HSSU Accuracy Check Form

Before any Harris-Stowe State University publications, whether to be released internally or externally, go to print, they must be reviewed by the Office of Communications and Marketing (Room 110) by either Director Courtney McCall or Public Relations Specialist Nisa Korte for accuracy of facts, grammar, spelling, design, etc. This is not intended to infringe on anyone’s creativity, jurisdiction, etc.; instead, it is a precaution taken by the University to ensure that Harris-Stowe is always represented as favorably as possible. Please complete this form to verify that the publication has been reviewed.
