I certify that my personal financial information on my current I-20 is accurate and the source has not changed.

~OR~

I certify that the funding information on my current I-20 has changed, and I have attached the necessary financial documents to reflect funding for one academic year (or one semester, if graduating in current semester).

If at the time of this request, your funding is out of date or has significantly changed, it is recommended that you submit proof of funding for yourself so OIS can update your I-20. An example would be if your funding source has changed (e.g. from personal funding to assistantship) or if the funding amount has significantly changed (e.g. your assistantship stipend has increased). You should attach (electronically or paper) either an updated bank statement (for personal/family funds which covers one year) and/or an updated assistantship contract for two academic semesters to this form.

The information given above by me is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge.
