

Good afternoon, GCU faculty!

The new Code of Conduct Classroom Incident Report (CIR) web form is now available! This form replaces the existing Classroom Incident Report faculty members submit via email to report academic dishonesty or student conduct issues to the Office of Academic Compliance.

To view a tutorial on using the new web form, click here:

<http://screencast.com/t/GpHbHK7JRpIF>

The web form can be accessed directly at the link below. The link is also available in the Faculty Resource Center at Grading Resources > Assessing Student Performance.

<http://codeofconduct.gcu.edu/>

Effective today, faculty members should use the web form to submit academic dishonesty or student conduct issues to the Office of Academic Compliance.

The criteria for submitting CIRs remains the same, with specific information about handling academic dishonesty and conduct issues located in the University Policy Handbook, the Online Faculty Checklist, and the Online Faculty Policy Manual.

Code Of Conduct

HOME

Code Of Conduct

* Denotes required information

Date of Report:

Instructor Information

*Instructor Name:

*Instructor Email:

*Instructor Phone Number:

Student Information

*Student Name:

*Student Email:

The Below Two Fields Will Be Auto-Completed Based On The Email Address You Enter Above

Student Number:

Student Phone Number:

*Select College:

- Business
- Education
- Arts And Sciences
- Nursing

Thank you!

Academic Operations
On behalf of
Office of Academic Compliance