RELEASE STATEMENT

For and in consideration of participation by my son in the NKU Boys' Soccer Summer Camp,

I agree to hold Northern Kentucky University and its employees harmless and to waive the right to bring legal action against Northern Kentucky University and its employees for any injuries sustained during the course of this sports camp.

Participants are encouraged to carry their own accident and/or medical insurance. Coaches and instructors of the Northern Kentucky University sports camps are safety conscious and follow appropriate safety procedures. In the event of injury or illness, every effort will be made to contact the parents or guardians.

I authorize Northern Kentucky University to administer first aid and/or authorize medical treatment if this becomes necessary. The participant has had a medical examination within the last 12 months, and by my signature I certify that my child has no pre-existing condition that would prevent his/her full participation in the sports camp.

This agreement and waiver, having been read thoroughly and understood completely, is signed voluntarily on the registration form as to its contents and intent.

STAFF

JOHN BASALYGA comes into his sixth season as the men's soccer head coach at Northern Kentucky University with a 65-28-10 career coaching record. Last year, Basalyga made GLVC history, coaching the Norse to an unprecedented 13-0 conference record, as well as the school's second consecutive Great Lakes Region title. The Norse rattled off 20-straight wins en route to a 22-2 final record, both school records. The dominating performance earned Basalyga his second-consecutive GLVC and Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year awards.

In 2006, Basalyga led the Norse to their first ever appearance in the NCAA tournament, and won the Great Lakes Region championship as the No. 2 seed. The squad matched a school record with 16 wins, and posted a NKU-best .795 winning percentage on the year.

In 2005, Basalyga's NKU squad pulled off a first-round upset of thirdseeded Wisconsin-Parkside in the opening round of the Great Lakes Valley Conference. It marked the first time since 1997 that NKU had won a game in the GLVC Tournament. The Norse, who entered the GLVC Tournament as the No. 6 seed, finished with an 11-8-2 record.

Basalyga led NKU to one of the nation's top turnarounds in 2004, as the Norse posted a 12-6-2 overall record. NKU was 6-3-1 in the GLVC. Basalyga's team also featured 2004 GLVC Player of the Year Nate Madden.

During his first season at the helm, Basalyga guided a youthful NKU squad to a 4-9-3 overall record, including a 2-5-3 mark in the GLVC. In his coaching debut at NKU in 2003, Basalyga led his team to a 4-2 win over NCAA Division II power University of Findlay.

Prior to accepting the NKU job, Basalyga compiled a 325-93-58 record as boys' soccer coach at Turpin High School in Cincinnati over the course of 24 years. He led Turpin to Ohio state championships in 1986, 2000 and 2001, and his teams produced 22 consecutive winning seasons.

He also led the Spartans to 15 sectional championships and was named the Ohio High School State Coach of the Year in 2001.

REGISTRATION

Complete one registration form per participant for each camp and mail to: Northern Kentucky University, NKU Sports Camps, Athletics Department, Nunn Drive, Highland Heights, KY 41099. A check or money order in the proper amount must be included with each registration. In addition, each participant's parents or quardians must sign and return the release form before a registration can be considered to be complete. Because these popular sports camps are filled on a "first-come, first-served" basis, early registration is encouraged.

NOTE: Additional registration forms may be obtained by phoning the Department of Athletics at (859) 572-5193, by e-mailing a request to eatons@ nku.edu or by visiting our website at www.nku.edu/~athletics/.

PAYMENT OF FEES AND REFUNDS

Payment of fees may be made by personal check or money order made payable to NKU Sports Camps. The required deposit and enrollment fees are listed on the attached registration form. Complete payment of fees for each camp must be made by July 1, 2009. Upon receipt of a deposit, a confirmation letter will be forwarded. Refunds of enrollment fees will be made prior to the first day of camp, minus a $25 nonrefundable deposit. Once a camp begins, refunds will only be issued for those medical reasons supported by a physician's statement and only until September 1.
