Program of Study Requirements

Courses must be taken in the sequence given on the current Program of Study, available in the University Academic Catalog and at the following link: <http://my.gcu.edu>. The courses in the program are subject to change as deemed appropriate by Grand Canyon University. First-year students with less than 24 credits will have the option of defining their own progression through the Grand Canyon University Grand Experience courses.

In order to fulfill Grand Canyon University's residency requirements, a minimum number of credit hours must be completed at Grand Canyon University. See the University Academic Catalog for details. Other courses transferred in must be the equivalent in content as well as in credit hours to those in the Program of Study, and received a letter grade of C or better on official transcripts.

*Education Students: These programs are approved in the state of Arizona; students are responsible for contacting their state department of education for certification requirements and program approval.

Technology Requirements

Courses will require access to computers, the Internet and e-mail. Some courses may also require additional software. It is important that students check the computer requirements for each course in which they enroll. Some courses may have different or additional requirements. Please refer to the Academic Catalog for specific technology requirements.

Student Agreement

I understand that I must remain in good academic standing in accordance with the University Academic Catalog to fulfill my degree completion through Grand Canyon University. I recognize the program of study follows a course sequence, and I agree to grant permission for continuous enrollment, unless I request formally to withdraw from the program or request a formal leave of absence. Please refer to the Academic Catalog for instruction on the Withdrawal and Leave of Absence processes.

I also acknowledge having received a Grand Canyon University Academic Catalog and Student Handbook, available to me at the Web site: <http://my.gcu.edu>. In addition, I understand I can receive the most up-to-date information at the above site regarding degree program admission, and completion requirements, program objectives, schedule of tuition and fees, and all University policies, including cancellation and refund policies.

To acknowledge your understanding of the above information presented on your Enrollment Agreement, please sign and date below.

Grand Canyon University Application For Admission

Finance Agreement

Tuition rates are outlined in the University Academic Catalog, which is available at the following link: <http://my.gcu.edu>. The University reserves the right to adjust tuition and fees at the beginning of any academic term.

I understand that Grand Canyon University will allow additional expenses, such as textbooks and fees, to be charged to my student account for convenience. I further understand that my Financial Aid may be automatically applied to these expenses.

All students will need to purchase textbooks for courses, and these expenses are in addition to the tuition charges listed above. A graduation fee of $100 is charged to all students prior to graduation.

I am in agreement with the charges as indicated here and elsewhere in University publications and understand that my tuition, applicable fees, and other charges assessed in accordance with Grand Canyon University's published financial policies are my responsibility and due upon enrollment.

I accept responsibility for any balance unpaid by Financial Aid, Direct Bill agreement, or resulting from a returned check or credit card. A $35.00 fee will be charged for all returned checks. I understand that I am liable for all charges incurred after the date of this agreement. Failure to pay debt as agreed may result in withdrawal from Grand Canyon University. If it becomes necessary to enforce payment of this account, attorney's fees, court costs, and collection agency fees may be added to the amount owed. Grand Canyon University retains a security interest in all transcripts, diplomas, certificates, letters of recommendation, and grade reports which may not be released until debts are paid in full. I understand that the University may report to any credit bureau on credit granted and/or any account delinquencies.

I understand that failure to pay for my classes or nonattendance in my classes does not constitute an official withdrawal from my classes or the University.

I, the undersigned student, and guarantor (if any), warrant that I am of lawful age and suffer under no legal disability as of the date of signing this contract. (Less than age 18 requires a guarantor's signature).

Refund Policy

GCU is a semester based school. The tuition refund schedule is based on the semester start date, not the course or class start date. Refunds are determined by the date the student files a completed Drop Form or Complete Withdrawal Form as outlined in the University Academic Catalog. A Complete Withdrawal Fee of $25.00 or a Drop Fee of $15.00 will be charged according to the refund policy outlined in the University Academic Catalog. See the current Academic Calendar for the tuition refund schedule. Financial Aid recipients at Grand Canyon University who completely withdraw from classes may be responsible for a portion of unearned Title IV Aid. Please see the Financial Aid section of the University Academic Catalog for details.

Holder in Due Course Statement

Any holder of this consumer credit agreement is subject to all claims and defenses, which the debtor could assert against the seller of goods or services, obtained pursuant hereto or with the proceeds hereof. Recovery hereunder by the debtor shall not exceed amounts paid to the debtor (FTC Rule effective 5/14/76).

Federal Trade Commission (FTC) Cancellation Notice

The applicant may cancel and receive a full refund of all monies paid to date if cancellation is made in writing to the Registrar and mailed/delivered to the University at the address stated herein within three (3) business days after the date of the signature.

General Information

Grand Canyon University does not guarantee job placement to graduates upon program/course completion or upon graduation.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Release

Under the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, you have the right to allow or to deny Grand Canyon University to disclose your student records. Student records may include, but are not limited to, directory, non-directory, and/or any financial information, (e.g., outstanding account balances, account credits, scholarships, and financial aid). Please indicate your instructions by checking the appropriate box below and/or by listing those individuals and/or organizations to which you wish the University to release information. This release does not permit the disclosure of these records to any other persons or entities without my written consent. It will be placed in my record and remain in effect until I notify Grand Canyon University, in writing, of a change.

Important Note: If your employer/organization is paying for expenses on your behalf, it is imperative that you list the employer/organization as an entity to which GCU may release your educational/financial information.

Policies and Procedures Agreement

I agree to comply with University rules and regulations during my course/program of study. I further understand that the University has the right to cancel this Agreement and expel me in the event of my failure to comply with the rules and regulations as stated in the current Academic Catalog and Student Handbook, which I acknowledge are available to me on the university website. I may also be terminated for failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress, or nonpayment of tuition or other costs. To be eligible to graduate and receive a diploma, I must complete all courses within the maximum time frame as stated in the Academic Catalog, meet all graduation requirements as stated in the Academic Catalog, and be current in all financial obligations to the University or have made arrangements to pay those obligations as agreed to by the University.

Research Release

Your participation in research generated for and about the courses at Grand Canyon University may include submitting class materials generated for classes, filling out attitudinal surveys, and being interviewed by one of the researchers at Grand Canyon University. Your participation will begin upon your entrance into the program and will conclude upon your graduation. Your participation in any study conducted during your time as a student is completely voluntary. If you choose not to participate or withdraw from the study at any time, it will not affect your grade or placement within the program. The results of the research study may be published but no personally identifying information will be used.

By submitting this application, I give my consent to participate in the research studies conducted for and about the courses at Grand Canyon University. I understand that this will allow the university to use the materials I generate for their use in research. I also understand that this is voluntary and I may withdraw my consent at any time.
