INSTRUCTIONS FOR IMMIGRANT, FIANCE, LIFE ACT VISA (IV) APPLICANTS

IV has received an approved petition for you. Please follow these instructions in a timely manner if you wish to apply for an immigrant, fiance or Life Act visa. Many forms can be downloaded and information obtained from www.asktheconsul.org or www.travel.state.gov. Please remember that a consular official may need further information or documents, in order to determine your eligibility, at any time.

BIOGRAPHIC INFORMATION. Please complete, sign and mail or fax to IV the enclosed Biographic Data (DS-230 part 1), now, one for each family member so that we can begin internal checks, which take at least 2 weeks.

PASSPORT. A signed passport should be valid for at least 8 months at the time of visa issuance. Korean citizens must contact the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade, www.mofat.go.kr, for Korean passport information.

POLICE CERTIFICATE. See www.travel.state.gov/visa/reciprocity/index.htm for police certificate and other documentary requirements for various countries. If deemed to be available, as a minimum you must obtain a police certificate from your country of nationality and your country of current residence if your presence there occurred after age 16 and was 6 months or more. Police certificates are required from other countries for all stays of 12 months or more after age 16. If you have ever been arrested in any jurisdiction please bring arrest, court or prison records.

The Korean National Police Certificate (Crime-Investigation History Report: 범죄(수사)경력 회보서) is available to all visa applicants of any nationality who are physically present in South Korea by applying directly at any KNP station for his/her whole criminal and investigation history. The KNP checks non-Koreans according to the requestor's Korean alien registration card or passport. Korean citizens must show a Korean identity card (Jumindeungnokjeung) or a Korean passport. KNPC processing is no fee and takes less than 24 hours. The new KNPC bears a red ink half inch square stamp on the bottom containing the Korean characters for National Police. It is issued in Korean only and applicants must attach a complete English translation, certified as true and correct by anyone competent in Korean and English. KNPC is unavailable to applicants outside of Korea. IV no longer processes requests for KNPCs.

Korean Family Register Certificates. Effective January 1, 2008, new forms of family register certificates are issued by the competent government offices, Ward offices, City halls, Myun offices, Eup offices, and Dong offices, throughout the country when the individual and his/her immediate family members (parents, children, or spouse) apply for the issuance of these certificates.

The new Family Relation Register (FRR) has been organized for each individual member of a family to protect personal information. According to the purpose of issuance, the certificates of family relation registers can be classified into five categories:

- (1) Identification certificate (기본 증명서: Gibon jeungmyongseo)
- (2) Family relation certificate (가족관계 증명서: Gajokkwankye jeungmyongseo)
- (3) Marriage relation certificate (혼인관계 증명서: Honinkwankye jeungmyongseo)
- (4) Adoption relation certificate (입양관계 증명서: Ipyangkwankye jeungmyongseo)
- (5) Special adoption relation certificate (친양자입양관계 증명서: Chinyangja ipyangkwankye jeungmyongseo)

Please note that the Family Relation Register certificate of family relation shows names of spouse, parents (including adoptive parents), children (including adopted children) based on current family relationship. The Identification certificate shows only the individual's date of birth, place of birth, changed names, and death. The Marriage Relation certificate provides the information on the individual's marital status only.

The former Family Census Register (FCR) is still available as an archived family relation register (제적등본: Jejeok Deung-Bon) which was organized under the name of the "Head of Family." The former FCR records personal information for the "Head of Family" and all family. This document contains information concerning birth, marriage, divorce, adoption, death, and other family history reported before January 1, 2008. It is still fundamental to family cases and any other IV case in which the principal applicant has derivative family members.

If the individual's birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, or death was reported after January 1, 2008, the certificate issued for that purpose should be accompanied with identification certificate (기본 증명서: Gibbon jeungmyongseo), Family relation certificate (가족관계 증명서: Gajokkwankye jeungmyongseo), and Marriage relation certificate (혼인관계 증명서: Honinkwankye jeungmyongseo) for applicants over 18.
