Appendix A

Document Checklist - Immigrant

This document is available in PDF format only. The checklist is one of the forms you will need to mail with your application. Make sure you print this document and attach it when completed to your application.

Assemble all your documents as listed. Check (☑) each applicable item on the list and attach the list to your documents (a paper clip will do). Nationals of Pakistan must send originals of all documents. Nationals of other countries must send originals of the immigration forms (items 1 to 11 below) and the police certificates, and send photocopies of all other documents, unless instructed otherwise. If your documents are not in English or French, send a notarized (certified) translation with a copy of the originals.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: Misrepresentation will result in your application being refused

If you or someone acting on your behalf directly or indirectly submits false documentation or misrepresents facts relating to your application for a permanent resident visa:

- your application will be refused;
- the circumstances of your refusal will be entered into Canada's global immigration database; and
- you and your dependent(s) could become inadmissible to Canada for two years under section 40 (2) of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act.

Married	Marriage certificate
Common-law	Documentary evidence of this relationship
Divorced	Divorce certificate
Separated	Certificate of legal separation for you and your spouse or common-law partner
Widowed (both men and women)	Death certificate

Nationals of Pakistan:

The following documents are required for you, the principle applicant, and for each of your dependent family members, if applicable to your situation:

- Original birth certificates for yourself and your family members including your spouse or common-law partner. A birth certificate is acceptable if the registration of the birth was made shortly after the birth.
- Certified copies of your national identity card (CNIC).
- Original marriage certificate for you and your spouse (Nikkah Nama).
- Original death certificate(s) if your sponsor's or your former spouse(s), common-law or conjugal partner(s) is/are deceased.
- Original divorce certificate for you or your spouse's previous marriages. If a divorce has been obtained in Pakistan by a sponsor residing in Canada, you must submit evidence that either party of the divorce resided in Pakistan for at least one year prior to the divorce. Alternatively, you may submit evidence that either party to the divorce had a substantial connection to Pakistan such as frequent visits, property ownership, and/or active businesses in Pakistan.
- Official documentation confirming your relationship to your sponsor and both of your relationships to the other family members on your application. This may include family lists and household registries.
- Original educational documents for you and your family members such as transcripts indicating a list of courses taken, scores achieved as well as certificates obtained.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

- Affidavits to establish marriage, divorce, death and custody are not acceptable.
- Identity and civil status documents submitted must bear the name of the applicant, and be endorsed by the government authority responsible for issuance in the district in which the event took place.
- If you were married in Pakistan either by proxy or in person, you should submit a marriage certificate (Nikkah Nama in Urdu) bearing the Nikkah registry seal as evidence that your marriage is properly registered by your union council or the relevant government authority in your region.
- If you or your sponsor's previous divorces were obtained in Pakistan, divorce certificates submitted should be issued by your union council or the relevant government authority. Failure to submit marriage or divorce certificates in accordance to the Muslim Family Law Ordinance of 1961 may lead to the delay and possible refusal of your application.
- Non-Muslims should provide marriage and divorce certificates from the relevant authority responsible for registration.

For nationals of Korea:

- Family Relation Certificate and one certified true translation into French or English of your Family Relation Certificate. This document should have been recently issued.
- Marriage Relation Certificate and one certified true translation into French or English
- Old (deleted) Family Census Register and one certified true translation into French or English

For nationals of Taiwan:

- Provide a certified true copy of your household register.

13

CHILDREN'S INFORMATION

If your children are adopted, you must include adoption papers and, if the adoption was done according to customary law and not through the courts, evidence of the adoption ceremony such as photographs.

If you are divorced or separated, you must include proof of unconditional custody of your minor children in your name by the relevant local court. This proof should indicate that your minor children can move to Canada on a permanent basis.

If your children are aged 22 or older and you intend to have them accompany you to Canada, you must submit:

- proof of full financial support by a parent since reaching 22 years of age,
- proof of continuous full-time studies such as letters from their educational institution, school certificates, diplomas, degrees, transcripts, marks cards, or
- medical history if they are unable to provide for themselves due to a medical condition.

For nationals of Pakistan:

Educational documents submitted must be originals. Certificates and transcripts must be issued by a post-secondary institution that is accredited by the relevant government authority.

If you are a guardian for minor children, you must include proof of unconditional guardianship or custody by the relevant local court as proof that the child(ren) can move to Canada on a permanent basis. If applicable to your situation, please provide photographs of the guardianship ceremony and related celebrations

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS AND PASSPORTS

Passports or travel documents for you, your spouse or common-law partner and dependent children. Include only copies of pages showing:

- passport number,
- date of issue and expiration,
- given name, surnames (family name) and
- date and place of birth.

If you live in a country different from your nationality, include a copy of your visa for the country in which you currently live.

You must hold a valid regular passport. Diplomatic, official or public affairs passports are not valid for an application for permanent residence in Canada.

For nationals of Pakistan:

Provide certified copies of the photo and information page of your valid passport and of any old expired passports for you and your family members.

15 PROOF OF RELATIONSHIP TO SPONSOR

If you are being sponsored by your parent, you must provide proof of the relationship such as:

- birth certificates,
- baptismal certificates, or
- other official document naming your parents.

If you are being sponsored by your spouse, common-law partner or conjugal partner, you must send evidence of the relationship between you and your sponsor such as:

- wedding photos or proof that you are partners,
- card/letters with envelopes addressed from you or your sponsor that indicate the dates correspondence was sent,
- original telephone bills that clearly indicate phone numbers dialled and date of calls received,
- copies of emails,
- proof of your sponsor's visits such as airline ticket coupons, boarding passes, copies of pages of your sponsor's passport showing entry/exit stamps,
- documentary evidence if your sponsor is now supporting you financially.

If you are a common-law or conjugal partner, provide evidence that your relationship is genuine and continuing and has existed for at least 12 months prior to your application.

Documentary evidence may include:

- joint bank accounts,
- joint lease or mortgage or home ownership deed,
- proof of financial dependency on one another,
- notarized affidavits attesting to the fact and providing reasons for why you and your sponsor are/ were living together without being married or unable to live together altogether,
- details of the history of your relationship,
- at least two statutory declarations from individuals with personal knowledge of your relationship supporting your claim that the relationship is genuine and continuing.

Photos must be loose; do not send them in binders, albums, frames or other such containers. Do not send video discs or video cassettes. Do not send musical greeting cards or other similar documents containing electronic or mechanical devices. Telephone calling cards are not acceptable proof and should not be submitted. For such calling cards, you must provide a record issued by the telephone company of calls made with the cards.

Note: The sponsor and the applicant who are common law or conjugal partners must provide historical evidence of their ongoing relationship. If they are in a relationship of two years or less and have no children together, the applicant will receive conditional permanent resident status, if the application is approved.

For nationals of Pakistan:

- Approximately 15 to 20 printed photographs of you and your sponsor with relatives and friends. Photos submitted should be comprised by the wedding ceremony (signing of the contract or Nikkah) and customary celebrations held afterwards (the wedding reception or the Rukhsati in Urdu). Photos should also include pictures taken of you and your sponsor together on other occasions, for example, either before and/or after the wedding.

Note: Ensure that all photographs are clearly labelled in English or French with the names of the persons appearing in the pictures, the date the photo was taken, and the occasion or event displayed in the photo.

16	POLICE CERTIFICATES AND CLEARANCES Original police certificates or clearances from each country in which you and every one in your family aged 18 years or over have resided six months or more since reaching 18 years of age in the last 10 years. Consult our website for specific and up-to-date information on how to obtain police certificates from any country.	<input type="checkbox"/>
17	PROOF OF MEDICAL EXAMINATION Include for yourself and each of your family members Copy 1 of the Medical Report - Client Biodata and Summary (IMM 1017), signed and provided by the panel physician on your medical exam appointment.	<input type="checkbox"/>
18	PHOTOS Supply nine (9) recent photos taken in the last six months for you and each family member. Follow the instructions in your guide (see Photos in section on completing the Application for Permanent Residence in Canada) and in Appendix B: Photo Specifications .	<input type="checkbox"/>

Place all of your documents in an envelope and send them to your sponsor.
