Suggested “School Recorded Call Message” Template:

Good evening. _____ School is calling to remind parents of current sixth and 11th grade students that there are immunization requirements that need to be met before the next school year begins. We would encourage you to have your child’s shot record reviewed by your doctor or the local health department to make sure that your child is ready for school next fall. If they are missing one or both shots, they can get them now to avoid the last minute rush. Again, these shot requirements are for students who will be in the 7th and 12th grade next year.
