ACT GOVERNMENTBirths, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997Registrar-General's Office*APPLICATION TO REGISTER A CHANGE OF NAME FOR AN ADULT*PRIVACY COLLECTION STATEMENT (PRIVACY ACT 1988 (C'WLTH))*PRIVACY NOTES

The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 1997 authorises the Registrar-General to collect the information required by this form in processing your application. The Registrar-General prevents any unreasonable intrusion into a person's privacy in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (C'wlth). However, the Registrar-General provides identifiable information to law enforcement organisations and authorised organisations that have the legal authority to request information under prescribed circumstances.

GENERAL INFORMATION

This form can only be used to register a change of name for an adult whose birth is registered in the ACT, or who is currently a resident of the ACT and has been for more than 3 months. If you were born overseas you must be an Australian citizen or permanent Australian resident. It is not necessary to register a change of name where you are assuming your partners name through a marriage that occurred within Australia.

The Registrar-General will not register a change of name unless satisfied of the identity and age of the person whose name is to be changed and that the change is not sought for a fraudulent or other improper purpose. The Registrar-General will not accept an application to register a change of name if you have registered a change of name within the last 12 months. The Registrar-General will not register a change of name, if as a result, the name would become a prohibited name.

REFERRAL TO THE AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE (AFP) AND OTHER AGENCIES AND CONSENT TO RELEASE INFORMATION

This form and any evidence produced in support of this application may be directed to the AFP to assist the Registrar-General in assessing your application. This form may also be directed to agencies including (but not limited to) other Birth, Death and Marriage Registries, the Passports Office, Department of Immigration and Citizenship, and Motor Vehicle Registries to assist the Registrar-General in assessing your application. Usually these referrals are simply to verify the evidence that you have provided in making your application. If there are discrepancies, we may require you to correct any errors with the issuing agency prior to being able to register the change of name application. It is extremely important that all identity documents are accurate and reflect the correct identity information.

In all cases it is necessary for you to consent for the Registrar-General to require the AFP or other agency to release information available to them that may assist the Registrar-General in making his/her decision. As a result, as you complete this form it is assumed that you are consenting to the release of information by these agencies in support of your application.

REASONS WHY YOUR APPLICATION MAY BE REJECTED

The Registrar-General may refuse to register your change of name application if you:

- have previously offended;
- have a significant association with an offender;
- are currently involved in an investigation;
- have outstanding debts;
- have failed to advise of previous changes of name in the ACT or any other jurisdiction;
- have failed to prove ACT residency for 3 or more months; or,
- are unable to produce the required proof of identity documentation.

If however you are able to demonstrate that the information obtained by the Registrar-General has been superseded, then the change of name application can be reviewed.

REGISTRATION AND NOTIFICATION OF A CHANGE OF NAME

If your application to register a change of name is approved, an entry will be created in the change of name register. If you were born in the ACT, the new name will also be noted on your birth registration and will appear on all birth certificates issued after registration of the change of name unless otherwise requested.
