In the event the Chickasaw Nation Division of Education receives a dangerous weather notice, facility employees will route children to the protected areas. The children will remain in those areas until the Chickasaw Nation Division of Education receives notice from the Lighthorse Police Department that it is safe to leave the protected areas. It would be potentially hazardous to your children, other children and facility employees to allow children to leave the protected areas during the course of dangerous weather. Therefore, it is the policy of the Chickasaw Nation Division of Education that children will not be released to parents or guardians during periods of dangerous weather, if those children are already in protected areas.

I UNDERSTAND THAT THE CHICKASAW NATION DIVISION OF EDUCATION WILL NOT RELEASE CHILDREN FROM PROTECTED AREAS DURING PERIODS OF DANGEROUS WEATHER, AND I FURTHER WAIVE THE RIGHT TO SUE FOR ANY SUCH CONDUCT.
