Students who apply a second time to this impacted major will face the enrollment restrictions on high unit seniors if their second application is unsuccessful.

If this request to change major is denied, it may be appealed to the Office of Undergraduate Studies. This appeal must be made within one semester by filing a Petition to Appeal a PD 2009-05 Decision (The Petition form is available online at the Advising Hub).

When this form is completed submit it to one of the Administrative staff at the School of Social Work, who will forward the documents to the BASW Faculty Committee.
