IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING THIS CLAIM

1. The Plaintiff or the Defendant may represent themselves individually or be represented by an attorney. A Small Claims Litigant's Handbook is available at the offices of the Clerk or Court for each party's benefit. The Plaintiff and Defendant should bring to trial all documents in their possession or under their control concerning this claim.
2. A default judgment may be entered against the Defendant if he or she fails to appear for the eviction trial or damage trial, and if the Plaintiff fails to appear, the case will be dismissed (but the Plaintiff may re-file the claim once more).
3. If the Defendant does not wish to dispute the Plaintiff's claim, the Defendant still may wish to appear to allow the Court to establish the method for paying the judgment.
4. Any request for a continuance of the eviction trial or the damage trial by either party should be filed with the Court at least 5 days before the trial date. Forms to request a continuance are available at the Court's office. The party requesting a continuance must contact the other party regarding the request.
5. The Defendant must file any counterclaim with the Clerk in time to be mailed and received by the Plaintiff at least 7 calendar days before the trial. The Defendant does NOT waive a claim if the Defendant does not file it as a counterclaim. The Defendant, however, does waive the amount of the counterclaim over the jurisdictional limit by filing a counterclaim.
6. If a settlement of this claim is made out of Court, it should be in writing and signed by the Plaintiff and Defendant. Settlement forms are available at the Court's office. The settlement shall be filed with the Court and will be entered in the Small Claims Docket and shall have the same effect as a judgment of the Court.
7. The filing of a Small Claim waives the Plaintiff's right to trial by jury. The Defendant may, no later than 10 days following service of the Notice of Claim, make a demand for a trial by jury in writing, specifying that the demand is made in good faith, and supplying the affidavit required by Indiana Code 33-29-2-7. Once a jury trial request has been granted, it may not be withdrawn without consent of both parties. Both parties should then obtain attorneys. The Defendant must pay a $70 fee at the Clerk's office within 10 days after the jury request has been granted; otherwise, the Defendant gives up the right to a jury trial.
