. Lou Ann Hopper, Dean of Graduate Studies, and Ms. Carol Clouse, Coordinator of Assessment and Accreditation, Union College; Dr. Richard Downey, Chair, Teacher Education, Ms. Nicole Bryan, Program Executive, Teacher Education, and Dr. Rhonda Richard, Dean, Midway College; and Dr. Elaine Jarchow, Dean, College of Education, Northern Kentucky University.

Ms. Sherry Paul reviewed the Decision Log of board decisions. The log lists all board decisions made since September 1997 and, where possible, the web links to the official minutes. Board members asked that the actual decision of the board be referenced on the log as a quick reference, and this will be completed as soon as possible.

The following items were distributed and reviewed by board members:

- Emergency Non-Certified Personnel Program Fourth Quarter (April – June 2004) Report
- Letter to Mr. George Wilson, Superintendent, Monroe County Schools RE: First District to have a National Board for Professional Teaching Standards (NBPTS)-certified teacher in every school
- Notes from the July 2004 annual EPSB retreat
- Terms of current board members
- Updated listing of board member information
- News article of interest
- Kentucky Teacher

Report of the Chair

Ms. Coffey appointed the following board members to the Election of Officers Nominating Committee: Ms. Ellie Thompson, Chair, Ms. Livers, Dr. Wasicsko, and Ms. Gray. The committee will make a recommendation at the September board meeting for chair and vice-chair of the EPSB.

Ms. Coffey read a letter of resignation, effective December 31, 2004, from Dr. Leib, who will be retiring.

2004-050 Motion made by Dr. Wasicsko, seconded by Dr. Doris Barlow, to accept with regrets the resignation of the Executive Director, effective COB December 31, 2004.

Vote: Unanimous

Ms. Coffey distributed a timeline to be used in the search for a new Executive Director. Upon review, the following motions were made:

Motion made by Ms. Thompson to move up the timeline slightly in order to call a special meeting in early November to name the new Executive Director. This would allow the new appointee to work with Dr. Leib in preparing for the regularly scheduled November 22, 2004 meeting.

Motion failed for lack of a second.

2004-051 Motion made by Ms. Gray, seconded by Ms. Livers, to accept the timeline as presented, and giving authority to the chair for setting a date in October 2004 for the Search Committee to review applications for Executive Director's position.

Vote: Unanimous

Ms. Coffey recognized Mr. Tom Stull who reported to the board on his work in training teachers to assess a portion of the on-line assessment that NBPTS uses to certify teachers. Mr. Stull worked for two weeks in July training these teachers, and he felt it to be a very rigorous and rewarding experience.

Discussion Item

Model Code of Ethics for State Board and Commission Members

Board members reviewed a memorandum from Ms. Jill LeMaster, Executive Director of the Executive Branch Ethics Commission, requesting that the EPSB give consideration to adopting the Model Code of Ethics for State Board and Commission Members. Upon discussion, board members asked that the General Counsel modify the Code of Ethics to clearly articulate that the code would not prohibit the acceptance of payment for work performed as mentors for candidates pursuing NBPTS certification, cooperating teacher for student teachers, resource teacher for teacher interns or mentors for teachers/administrators.

This item will be brought back at the September 2004 meeting as an action item.

Agreed Orders

Case Number	Decision
03-0687 (David Meredith)	Accept Agreed Order revoking respondent's teaching certificate for 15 years from the date of acceptance by the Board. This agreement shall not prohibit respondent from working in the adult education field, so long as the position does not require certification. Further, respondent agrees to comply with any and all requirements of supervised release imposed by the United States District Court for the Western District of Kentucky. If respondent fails to do so, the Board may declare this agreement null and void, and reopen this disciplinary action and seek a more significant sanction.
	Vote: Unanimous
03-10128 (Viola Vanover)	Accept Agreed Order suspending respondent's teaching certificate for a period of 60 days from the date of acceptance by the Board. The reinstatement of respondent's certificate is specifically conditioned upon respondent providing written evidence that she has been evaluated by a licensed psychologist and/or psychiatrist approved by the Board and that she is fit to return to the classroom and is not a danger to herself and others. Cost of said evaluation shall be paid by respondent. Should respondent fail to satisfy this condition, her certificate will not be reinstated.
	Vote: Unanimous
03-169 (CF) (Edwin Scott Hollan)	Accept Agreed Order prohibiting respondent from applying for certification until November 1, 2004, or such earlier date as will allow the Board sufficient time to consider and rule upon respondent's application so that respondent can be issued a certificate effective January 1, 2005. The Board agrees that in considering respondent's application, it may not rely upon any facts or circumstances that are the subject of the Agreed Order as a basis to deny respondent's application.
