Tribal Employer Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Order Open Season materials; • Distribute materials to tribal employees, including temporary continuation of coverage (TCC) enrollees; and • Provide access to materials to ensure tribal employees make informed decisions. You must ensure Open Season materials reach your tribal employees. TIP: Order enough materials to use all year to support new tribal employees, health benefits fairs, and ongoing tribal employee needs.
FEHB Materials	The 2014 FEHB Guide for Tribal Employees - Provides summary information on the FEHB Program and lists the participating plans. Summary information includes plans available in each state, rates, benefits, and quality indicators. You can find electronic versions of the Guide at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/indian-tribes/reference-materials/ in early November. TIP: If you are unable to provide FEHB brochures for the geographical area in which a tribal employee resides, please provide them with plan telephone number(s) listed in the 2014 FEHB Guide for Tribal Employees. The tribal employee can then contact the plan directly for a brochure. <hr/> Tribal FastFacts - What to Consider During the FEHB Open Season for Tribal Employees - Provides a snapshot of basic information on the upcoming FEHB Open Season for tribal employees. You received this Tribal FastFacts in TBAL 13- 701. It will be included again in TBAL 13-703. We will also post it at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/fastfacts/fehb-tribal-employees.pdf. Please distribute this to your tribal employees. <hr/> Webcast - 2014 Open Season for Tribal Employees - You can view educational webcasts on FEHB in early November at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/indian-tribes/hr-personnel/#url=Training. <hr/> FEHB Plan Brochures - Describes the plan's benefits, exclusions, and limitations. Brochures follow standard format for easy comparison. You can access these at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/indian-tribes/plan-information/. If you need paper copies, see page 2 for ordering instructions. <hr/> Standard Form (SF) 2809 (Health Benefits Election Form) - The online edition of the SF 2809 dated August 2011 must be downloaded from www.opm.gov/forms/pdf_fill/sf2809.pdf and printed for completion by the tribal employee. TIP: Screen-fillable SF 2809 can be accessed at www.opm.gov/forms/pdf_fill/sf2809.pdf. <hr/> Summary of Benefits and Coverage - FEHB plans make available a Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC) about each of their health coverage options to help enrollees make an informed choice. The FEHB plan's SBC summarizes important information to help enrollees compare benefits and coverage across the plan's various options. Enrollees can find an FEHB plan's SBC at www.opm.gov/healthcare-insurance/indian-tribes/plan-information/ or by visiting the FEHB plan's website. Enrollees can request a paper copy by calling the plan.
