

PROFESSIONAL FITNESS QUESTIONS INFORMATION

The Commission will evaluate your fitness to be granted a credential based on:

- Your answers to the Professional Fitness Questions (PFQ's);
- Information we obtain from criminal history reports;
- A database of teacher misconduct;
- Previous reviews by the Commission;
- Reports from school districts;
- Reports of violation of teacher preparation tests; and
- Any complaints received.

BACKGROUND

Warning: Failure to disclose any required information is falsification of your application and the Commission may reject or deny your application or take disciplinary action against your credential.

When completing your On-line application you will be asked six professional fitness or background questions. You will be asked about arrests, convictions, changes in education employment status as a result of misconduct, and disciplinary actions taken against a teaching or other license.

The Commission will evaluate your fitness to be granted a credential based on your answers to these questions and our review of criminal history reports, a national database of teacher misconduct, previous reviews by the Commission, reports of educator misconduct from school districts and violations of teacher preparation tests.

Application Processing Timeline:

California Code of Regulations, Title 5, Section 80443, sets a maximum processing time of 50 working days for completed applications. However, applications delayed by a Commission appeal, Division of Professional Practices review, or fingerprint card processing are not subject to the 50-day restriction.

Application Status:

If your application status = "Pending Additional Evaluation." Your application has been forwarded to the Division of Professional Practices due to one or more of the following:

- Yes answer to a Professional Fitness Question;
- Information received from criminal history reports;
- Reports from school districts; and/or
- Your failure to report current or past misconduct.
