Very Important Details

Apply for Financial Aid—You need to have a completed 2012-2013 Fuller Financial Aid Application on file. Apply online by going to <http://www.fuller.edu/Admissions/Financial-Aids/2012-2013-Financial-Aid-Forms.aspx>

U.S. citizens and permanent residents must submit a FAFSA. Please use your 2011 completed tax forms.

Vita—A vita is required for all applications.

- Include your name and Student ID (G#) on each page of the vita.
- Save your vita as a Microsoft Word document or PDF file.
 - Important! Do not combine your vita with your essays.
- Use your own name and the word “vita” as the file name for the file containing the vita like this: “yourname_vita.doc” or “yourname_vita.pdf”.
 - For example: if your name was Phil McGraw, the name of your file would be “philmcgraw_vita.doc”.

Essay Responses—Write a separate essay for each award that requires an essay. Using the same essay for each award is not acceptable. Be sure your essay addresses the specific criteria for that award.

- Include your name and Student ID (G#) on each essay page.
- On each essay page write the corresponding scholarship name.
- Combine all of your essays into one Microsoft Word document or PDF file.
 - See an example file at:
http://www.fuller.edu/uploadedFiles/Admissions/Financial_Aid_Options/ClarissaFreud_essays.pdf
- Use your own name and the word “essay” as the file name for the file containing all of your essays like this: “yourname_essay.doc” or “yourname_essay.pdf”.
 - For example: if your name was Clarissa Freud, the name of your file would be “clarissafreud_essay.doc”.

Letters of Recommendation or Support— If you are applying for:

- Give a completed Scholarship Recommendation Form (see page 3 of this packet) and the descriptions of each scholarship that you are applying for to each person you are asking for a recommendation or letter of support. Be sure to include your name, student ID, sign the waiver, and list the awards you are applying for on each form.
- Scholarships that require a faculty recommendation: Ask for ONE recommendation from a faculty member. You do not need a separate recommendation for each scholarship.
- Scholarships that require letters of support: Ask for ONE letter of support from a pastor or other professional as stated in the award criteria. You do not need a separate recommendation for each scholarship.
- All letters should be sent in sealed envelopes directly to the Student Financial Services Office.
- It is your responsibility to verify with your recommender that recommendations have been submitted by the deadline. Due to volume, the Student Financial Services is unable confirm the receipt of any recommendation or letter of support.

Very Important Details Continued

Submitting Your Application—You will submit your application and any required essays and vita ONLINE to the Student Financial Services Office.
