

STONE HOUSE Living and Learning Community

What is a Living and Learning Community?

A Living and Learning Community (LLC) is a residential cluster of students who share academic, spiritual, or social interests.

Benefits of Living and Learning Communities:

- Develop a network of friends
- Advance academic success
- Enjoy richer college life experience
- Develop the whole person—mind, body, and soul

Stone House Experiences:

- Encounter academic experiences infused with residential, spiritual, and social life. (Romans 12:2)
- Participate in interactive discussions, activities, and programs developed around four areas of personal development: intellectual, spiritual, social, and physical. (Luke 2:52)
- Journey through a specially designed discipleship-based mentoring program, guided by a mature student spiritual leader. (Matthew 28:19)

Stone House Activities:

- Bible study
- Prayer group
- Community service
- Local and global missions
- Discipleship study
- Camping
- Paintball
- Intramural sports
- Athletic event participation
- Student Life activities (All-Night Party, Winter Ball, Sadie Hawkins)

The purpose of Stone House is to disciple new male freshman students and challenge them to join the legacy of courageous men following Christ.

“You are coming to Christ, who is the living cornerstone of God’s temple. He was rejected by people, but he was chosen by God for great honor. And you are living stones that God is building into his spiritual temple.” - 1 Peter 2:4-5a (NLT)
