Instructions

Read all instructions carefully before completing this form.

Anti-Discrimination Notice. It is illegal to discriminate against any individual (other than an alien not authorized to work in the United States) in hiring, discharging, or recruiting or referring for a fee because of that individual's national origin or citizenship status. It is illegal to discriminate against work-authorized individuals. Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee. The refusal to hire an individual because the documents presented have a future expiration date may also constitute illegal discrimination. For more information, call the Office of Special Counsel for Immigration Related Unfair Employment Practices at 1--800--255--8155.

What Is the Purpose of This Form?

The purpose of this form is to document that each new employee (both citizen and noncitizen) hired after November 6, 1986, is authorized to work in the United States.

When Should Form I--9 Be Used?

All employees (citizens and noncitizens) hired after November 6, 1986, and working in the United States must complete Form I--9.

Filling Out Form I--9

Section 1, Employee

This part of the form must be completed no later than the time of hire, which is the actual beginning of employment. Providing the Social Security Number is voluntary, except for employees hired by employers participating in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). The employer is responsible for ensuring that Section 1 is timely and properly completed.

Noncitizen nationals of the United States are persons born in American Samoa, certain former citizens of the former Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, and certain children of noncitizen nationals born abroad.

Employers should note the work authorization expiration date (if any) shown in Section 1. For employees who indicate an employment authorization expiration date in Section 1, employers are required to reverify employment authorization for employment on or before the date shown. Note that some employees may leave the expiration date blank if they are aliens whose work authorization does not expire (e.g., asylees, refugees, certain citizens of the Federated States of Micronesia or the Republic of the Marshall Islands). For such employees, reverification does not apply unless they choose to present in Section 2 evidence of employment authorization that contains an expiration date (e.g., Employment Authorization Document (Form I--766)).

Preparer/Translator Certification

The Preparer/Translator Certification must be completed if Section 1 is prepared by a person other than the employee. A preparer/translator may be used only when the employee is unable to complete Section 1 on his or her own. However, the employee must still sign Section 1 personally.

Section 2, Employer

For the purpose of completing this form, the term "employer" means all employers including those recruiters and referrers for a fee who are agricultural associations, agricultural employers, or farm labor contractors. Employers must complete Section 2 by examining evidence of identity and employment authorization within three business days of the date employment begins. However, if an employer hires an individual for less than three business days, Section 2 must be completed at the time employment begins. Employers cannot specify which document(s) listed on the last page of Form I--9 employees present to establish identity and employment authorization. Employees may present any List A document OR a combination of a List B and a List C document.

If an employee is unable to present a required document (or documents), the employee must present an acceptable receipt in lieu of a document listed on the last page of this form. Receipts showing that a person has applied for an initial grant of employment authorization, or for renewal of employment authorization, are not acceptable. Employees must present receipts within three business days of the date employment begins and must present valid replacement documents within 90 days or other specified time.

Employers must record in Section 2:

1. Document title;;
2. Issuing authority;;
3. Document number;;
4. Expiration date, if any;; and
5. The date employment begins.

Employers must sign and date the certification in Section 2. Employees must present original documents. Employers may, but are not required to, photocopy the document(s) presented. If photocopies are made, they must be made for all new hires. Photocopies may only be used for the verification process and must be retained with Form I--9. Employers are still responsible for completing and retaining Form I--9.

For more detailed information, you may refer to the USCIS Handbook for Employers (Form I-9-274). You may obtain the handbook using the contact information found under the header "USCIS Forms and Information."

Section 3, Updating and Reverification

Employers must complete Section 3 when updating and/or re-verifying Form I-

-9. Employers must reverify employment authorization of their employees on or before the work authorization expiration date recorded in Section 1 (if any). Employers CANNOT specify which document(s) they will accept from an employee.

A. If an employee's name has changed at the time this form is being updated/reverified, complete Block A.

B. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee is still authorized to be employed on the same basis as previously indicated on this form (updating), complete Block B and the signature block.

C. If an employee is rehired within three years of the date this form was originally completed and the employee's work authorization has expired or if a current employee's work authorization is about to expire (reverification), complete Block B;; and:

1. Examine any document that reflects the employee is authorized to work in the United States (see List A or C);;
2. Record the document title, document number, and expiration date (if any) in Block C;; and
3. Complete the signature block.

Note that for reverification purposes, employers have the option of completing a new Form I-9 instead of completing Section 3.

What Is the Filing Fee?

There is no associated filing fee for completing Form I-9. This form is not filed with USCIS or any government agency. Form I-9 must be retained by the employer and made available for inspection by U.S. Government officials as specified in the Privacy Act Notice below.

USCIS Forms and Information

To order USCIS forms, you can download them from our website at www.uscis.gov/forms or call our toll-free number at 1-800-870-3676. You can obtain information about Form I-9 from our website at www.uscis.gov or by calling 1-888-464-4218.

Information about E-

-Verify, a free and voluntary program that allows participating employers to electronically verify the employment eligibility of their newly hired employees, can be obtained from our website at www.uscis.gov/e-verify or by calling 1-888-464-4218.

General information on immigration laws, regulations, and procedures can be obtained by telephoning our National Customer Service Center at 1-800-375-5283 or visiting our Internet website at www.uscis.gov.

Photocopying and Retaining Form I-9

A blank Form I-

-9 may be reproduced, provided both sides are copied. The Instructions must be available to all employees completing this form. Employers must retain completed Form I-9s for three years after the date of hire or one year after the date employment ends, whichever is later.

Form I-

-9 may be signed and retained electronically, as authorized in Department of Homeland Security regulations at 8 CFR 274a.2.

Privacy Act Notice

The authority for collecting this information is the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, Pub. L. 99-603 (8 USC 1324a).

This information is for employers to verify the eligibility of individuals for employment to preclude the unlawful hiring, or recruiting or referring for a fee, of aliens who are not authorized to work in the United States.

This information will be used by employers as a record of their basis for determining eligibility of an employee to work in the United States. The form will be kept by the employer and made available for inspection by authorized officials of the Department of Homeland Security, Department of Labor, and Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices.

Submission of the information required in this form is voluntary. However, an individual may not begin employment unless this form is completed, since employers are subject to civil or criminal penalties if they do not comply with the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.

Paperwork Reduction Act

An agency may not conduct or sponsor an information collection and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated at 12 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions and completing and submitting the form. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Regulatory Management Division, 111 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., 3rd Floor, Suite 3008, Washington, DC 20529-2210. DEPARTMENT GUIDELINES FOR SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM REGISTRATION VERIFICATION

Effective 9/1/99, all persons hired by a Texas state agency who are required by Federal law to be registered with the Selective Service system must present proof of registration or proof of exemption.

Who must register?

Almost all male U.S. citizens and male aliens living in the U.S. who are ages 18 through 25 are required to register with Selective Service System. Those individuals employed by the University and Institute who are in the United States on a visa (F, J, or H-1B) are not required to register with the Selective Service.

Who is not required to register?

1. Men born between March 29, 1957 and December 31, 1959 are exempt from this requirement.
2. Females
3. Lawfully-admitted non-resident aliens.
4. Members of the armed forces on active duty.

How to register?

The fastest way to register is through the computer on-line. Registration forms are available at any U.S. Post Office. A registration application card may also be filled out and sent in to the Selective Service System. When registering on-line, proof of registration will be sent within two weeks. When mailing in a registration card, it can take about 30 to 90 days to receive an acknowledgment card. Please see the Selective Service System web site for more detailed information at www.sss.gov. To register on-line, the web address is www.sss.gov/regver/register1.asp.

Instructions for showing proof of Selective Service System registration:

1. When offering a position to a new male employee, the hiring department must inform the employee that he will be required to provide proof of registration or exemption from Selective Service registration before he begins work.
2. A Selective Service System Registration Verification form can be found in the new hire packet and hourly/student application packet. This form should be completed by the hiring department for students and hourly employees. The office of Human Resources will verify regular staff.
3. A copy of the proof or registration must be attached to the verification form. This proof may be (a) a copy of the employee's Selective Service registration card or (b) a copy of the on-line verification, which may be obtained at www.sss.gov.

Copies of the "Selective Service System Verification Form" and a copy of the proof of registration must be included with the hiring packet and returned to the Department of Human Resources if the hiring packet is completed by the department.

Until proof of registration with the Selective Service System is obtained, State agencies can not hire the individual. Also, the individual cannot begin work prior to securing verification of Selective Service registration.

With few exceptions, you have the right to request, receive, review, and correct information about yourself using this form

Form W-4 (2012)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2012 expires February 18, 2013. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $950 and includes more than $300 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2012. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-4, at www.irs.gov/w4. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

None of the moneys appropriated by Article I, II, III, and IV of this Act, regardless of their source or character shall be used for influencing the outcome of an election or the passage or defeat of any legislative measure. This prohibition shall not be construed to prevent any official or employee of the State from furnishing to any Member of the Legislature or to any other State official or employee or to any citizen any information in the hands of the employee or the official not considered under law to be confidential information. Any action taken against an employee or official for compliance with this section shall subject the person initiating the action to immediate dismissal from State employment.

None of the funds appropriated in this Act shall be expended in payment of the full or partial salary of any State employee who is also the paid lobbyist of any individual, firm, association or cooperation.

No employee of any State agency shall use any State-owned automobile except on official business of the State and such employees are expressly prohibited from using such automobile in connection with any political campaign or any personal or recreational activity.

None of the moneys appropriated by this Act shall be paid to any official or employee who violates any of the provision in this Section.

The head or heads of each agency of the State shall furnish each employee of such agency with a copy of the four (4) paragraphs immediately following this one and shall take a receipt therefore from each employee. The preceding sentence shall not be construed to mean that new employees who have previously received for copies of identical provisions prohibiting political aid and legislative influence. The receipts shall be kept accessible for public inspection.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

Declaration of Policy

Section 1. It is the policy of the State of Texas that no state officer or state employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise direct or indirect, or engage in any business transaction or professional activity or incur any obligation of any nature which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his duties in the public interest. To implement this policy and to strengthen the faith and confidence of the people of Texas in their state government, there are provided standards of conduct and disclosure requirements to be observed by persons owing a responsibility to the people of Texas and the government of the State of Texas in the performance of their official duties. It is the intent of the legislature that this Act shall serve not only as a guide for official conduct of these covered persons but also as a basis for discipline of those who refuse to abide by its terms.

DEFINITIONS

Sec. 2. In this Act

(7) "State Employee" means a person, other than a state officer, who is employed by

- (a) A State agency
- (b) The Supreme Court of Texas, the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, a Court of Civil Appeals, or the Texas Civil Judicial Council, or
- (c) Either house of the Legislature, or any agency, council, or committee of the legislature including the Legislative Budget Board, the Texas Legislative Council, the State Auditor's Office, and the Legislative Reference Library.

(8) "State Agency" means

- (a) Any department, commission, board, office, or any other agency that
 - (1) Is in the executive branch of the state government
 - (2) Has authority that is not limited to a geographical portion of the state; and
 - (3) Was created by the constitution or a statute of this state, or
- (b) A university system or an institution of higher education as defined in Section 61.003, Texas Education Code, as amended, other than a public junior college.

Standards of Conduct

See 8(a) No state officer or state employee should accept or solicit any service that might reasonably tend to influence him in the discharge of this official duties or that he knows or should know is being offered him in the intent to influence his official conduct.

(b) No state officer or state employee should accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity that he might reasonably expect would require or influence him to disclose confidential information acquired by reason of his official position.

(c) No state officer or state employee should accept other employment or compensation which could reasonably be expected to impair his independence or judgment in the performance of his official duties.

(d) No state officer or state employee should make personal investments which could reasonably be expected to create a substantial conflict between his private interest and the public interest.

(e) No state officer or state employee should intentionally or knowingly solicit, accept, or agree to accept benefit for having exercised his official powers or performed his official duties in favor of another.

66th Legislature of Texas – Regular Session STATE PROPERTY – ACCOUNTING INVENTORY H. B. 1673

ARTICLE PROPERTY ACCOUNTING

Section 8.01. Property Accounting System

(a) All real and personal property belonging to the state shall be accounted for by the head of the agency which has possession of the property.

(b) The commission shall administer the property accounting system. The state auditor shall administer the property responsibility system. The commission shall issue rules and regulations and a manual of instruction and prescribe such records, reports, and forms necessary to accomplish the objects of this article subject to the approval of the state auditor. The state auditor is directed to cooperate with the commission in the exercise of the commission's rulemaking powers herein granted by giving technical assistance and advice.

(c) The commission shall maintain a complete and accurate set of centralized records of state property. Where the commission finds that an agency has demonstrated its ability and competence to maintain complete and accurate detailed records of the property it possesses without the detailed supervision by the commission, it may direct that the detailed records be kept at the principal office of such agency. Where the commission issues such order, it shall keep only summary records of the property of such agency and the agency shall keep such detailed records as the commission directs and furnishes the commission with such reports at such times as directed by the commission.

(d) Each agency head shall cause each item of state property possessed by his agency to be marked so as to identify it. The agency head shall follow the instructions issued by the commission in marking state property.

Section 8.02 Responsibility for Property Accounting

(a) All state agencies shall comply with the provisions of this article and keep the property records required.

(b) All real property owned by the state shall be accounted for by the agency which possesses the property. The real property administered by the General Land Office shall be accounted for by that office and not by the system prescribed herein and the real property administered by the permanent funds established by its administration and not by the system prescribed herein.

(c) All personal property owned by the state shall be accounted for by the agency that possesses the property. The commission shall by regulation define what is meant by personal property for the purpose of this article, but such definition shall not include nonconsumable personal property having a value of $250 or less per unit. In promulgating such regulations, the commission shall take into account the value of the property, its expected useful life, and the cost of record keeping bears a responsible relationship to the cost of the property on which records are kept. The commission shall consult with the state auditor in making such regulations and the auditor shall cooperate with the commission in the exercise of this rulemaking power by giving technical assistance and advice.

(d) All medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies provided by the Texas Department of Health to local public health units, local public health laboratories, state institutions and nonprofit institutions, contributing to the promotion and maintenance of public health by the usage of such medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies shall be accounted for by that department and not by the system prescribed in this article. The Texas Department of Health shall maintain at all times a complete record of such medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies provided and such records shall be verified by government making such grants for assistance in the purchase of such medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies.

Section 8.03 Property Manager, Property Inventory

(a) Each agency head is responsible for the proper custody, care, maintenance, and safekeeping of the state property possessed by his agency.

(b) Each agency head shall designate either himself or one of his employees as property manager. The commission shall be informed in writing by the agency head of the name of the property manager and shall be informed of any changes. Where the commission finds that convenience and efficiency will be served, it may permit more than one property manager to be appointed by the agency head.

(c) The property manager shall maintain the required records on all property possessed by the agency and shall be the custodian of all such property.

(d) No person shall entrust state property to any state official or employee or to anyone else to be used for other than state purposes.

(e) When an agency's property is entrusted to some person other than the property manager, the property manager shall require a written receipt for such property executed by the person receiving custody of the property. When the possession of property of one agency is entrusted to another agency on loan, such transfer shall be done only when authorized in writing by the agency head that is lending such property and the written receipt shall be executed by the agency head who is borrowing such property. The property manager is relieved of the responsibility for property which is the subject of such a receipt.

(f) Each agency shall make a complete physical inventory of all property in its possession once a year. The inventory shall be taken on the date prescribed for the agency by the commission.

(g) The agency head shall forward a signed statement describing the method by which the inventory was verified, along with a copy of such inventory within 45 days after the inventory date for the agency.

(h) The commission shall supervise the property records of each agency so that the records accurately reflect the property currently possessed by the agency. The commission shall prescribe the methods whereby items of property are deleted from the property records of the agency. Property that has become obsolete and no longer serviceable and has been turned over to the commission for disposal under the laws relating thereto shall be deleted from the records of that agency upon the authorization of the commission. Property that is missing from the agency or property that is disposed of directly by the agency in a legal manner shall be deleted from the commission's records upon the authorization of the state auditor.

Section 8.04 Change of Property Managers

When there is a change in agency heads or property managers, the incoming agency head or property manager shall execute a receipt for all agency property accounted for to the outgoing agency head or property manager. A copy of such receipt shall be delivered to the commission, the state auditor, and the outgoing agency head or property manager. No further warrants in favor of the outgoing agency head or property manager shall be drawn or paid until the state auditor has certified that the agency property has been properly accounted for. The state auditor may make this certification without requiring that a physical inventory be taken.

Section 8.05 Liability for Property Loss

Where agency property disappears, whether through theft or other cause, as a result of the failure to the agency head, property manager, or agency employee entrusted with the property in writing to exercise reasonable care for its safekeeping, such person shall be peculiarly liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state, where agency property deteriorates as a result of the failure of the agency head, property manager, or agency employee entrusted with property in writing to exercise reasonable care to maintain and service the property, such person shall be peculiarly liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state, where agency property is damaged or destroyed as result of an intentional wrongful act or a negligent act of any state official or employee, such person shall be peculiarly liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state. The liability prescribed by this section may be found to attach to more than one person in a particular instance, in such cases, the liability shall be joint and several.

Section 8.06 Reporting to State Auditor

When any state property has been lost, destroyed, or damaged through the negligence or fault of any state official or employee, the agency head responsible for such property shall immediately report such loss, destruction, or damage to the state auditor. Upon leaving in any manner of such property loss, destruction, or damage, the state auditor shall investigate the matter. If the investigation discovers that an injury has been sustained by the state through the fault of a state official or employee, the state auditor shall make written demand upon such state official or employee for reimbursement to the state for the loss so sustained.

Section 8.07 Legal Action to Recover Monetary Loss or Property

In case the demand made by the state auditor for reimbursement for property loss, destruction or damage by the state official or employee upon whom such demand is made, the state auditor shall report the facts to the attorney general. If after an investigation of the facts, the attorney general finds that legal liability may be judged against the state official or employee, he shall take such legal action to recover the monetary loss of the state property occasioned by the loss, damage, or destruction as in his opinion may be deemed necessary. Venue for all such suits instituted against a state official or employee shall lie in the courts of appropriate jurisdiction of Travis County.

Section 8.08 Failure to Keep Records

When any agency fails to keep the records required under the provisions of this article or fails to take the annual physical inventory, the commission shall so inform the comptroller and the comptroller may refuse to draw any warrants on behalf of such agencies.

Section 8.09 Transfer of Personal Property

(a) Any state agency is authorized to transfer any personal property of the state under its control or jurisdiction to any other state agency with or without reimbursement between the agencies; provided, however, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any real property.

(b) When any personal property under the control or jurisdiction of one state is transferred to the control or jurisdiction of any other state agency, such transfers shall be immediately and simultaneously reported to the commission by the transferor and the transferee on forms prescribed by the commission, and it shall adjust the inventory records of the agencies involved in making the transfers. Whenever any transfer is made with reimbursement from funds deposited in the state treasury, the transferee shall issue a voucher payable to the transferor, and the comptroller of public accounts shall issue warrants for reimbursement.

Section 8.10 Distribution of This Article

Each agency head shall distribute a copy of this article to each official and employee of his agency and shall give a copy to each new employee of the agency.

Notice to Employees Concerning Workers' Compensation in Texas

Coverage

Lamar University/Lamar Institute of Technology has workers' compensation insurance coverage from the State Office of Risk Management to protect you in the event of work related injury or illness. An employee or person acting on the employee's behalf must notify the employer of an injury or illness not later than the 30th day after the date on which the injury occurs or the date the employee knew or should have known of an illness, unless the Division determines that good cause existed for failure to provide timely notice. Your employer is required to provide you with coverage information, in writing, when you are hired or whenever the employer becomes, or ceases to be, covered by workers' compensation insurance.

Employee Assistance

The Division provides free information about how to file a workers' compensation claim. Division staff will explain your rights and responsibilities under the Workers' Compensation Act and assist in resolving disputes about a claim. You can obtain this assistance by contacting your local Division field office or by calling 1-800-252-7031.

Safety Hotline

The Division has established a 24-hour toll-free telephone number for reporting unsafe conditions in the workplace that may violate occupational health and safety laws. Employers are prohibited by law from suspending, terminating, or discriminating against any employee because he or she in good faith reports an alleged occupational health or safety violation. Contact Health and Safety at 1-800-452-9595.

Notice to New Employees

You may elect to retain your common law right of action if, not later than five days after you begin employment or within five days after receiving written notice from the employer that the employer has obtained coverage, you notify your employer in writing that you wish to retain your common law right to recover damages for personal injury. If you elect to retain your common law right of action, you cannot obtain workers' compensation income or medical benefits if you are injured.

EMPLOYMENT ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES:

PLEASE NOTE! If you are currently employed on-campus as indicated above, you are required to submit a letter from that department indicating the number of weekly hours that you are employed. If you are no longer employed with Chartwells or the Bookstore, you are required to submit a letter from that department indicating your termination date.

LIMITATIONS ON EMPLOYMENT: Employment must not exceed 20 hours per week while school is in session. If the student is employed elsewhere on campus or is employed off-campus with proper authorization, that work must also be counted toward the 20-hour limit. Graduate assistants, teaching or research assistants must be enrolled for the specified dates on the F3.2. Student assistants must be enrolled for the fall or spring semester according to the dates on the F3.2. EXCEPTION FOR STUDENT ASSISTANTS: If they are not enrolled for the summer sessions, they must be pre-registered for the Fall semester.

MAINTENANCE OF LAWFUL STATUS - UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP & IMMIGRATION SERVICE (DEPARTMENT OF HOMELAND SECURITY): In order to preserve on-campus employment eligibility, F-1 or J-1 students must maintain their lawful status as follows:

1. Report to the P/DSO for initial registration in the SEVIS System upon arriving at the school;
2. For the 1st initial school visa/attendance, the student must enroll for a minimum of one semester (12 hours for Undergraduates & 9 hours for Graduate students);
3. Pursue a full course of study during each long semesters while summer semesters are optional;
4. Make normal progress towards completing the course of study within the dates listed on the SEVIS I20;
5. SEVIS I20 must be kept valid by following proper procedures for extension of stay or change of level/program of study, if needed;
6. Keep SEVIS I-20 valid by following proper procedures for transfer of schools;
7. Abide by the F-1 grace period rules, including remaining in the US for no longer than 60 days after completing a full course of study, unless the student followed procedures for applying for practical training, moving educational levels, or school transfers;
8. Report a change of address to the P/DSO within 10 days of the address change;
9. Abide by rules requiring disclosure of information and prohibition on criminal activity;
10. Abide by any special requirements, such as Special Registration requirements;
11. Do not work on or off-campus, unless specifically authorized under the regulations at [8CFR 214.2(f)(9) or 214.2 (f)(10)].

12. As of 01/03/2003, the regulations specify that Upon initial entry to begin a new course of study, an F-1 student may not begin on-campus employment more than 30 days prior to the actual start of classes.
13. An F-1 student may not engage in on-campus employment during the 60-day grace period following the completion of a course of study or thereafter, except during authorized optional practical training.
14. The federal regulations state that in the case of a transfer in SEVIS, the student may only engage in on-campus employment at the school having jurisdiction over the student's SEVIS record. The transfer-out school has jurisdiction over the SEVIS record BEFORE the transfer release date, and the transfer-in school has jurisdiction over the SEVIS record ON AND AFTER the transfer release date.
15. If an F-1 student is currently pursuing curricular practical training, he/she is not eligible for any additional on-campus employment.
16. An undergraduate international student must maintain a 2.0 GPA for employment eligibility.

LAMAR UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF GRADUATE STUDIES EMPLOYMENT POLICY:

1. All students must maintain a grade point average of 3.0 for graduate students (Master/Doctor/PhD) and a 2.0 for undergraduate students (Associate/Bachelors).
2. All students must be in lawful status with the Department of Homeland Security.
3. Students that have a pending reinstatement petition with the USCIS-DHS are not eligible for any employment until they have been reinstated to F-1 student status. The student must submit proof of their reinstatement approval to the International Office.
4. All graduate students must be enrolled for a minimum of 9 semester credit hours during each Fall and Spring semesters. Summer enrollment is optional - 3 semester credit hours for each session.
5. All undergraduate students must be enrolled for a minimum of 12 semester credit hours during each Fall and Spring semesters. Summer enrollment is optional - 4 semester credit hours for each session.
6. Graduate Assistants, Teaching Assistants, and Research Assistants must be enrolled according to the dates on the F3.2.

I agree to release any information about my immigration status in the U.S. to a University contract employer (i.e. Chartwells, Bookstore) if needed. This permission does not apply to off-campus employers. I understand it is my responsibility to maintain lawful immigration status. I further understand that my employment can be terminated if I violate any federal regulations or University policy.
