Welcome to the Legal Assistance Office. This worksheet will answer common questions concerning Wills, prepare you to discuss your needs and desires with an attorney, and provide a convenient form on which to record important information. This worksheet starts the Will preparation process. After you complete it you must return it to the Legal Assistance Office. You will receive a phone call telling you when you can come back to execute your Will. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS WHICH ARE NOT ANSWERED BY THIS WORKSHEET, PLEASE DISCUSS THEM WITH YOUR LEGAL ASSISTANCE OFFICER.

WHAT IS A WILL? A Will is a legal document which states your desires concerning what will happen to your property after your death. A Will also contains other specific directions from you concerning who is to implement your instructions and, perhaps, who will care for any minor children you may leave behind.

WHY SHOULD I MAKE A WILL? If you die without a valid Will, the distribution of your property will be government by the laws of your state of legal residence, and perhaps by the laws of the state in which you die. Your wishes usually won't be considered.

IS ALL OF MY PROPERTY CONTROLLED BY MY WILL WHEN I DIE? No. For example, proceeds of insurance policies are distributed as you have designated in the insurance policy, and property which you own jointly with another person will, normally, go to the other joint owner.

WHAT IS PROBATE? Probate is a court procedure by which a Will is proved to be valid or invalid. Probate proceedings also address the administration of your estate, taxes, the guardianship of children, etc.

WHAT IS A PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE? A Personal Representative is a person that you name in your Will to carry out your desires, as expressed in your Will, and to settle your estate. Settlement includes paying, from your estate, any taxes and debts you may owe. Many married people name their spouse as Personal Representative. Often a security fee, or bond, is required of this person; however, most states allow you to specify in your Will that you want the fee waived for your Personal Representative. Your Personal Representative will have an important role; choose him or her with care, and discuss the matter with him or her. Be sure that the person you name is one you trust and have confidence in.

HOW SHOULD I LEAVE MY PROPERTY? Generally speaking, you may state in your Will that you are leaving your property to anyone you wish, although there are laws in some states which may give your spouse and/or your children a right to a portion of your property. Most married persons leave all their property to their spouse, and, if their spouse does not outlive them, then to their children.

WHAT IF I WANT SOMEONE TO MANAGE MY CHILDREN'S MONEY AND PROPERTY FOR THEM? As part of your Will you may name someone to be a Financial Custodian to manage any money or property that you leave to any child under 18 years old. Most states have a simple method of appointing some adult to be the custodian for a child's property. If you are interested in this sort of an arrangement, you should discuss it with the person who you want to name as custodian and then discuss it with your attorney.

CAN I GIVE SPECIFIC THINGS TO SPECIFIC PEOPLE? Yes, these are called Specific Bequests and you may make them by fully describing what you want to give and the person who is to receive it. You should be careful about Specific Bequests. If you dispose of the property that you describe, or if there is any doubt about the exact property that you have described in your Will, you may be creating difficulties for your Personal Representative.

WHAT IS A SPECIFIC BEQUEST? A specific bequest is a gift by will of a specific article or part of testator's estate, which is identified and distinguished from all of the same kind and which may be satisfied only by delivery of particular items.

WHAT IS A GUARDIAN? A Legal Guardian is the person who will act as parent for any of your children who are minors at the time of your death. Normally, if you are survived by your spouse, he or she becomes the children's guardian if he or she is the biological or adoptive parent of the children. However, it is recommended that you name a guardian and an alternate guardian in the event that both you and your spouse die. If you or your spouse have children not born of your current marriage, you should discuss the situation in detail with an attorney to determine the most appropriate way to provide for the children.
