

Exercise and Nutrition Science Graduate Assistantship Application

Application must be received by Lipscomb's EXNS graduate program on or before March 1, 2013

- Duration – Up to one academic year (includes Fall, Spring and Summer) dependent on performance evaluation completed after each semester
- Required Hours – 20 hours per week for full GA position
- Compensation – GA positions will be 100% tuition paid (up to 18 hours per year)

Please attach your resume to the GA application

Applicant Information:

Name: _____
Last First Middle Maiden Name

Address: _____ City/St: _____ Zip: _____

Home Phone: _____ Cell Phone: _____ Email Address: _____

Undergraduate GPA _____ Major _____ Minor _____

When do you intend to begin coursework in the Exercise and Nutrition Science graduate program? _____

Each Graduate Assistantship Applicant is required to answer the following questions:

Why are you pursuing a graduate assistantship at Lipscomb University? _____

Explain how the EXNS graduate program will help you achieve your career goals? _____

List any related exercise testing and lab experience _____

List any related research experience _____

List any related teaching experience _____

List all current memberships in professional organizations _____

Describe the most significant written report or presentation you have completed and explain why it had an impact on your life? _____

List any special certifications (ex: CPR, ACSM, NSCA) _____

List your top 3 interests and/or experiences that will aid in graduate assistantship placement _____

Give a statement of how your faith is incorporated in your daily life _____

Applicant Signature: _____ Date: _____

Applicants selected for an interview for the EXNS GA positions will be notified via email by March 15, 2013.

Mail the GA application and your resume to:

Lipscomb University
ATTN: Exercise and Nutrition Science Graduate Program
One University Park Drive
Nashville, TN 37204