

CANADIAN DENTAL ASSOCIATION
L'ASSOCIATION DENTAIRE CANADIENNE

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION
(for the completion of an accredited dental internship in Canada)

In 1994, the Canadian Dental Association approved the establishment of a national database or registry of graduates of:

- hospital dental internships or
- general practice residencies in dentistry

Dentists having completed an accredited dental internship or General Practice Residency program accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of Canada (CDAC) can apply for a framed Certificate of Recognition.

Currently, not all licensing bodies recognize the dental internship as continuing education. However, with the adoption of this program, it is hoped that the provincial licensing bodies will i) recognize the dental internship as continuing education credit and ii) register completion of a dental internship and receipt of the certificate in their databanks.

Importance of Registering with the Program

The Certificate of Recognition identifies you as a qualified candidate to employers in health facilities, other institutions, and government. The Certificate also identifies you to the public and consumer groups as a practitioner with specialized experience in institutional dentistry.

Application

There is a charge for processing an application to receive a certificate issued by the Canadian Dental Association for the completion of an accredited dental internship in Canada. The fee is $125.00 plus GST or HST (see application form for details). Fees are due upon receipt of the application and are payable by cheque, VISA or MASTERCARD.
