

ROOMMATE AGREEMENT

Student's Name: _____

Date of Birth: _____ Date Completed: _____

When roommates share the same space, issues come up. This tool will help you think about some of those issues and describe your expectations prior to your arrival on campus. We ask that you complete this and mail it back to us so we can assign roommates who share the same expectations.

The hours I keep – when I like to study:

____ I'm an early morning person.

____ I'm a night owl.

My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate...

Listening to music – watching t.v. (if my roommate or I choose to bring a t.v.)

My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate...

Borrowing your stuff – loaning you my stuff:

My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate...

My need for privacy – having visitors in the room and when I expect visitors to leave:

My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate...

Food and the refrigerator (If my roommate or I choose to bring a refrigerator):
My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate...

Sharing the phone – taking messages:
My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate:

Cleaning up our messes – cleaning my part of the room:
My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate:

Using alcohol/drugs (prohibited on campus) and smoking (prohibited in dorms):
My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate:

Dealing with issues/conflicts between us:
My roommate can expect of me...

I expect from my roommate:

Other issues or requests:

Please note: Although this roommate agreement is intended to assist us in assigning a roommate with expectations similar to yours, our on-campus population is quite diverse and we cannot guarantee that all students will be placed with roommates whose expectations are an exact fit.

To be completed with your roommate and your Resident Assistant after your arrival on campus

Based on your talk and the issues that were most important, list the “rules and guidelines” you can all live by.

We agree to the following:

Signatures:

1. _____ Date _____

2. _____ Date _____

Refer to this agreement as issues come up. Negotiate when revisions are needed. If you need help from your RA in resolving issues, be sure to ask for it.
