The Social Security Act (Sections 204, 1631(b), and 1870) and the Federal Coal Mine Health and Safety Act of 1969 allow us to collect the facts on this form. This form is voluntary. However, if you do not give us the facts we ask for, we may not be able to approve your waiver request. If we cannot collect the overpayment, we may ask the Justice Department to collect it.

Sometimes the law requires us to give out the facts on this form without your consent. We must give these facts to another person or government agency if Federal law requires that we do so or to do the research and audits needed to monitor and improve the programs we manage.

We may also give these facts to the Justice Department to investigate and prosecute violations of the Social Security Act or we may use the facts in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with those of other Federal, State, or local government agencies. All the Agencies may use matching programs to find or prove that a person qualifies for benefits paid for or managed by the Federal government. Another use is to identify and collect overpayments or to collect overdue loans under these benefits programs.

Explanations about these and other reasons why information you provide us may be used or given out are available in Social Security offices. If you want to learn more about this, contact any Social Security office.

The information you provide will be used to make a determination on waiving overpayment recovery or changing your repayment rate.

The information you furnish on this form is voluntary. However, failure to provide the requested information may prevent us from approving your request.

We rarely use the information you supply for any purpose other than for determining waiver or a change in the repayment rate of an overpayment recovery. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following:

1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage;

3. To facilitate statistical research, audit or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity of Social Security programs; and
4. To the Department of Justice when representing the Social Security Administration in litigation.

We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, state or local government agencies. Information from these matching programs can be used to establish or verify a person's eligibility for Federally funded or administered benefit programs and for repayment of payments or delinquent debts under these programs.
