Office of the Commissioner

October 1, 2000

The Honorable Frank O'Bannon
Governor, State of Indiana
State House, Room 206
Indianapolis, IN 46204

Dear Governor O'Bannon,

Accompanying this letter is the Department of Revenue's 2000 Charity Gaming Annual Report. I think you will find this report to be both informative and an accurate accounting of the past fiscal year's charity gaming activities statewide. Since acquiring administration of charity gaming in 1992, the Department has increased the number of registered organizations from 1000 to 3500 this year. The increase is due largely to the focus on education and notifying the public regarding pertinent gaming laws and issues.

The included financial information pertaining to not-for-profit organizations is available for public inspection according to IC 6-2.1-8-4.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Kenneth L. Miller". The signature is written in a cursive style.

Kenneth L. Miller
Commissioner, Indiana Department of Revenue

History of Indiana Charity Gaming

In June 1992, the Indiana Department of Revenue was given the responsibility of enforcing charity gaming laws in Indiana. Only qualified not-for-profit organizations can legally conduct charity gaming events in Indiana. These gaming events are limited to bingo, charity game nights, door prizes, festival events, raffles, and the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards. Organizations must be licensed and registered for each type of charity gaming event they want to conduct.

Which Organizations Qualify?

An organization may conduct legal charity gaming events if it is a bona fide educational, religious, senior citizen, veteran, or civic/ fraternal/ charitable organization operating in Indiana, and is exempt from taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC).

The not-for-profit organizations eligible to engage in Indiana charity gaming events are defined in Title 4, Article 32, of the Indiana Code. A brief description of these organizations is as follows:

Bona Fide Civic Organization

A branch, chapter, or lodge of a local, national, or state organization that is not-for-profit and primarily operated for charitable, civic, or fraternal purposes.

Bona Fide Educational Organization

An organization that is not-for-profit, whose primary purpose is educational in nature, and is designed to develop the capabilities of individuals by instruction in public or private elementary and secondary schools, as well as colleges and universities.

Bona Fide Political Organization

An association, committee, fund, party, or other organization that is established and operated for either directly or indirectly accepting contributions and making expenditures for an exempt purpose, as defined in Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code. These organizations are the Democratic Party, Republican Party, Independent Party, etc.

Note: A political candidate's committee is not a political organization by this definition.

For FY00, 2115 licenses were issued to qualifying organizations, only 5 less than in FY99.

Bona Fide Religious Organization

An organization, church, or body of communicants operating on a not-for-profit basis and primarily for religious purposes. The organization must operate under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code and provide written documentation as such.

Bona Fide Senior Citizens Organization

An organization that is not-for-profit and has at least 15 members who are at least 60 years old. The purpose of the organization is to advance and support the causes of the elderly and retired persons.

Bona Fide Veterans Organization

A local organization, or a branch, chapter, or lodge of a national or state organization that is not-for-profit, chartered by the United States Congress, and whose members are or were in the United States Armed Forces. The purpose of the organization is for the mutual advancement and support of the organization's membership and patriotic causes.

Contracting with an individual or group to operate a gaming event on a qualified organization's behalf is a Class D felony.
(IC 4-32-12)

All organizations meeting one of the proceeding requirements also must have been in active and continuous existence for at least 5 years, or be affiliated with a parent organization that has been in existence and operating for at least 5 years. Except where a qualified organization or its affiliate is having a convention or other annual meeting of its membership, charity gaming events may only be conducted in the county where the Indiana principal office is located.

Any hospital licensed under IC 16-21, a health facility licensed under IC 16-28, or a psychiatric facility licensed under IC 12-25, may conduct charity gaming events under certain circumstances.

Being exempt from taxation under Section 501 of the Internal Revenue Code does not ensure that an organization is eligible to conduct legal charity gaming events. The types of organizations that do not qualify include federal credit unions, pension trusts, and generally those established primarily for literary, scientific, and social purposes.

What Are Legal Charity Gaming Activities?

Qualified not-for-profit organizations may conduct certain types of legal charity gaming activities in Indiana. These activities include bingo, door prizes, raffles, as well as the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards. Charity game nights and festival events are also covered. Individuals participating in licensed events must be at least 18 years old.

Bingo

A bingo game is played with regulation bingo cards, pads, or sheets. A player covers the numbers that are called out by the announcer. The winner of each game is the player who is the first to properly cover the announced pattern of squares on the bingo surface.

Door Prizes

A door prize is awarded to a person based solely upon the person's attendance at an event, or the purchase of a ticket to attend an event.

Raffles

A raffle is the selling of chances or tickets to win a prize awarded through a random drawing.

Pull Tabs

A pull tab is either a single, folded, banded ticket, or a two-ply card with a perforated break-open tab that has a hidden symbol that determines the winner. The prize must be fully described on the inside of the ticket.

Punchboards

A punchboard is a board or card that contains a grid or sections that hide the random opportunity to win a prize based on the results of punching a single section to reveal either a prize amount or a symbol.

Tip Boards

A tip board is a game of chance board or placard with a hidden winning number or symbol in each column.

Charity Game Nights

Silent auctions, midway-style games and games of skill, such as cranes, darts, target shooting, etc., are not regulated by charity gaming laws or licensed by the Charity Gaming Section.

Slot and poker machines are forms of illegal gambling unless on a licensed riverboat casino. (Riverboat gambling is regulated by the Indiana Gaming Commission.)

Organizations operating illegal gaming devices may be taxed on the income from these activities, regardless of their not-for-profit status.

This permits the licensee to conduct a card game, a dice game, a roulette wheel and a spindle (wheel of fortune style) games, along with door prize drawings and the sale of pull-tabs, punchboards and tip boards. An organization is limited to holding four charity game nights per calendar year.

Festival Events

This permits the licensee to conduct bingo games, charity game night, one raffle, door prizes and the sale of pull-tabs, punchboards and tip boards at the festival. A festival can only be held once a calendar year and cannot exceed four consecutive days.

These receipts include:

1. The income from all gaming activities, including the sale of pull tabs, punchboards, and tip boards.
2. The sale of tangible personal property specifically sold at the gaming event. Some items commonly sold at these events include card doblers, good luck dolls, keychains, etc.

A manufacturer's annual license fee is $3,000. There were 12 manufacturer's licenses issued in fiscal year 2000; 11 of which were located out-of-state. The total fee collected was $36,000.

Seminars

Education

Education is one of the major missions within the Department of Revenue and the Charity Gaming Section spends a great number of man-hours to that end. During fiscal year 2000 four educational seminars were conducted around the State. Important topics such as not-for-profit tax regulations, how to qualify, charity gaming excise tax, and bookkeeping were discussed by the Section's staff. A member of the Department's legal team spoke on penalties and fines.

The four half-day seminars were well received and attended by the not-for-profit groups. They have proven to be a valuable tool in helping groups understand and comply to the Indiana codes and regulations. Four school corporations (Bloomington, Warsaw, Franklin, Lawrence) contacted the Department and individual sessions were provided.

In FY01 six full-day seminars have been projected and the accommodations have been arranged. Four of the six will be held at Indiana State Parks.

Administrative Highlights 2000

The Charity Gaming Section of the Indiana Department of Revenue was created to administer charity gaming laws. This section, along with field investigators from the Criminal Investigation Division, strive to see that licensed organizations are operating within charity gaming laws and regulations. Under IC 4-32-10-6, the Indiana Department of Revenue is required to remit charity gaming surplus revenue into the "Build Indiana Fund". This revenue is generated by license fees, as well as excise taxes and penalties. The Department deposited $4,000,000 into this fund during fiscal year 2000.

Taxpayer Assistance

During fiscal year 2000, the Charity Gaming Section assisted 319 taxpayers in the walk-in assistance center, and answered 15,686 phone calls, compared to 13,983 in fiscal year 1999.

Form Revision

There were no changes made to the charity gaming forms; however, the Department is planning to establish a single event form to be used in the next fiscal year. The new form will combine several other forms and should make license application process easier.

New! Newsletter

In a continuing effort to communicate and educate not-for-profit organizations on the State codes and regulations, the Charity Gaming Section originated a newsletter in FY00. It is a biannual (April and October) publication of information and issues of interest to the Indiana charity gaming community. The issues will have some regular features such as Calendar of Events, plus articles on tax court findings, investigations and basic rules. The organizations can call, write or e-mail questions or suggestions for future issues.

Legislation

There was no new legislation passed during fiscal year 2000 that affected charity gaming laws and regulations.

New Numbers Assigned

The old Not-for-Profit Tax Registration Number is being changed. Numbers beginning with a digit of seven or eight that appear on Form IT-35E, Not-for-Profit Tax Registration Certificate, will be valid only until not-for-profit organizations have been assigned new Taxpayer Identification Numbers (TID). Once the organization receives their new TID, if they lose or misplace their certificate, they can request a replacement in writing from the Department. Each TID number is unique to each organization; and, written requests are required to maintain confidentiality.

Each TID number is unique to each organization.

Enforcement

During Fiscal Year 2000, numerous investigations were finalized and submitted for determination of civil penalties based on violations committed. Assessments for civil penalties totaled $70,675 and additional licence fees of $6,625.

Income tax assessments totaling $452,475 including penalty and interest were assessed during this period. The assessments are considered unrelated income and are subject to gross income tax, adjusted gross income tax, and supplemental net income tax per 45 IAC 18-5-1.

Additionally, a defendant plead guilty to the crime of Attempting to Contract to Conduct an Allowable Event, a Class D Felony in April 2000 in Grant County Superior Court No. 2. The defendant was sentenced to one year in jail (suspended), was enjoined from participating in any gaming operation in the State of Indiana for three years, and must pay court costs.

Desk examinations are also performed on financial reports submitted by organizations to the Charity Gaming Section of the Compliance Division. Those audits resulted in an additional $40,325 in renewal fees from organizations who underreported gross receipts.

An operator must be a member in good

one year.

Tax Court Finds in Favor of Revenue

The Indiana Tax Court affirmed on December 1, 1999, that the Indiana Department of Revenue (IDOR) was correct in finding that a particular Indiana company owed Charity Gaming Excise Tax (CGET) for the 1992 and 1993 tax years and a $5,000 civil penalty.

The company manufactures and distributes gambling devices, which are shipped across the country. These devices were sold to both qualified and non-qualified organizations. When a sale is made to a qualified organization, a 10% CGET is due, while non-qualified organizations pay the standard 5% sales taxes. Some customers wished to pay in cash and further suggested to the company that no invoices be created for the sales of gambling devices to them. As a result these customers had only the sales tax charged to them.

After an audit, the IDOR issued a Letter of Finding in November 1995. The company then filed an appeal, claiming that it was not required to collect the CGET on its sales to cash-paying customers who said they were not qualified or who wished to remain anonymous.

Indiana Codes state that licensed entities such as the company mentioned are liable for payment of the tax at the time it “transports pull tabs, punchboards, or tip board to qualified organizations.” Also the codes require the company to maintain satisfactory records. Since the company failed to provide the information, the Department made the assumption that the sales were to qualified customers.

The court found that it was reasonable for the Department to assume that all unidentified customers were qualified and owed the 10% CGET and that the company was liable for the CGET on all sales to its unidentified customers. It found that the company had the ability to comply with recordkeeping requirements of the regulations, but chose not to do so. The case ended with the court’s affirming the Department’s final determination.

Statistics

Every organization that holds a charity gaming license is required to file a financial report for each license it has. The following statistics are based on financial reports which were received during the State of Indiana's 2000 fiscal year (July 1, 1999 through June 30, 2000). An organization cannot receive another gaming license until they have filed a financial report for their previous event.

Financial Information by County

The following information is a breakdown of individual organizations by county. The information was obtained from all Forms CG-8, Annual Bingo Financial Reports, and Forms CG-9, Single Event Financial Reports, received during fiscal year 2000. The number of licenses issued during the fiscal year may differ from the number of financial reports actually received during the fiscal year due to licenses being issued prior to the event.

Information pertaining to not-for-profit organizations is available for public inspection according to IC 6-2.1-8-4. This includes all applications for exemption and all annual reports filed by the not-for-profit organizations under IC 6-2.1-3-19, IC 6-2.1-3-20, IC 6-2.1-3-21, and IC 6-2.1-3-22, which also includes information on the above-mentioned forms.

Since an organization may hold more than one type of charity gaming license at a time, some names may appear more than once in the listings on pages 23 to 141.

Names also may be repeated within each license category. An unlimited number of door prize, raffle, and special bingo licenses may be issued to an organization during a year, as long as all required applications and fees have been received and approved by the Indiana Department of Revenue.

Annual bingo licenses are valid for one year from the date of issuance.
