

WE'LL take it back. Wages have gone up—over in McKinley's district. The Republicans are offering $10 a day for able workers to electioneer for their nominee.

JUDGE BENNETT and Judge Thomas, in their speeches at the convention last Saturday, complimented Tom Paynter very handsomely. All they have against him was his politics.

H. J. THOMAS, Democrat, and C. W. Sutterfield, Republican, candidates for Auditor of Adams County, have each put up $1,500 in the Citizens' National Bank at Manchester, making a pool of $3,000 to be given to the unsuccessful candidate in case either one uses boodle in the election.

THE recount at Covington shows that Thomas, Republican, is elected Mayor by 206 majority. A few years ago he was elected to the office of City Jailor down there by a majority of near 1,000, so it seems he didn't fare as well in his contest with the Democrats this time as he has in the past.

The Ripley Tribune is making a puny effort to help the Maysville Republican out in its efforts to regulate the Kentucky Central. The Tribune refers to the railroad as "a shooting match." A fellow who can imagine any resemblance between a railroad and a shooting match is evidently off in his upper story.

JAY GOULD is a great friend of the McKinley bill. He says if the increased duty on wool makes clothing cost more, a person will get along with one suit where he would otherwise have two. Our friend Jay, with his millions, can afford to view the matter complacently, but how do his ideas strike the poor fellow who has only one suit?

THE Evansville Journal thinks Pension Commissioner Raum should remain at his post of duty and not "brazenly seek to bluff the public" by making speeches and trying to defeat Congressman Cooper. The Journal, by the way, is a Republican paper, but it evidently doesn't believe General Raum is the best official in the public service by a long ways.

REPUBLICANS will do their level best at the approaching election to retain control of Congress. Their National Campaign Committee is taking steps to poll every vote possible. The word has gone out, and there is a general exodus from Washington City of department clerks and employees who are journeying to their homes throughout the land to be on hand November 4th and vote for the G. O. P. Democrats of Mason and of the Ninth district, you are expected to do your whole duty November 4th. Turn out and vote, and see that every vote possible is polled for Tom Paynter.

THE Elizabethtown News says: "One of the beauties of the new tariff law has a practical demonstration at the Elizabethtown Canning Company's house. The company bought its cans for the season packing last spring before there was an advance in tin. The McKinley bill put a higher tariff on tin plate and the price on a car-load of three-pound cans, such as tomatoes are put in, is now $490 more than the canning company paid for them six months ago. This additional price for the cans will be paid by the consumers of canned goods, as the canneries will put the increased cost of the cans on to the price of their goods."

Thus do we have fresh proof day after day that the tariff is a tax on the people of this country.

Weighed and Not Found Wanting. The Portsmouth Times, in speaking of the Alliance convention at Vanceburg, says: "The Ninth Congressional district of Kentucky has a candidate, Hon. T. H. Paynter, who has been weighed in the balance and not found wanting, and nine-tenths of the voters who attended the convention recognize his ability, and on November 4th will give him a rousing majority. "The Times is informed that the attempt to combine the Alliance with the Republican party has made many more votes for Hon. T. H. Paynter and his election is now assured by over 3,000 majority over any man whom the G. O. P. may bring out. Hundreds of honest Alliance men, who might have voted for a member of their order under ordinary circumstances, are Paynter men from now on until 6 o'clock p. m. on election day. "The convention was one of the most intelligent body of men ever gathered together for deliberation, and for quietness and orderly conduct could not be excelled."

MAYSVILLE COMMANDERY No. 10, K. T.—Called meeting this evening at 7 o'clock, sharp. Work. All are requested to be present. R. L. BROWNING, E. C. A. H. THOMPSON, Recorder.

BRILLIANT CLOAK OPENING

On the 22nd and 23rd instant, in all the best and most popular styles, far surpassing all others, being from the best manufacturers, who will send two of their best men to the opening. We extend to the ladies a cordial invitation to attend this elegant display.

Respectfully, D. HUNT & SON.

Shoe Factories.

Our lively contemporary, the Maysville BULLETIN, has been advocating, with zest and ability, the establishment of a shoe factory in that thriving and beautiful Blue Grass city. We would be pleased to see success crown our contemporary's efforts—they are in the right direction.

No better industry can be conceived than the making of shoes, and it is one that is bound to grow from this on in the West. The East for years has been the great wholesale market for shoes, as it has for every other manufactured article; but the trend of manufacture, as of emigration, is to the West, and the shoe industry, although among the last to move its centre, will be one of the most important, as well as one of the most stable.

The shoe business of Portsmouth is assured, and we can afford to look with complacency upon the starting of similar factories in our neighboring cities; our manufacturers have for their market the West and South, and throughout this vast territory they have a firmly established and rapidly growing trade, and a multiplication of factories in this section of the country would only increase the demand for the Western-made article.

By all means let the capital of Maysville be invested in such an enterprise; it will mean good returns to the investors and life for the city.—Portsmouth Times.

How Judge Thomas Manipulated the Alliance.

VANCEBURG, Ky., October 16, 1890.—[Special to the Louisville Post.]—Captain Alex. Bruce, a Republican of this county, was nominated for Congress by the Farmers' Alliance of this district this morning at 9 o'clock. There was a crowd of about fifty members of that organization of this county, it being too early for the members of the other counties of the district to get here.

The delegates entered the court house, headed by Judge Thomas, the Republican leader in this part of the State, and selected a Mr. Kidd, of Greenup County, as permanent Chairman, a Republican who was in favor of nominating a candidate.

The nomination was made with only thirty members of the Alliance in the court room, and it is seen that it is a put-up job by Republicans, as the delegates from the other counties had not put in an appearance.

The majority of the Alliance in this county are against nominating a man and say that they will hold a meeting this afternoon, as then every county in the district will be represented.

The other meeting in the afternoon (the real Alliance meeting) was held and they repudiated the action of the morning convention. There is no Alliance nominee, and the members are free to vote for whom they please.

The bold interference of the Republicans in the matter will not make them any friends in the ranks of the Alliance.

Democratic Principles.

- 1. Equal and exact justice to all men of whatever state or persuasion, religious or political.
2. Peace, commerce and honest friendship with all nations, entangling alliances with none.
3. The support of the State governments in all their rights as the most competent administration for our domestic concerns, and a strict bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies.
4. The preservation of the general government in all its rights as the most competent administration for our domestic concerns, and a strict bulwark against anti-Republican tendencies.
5. A jealous care of the right of election by the people, a mild and safe corrective of abuses which are lopped off by the sword of revolution, where peaceable remedies are unprovided.
6. Absolute acquiescence in the decisions of the majority, the vital principle of republics.
7. Economy in public expenses, that labor may be lightly burdened.
8. Subordination of the Military to the Civil.
9. Honest payment of our debts and sacred preservation of the public faith.
10. Encouragement of agriculture and of commerce, its hand-made.
11. Freedom of speech and of press, and freedom of person, under the protection of the habeas corpus.
12. Trial by juries impartially selected.

Forced to Reduce Wages.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 21.—The cappers at Polk's canning factory went out on a strike yesterday against a reduction of wages. Polk gave as a reason for the reduction that the McKinley bill had advanced the price of cans and he could not afford to pay the old wages.

Thus do we see how the McKinley bill is benefiting the workmen.

"After Dark."

The prices for "After Dark" will be as follows: Entire lower floor 75 cents, no extra for reserve seats; entire balcony, 50 cents; gallery, 25 cents. The quality of the attraction is the cause for the difference in prices. The show is one of the best of its kind on the road and plays only at these prices everywhere. Secure your seats at once.

"The Happy Days of Childhood."

Everybody loves children, but prudent parents deplore the expense of keeping them respectably shod. This difficulty is greatly lessened by buying MUNDELL'S SOLAR TIP SHOE FOR CHILDREN. Twelve years ago when these Shoes were first placed upon the market by John Mundell & Co., they were instantly accepted by the public, and each succeeding year has marked a steady advance in their widespread popularity and sale. To the many thousands of parents and guardians, all over the land, who know the

SOLAR TIP

We can say nothing further of the high standard of excellence you know the Shoes to possess. If this should meet the eye of any who have not investigated their merits, we simply say "try them once." If we can induce you to buy one pair the victory's won. Such confidence do we place in the wearing quality and general adaptability of these goods for children's wear, that after the first pair we unhesitatingly count on you as a regular customer so long as children's feet make music in your house.
