This shows that the town is becoming better and more favorably known abroad. Although the visits of these parties must necessarily be short they will have a great influence in spreading the advantages of the place abroad, for what is lacking in time is made up by the number of visitors.

THE LANSING EXCURSION PARTY Arrived about ten o'clock Thursday morning on the steamer Music, much to the surprise of the principal portion of our citizens, who had not even heard such a party had left Lansing, much less .10:30 A. The party consisted of about two hundred and eighty people from Lansing and vicinity, who left that place Tuesday afternoon bound for a cheap trip to Mackinaw, and the original trip only contemplated that much, Cheboygan being an after consideration. The party arrived in Mackinaw Wednesday about two o'clock, and proceeded at once | For Teachers' Salaries in addition to to a survey of the island. Through the kindness and liberality of Mr. H. D. Wallen, superintendent of the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad, the Music was taken off her regular trip to permit her to make a trip to Cheboygan with the excursionists.
