Instructions

Purpose of form. Use Form 8689 to figure the amount of U.S. tax allocable to the U.S. Virgin Islands (USVI).

Who must file. If you were a U.S. citizen or resident alien (other than a bona fide resident of the USVI) and had income from sources in the USVI or income effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the USVI, you may owe tax to the USVI. Your USVI tax liability is a percentage of your U.S. tax liability.

Do not use this form if you were a bona fide resident of the USVI during the entire tax year, or were considered a bona fide resident of the USVI for the entire tax year under the special rules for the year of a move (see chapter 1 of Pub. 570, Tax Guide for Individuals With Income From U.S. Possessions).

Joint returns. If you file jointly and only one spouse is a bona fide resident of the USVI for the entire tax year, the resident status for both spouses and subsequent tax treatment is determined by the spouse with the higher adjusted gross income (AGI) (disregarding community property laws). File Form 8689 only if the spouse with the higher AGI is not a bona fide resident of the USVI for the entire tax year.

Where to file. You must file identical tax returns with the United States and the USVI. If you are not enclosing a check or money order, file your original Form 1040 (including Form 8689) with the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service Center, Austin, TX 73301-0215 USA.

If you are including a check or money order, file your original return with the Internal Revenue Service, P.O. Box 1303, Charlotte, NC 28201-1303 USA.

File a signed copy of your Form 1040 (with all attachments, forms, and schedules, including Form 8689) with the Virgin Islands Bureau of Internal Revenue, 6115 Estate Smith Bay, St. Thomas, VI 00802. They will accept a signed copy of your U.S. return and process it as an original return.

Additional information. Pub. 570 has more information and an example of how to complete Form 8689. To get Pub. 570, see Quick and Easy Access to Tax Help and Tax Products in the Instructions for Form 1040.

Part I—Income From the U.S. Virgin Islands

Source of income. The rules for determining the source of income are explained in sections 861 through 865 and 937, Regulations section 1.937-2, and chapter 2 of Pub. 570. Some general rules are:

- The source of wages, salaries, or tips is generally where the services are performed. If you worked both in and outside the USVI, include on line 1 only wages, salaries, or tips earned while you were in the USVI. However, certain income earned while temporarily performing services in the USVI will not be considered USVI source income. For details, see De minimis exception on this page.

Military spouses. If you are the civilian spouse of a member of the U.S. Armed Forces, work in the USVI, and retain a residence or domicile in one of the 50 states or the District of Columbia under the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act (MSRRA), your wages, salaries, tips, and self-employment income will not be considered income from the USVI. Under MSRRA, the military spouse must be in the USVI solely to be with his/her servicemember spouse who is serving in compliance with military orders. MSRRA applies to qualified individuals for the 2009 calendar year or subsequent years. For details on MSRRA, see Pub. 570.

- The source of interest income is generally where the payer is located. For example, interest from a certificate of deposit issued by a USVI bank or a USVI branch of a U.S. bank is USVI source income.
- Generally, dividends are sourced where the paying corporation is created or organized.
- Taxable refunds, credits, or offsets of local USVI income taxes include only nonmirror code income taxes.
- Alimony received from a person who is a bona fide resident of the USVI is USVI source income.
- Except as provided in regulations, income earned after December 31, 2004, that is from sources within the United States or effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States is not income from the USVI.

- The source of gains, profits, or income from the sale or disposition of real property (and any interest in real property) is generally where the real property is located.

Personal property. The source of income from the sale of nondepreciable personal property is generally the seller's residence. For example, if you are a bona fide resident of the USVI, gain from the sale or disposition of personal property is generally from sources within the USVI. Income from the sale of inventory is generally sourced where the title to the property passes. See section 865 for details.

De minimis exception. This is an exception to the general rule for determining the source of income earned in the USVI. Generally, income from the USVI does not include compensation for services performed in the USVI if during 2011 you:

- Were a U.S. citizen or resident,
- Were not a bona fide resident of the USVI,
- Were not employed by or under contract with an individual, partnership, or corporation that is engaged in a trade or business in the USVI,
- Temporarily performed services in the USVI for 90 days or less, and
- Earned $3,000 or less from such services.

Special rules may apply to bona fide residents of U.S. possessions who have gain from dispositions of certain investment property within the 10-year period beginning when they became a bona fide resident. For details, see Special Rules for Gains From Dispositions of Certain Property, in chapter 2 of Pub. 570, Regulations section 1.937-2(f)(1), and Examples 1 and 2 of section 1.937-2(k).

Part II—Adjusted Gross Income From the U.S. Virgin Islands

Lines 21 through 23. If you had USVI source self-employment income, figure the amount to enter on each line by (1) dividing your USVI source self-employment income by your total (worldwide) self-employment income and (2) multiplying the total amount of each deduction that applies to you by the result in (1).

Line 24. Enter the amount of penalty on early withdrawals from savings accounts in USVI banks or USVI branches of U.S. banks. The Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID you received will show the amount of any penalty you were charged.

Line 25. Enter the total of your and your spouse's IRA deductions attributable to USVI compensation or earned income. Figure the amount to report on line 25 by (1) dividing your USVI compensation or earned income by your total (worldwide) compensation or earned income and (2) multiplying the amount of your IRA deduction by the result in (1). Figure the amount of your spouse's IRA deduction the same way.

Line 28. Include in the total on line 28 the amount of any other deductions included on Form 1040, line 36, that are attributable to your USVI income. On the dotted line next to line 28, enter the amount of each deduction attributable to your USVI income and identify it as you did on Form 1040, line 36. If you or your spouse had an Archer MSA deduction on Form 1040, line 36, figure the amount to report on line 28 the same way you would an IRA deduction (see Line 25, above).

Part IV—Payments of Income Tax to the U.S. Virgin Islands

Amounts overpaid to the United States generally will not be applied to the amount you owe to the USVI. Similarly, amounts overpaid to the USVI will not be applied to the amount you owe to the United States.

Credit for U.S. tax paid to the USVI. You can take a credit on your U.S. return for the U.S. tax allocated to the USVI only if you actually paid the tax to the USVI. To take the credit, you must complete Form 8689 and attach it to your Form 1040. Add line 40 and line 44 of Form 8689 and include the amount in the total on Form 1040, line 72. On the dotted line next to line 72, enter "Form 8689" and the amount paid.

Penalty for Failure To Furnish Information

If, in tax year 2001 or later, you became or ceased to be a bona fide resident of a U.S. possession, you may be required to file Form 8898, Statement for Individuals Who Begin or End Bona Fide Residence in a U.S. Possession. If you fail to provide the required information, you may have to pay a $1,000 penalty for each failure unless you can show the failure was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. This penalty is in addition to any criminal penalty provided by law. For details, see the Instructions for Form 8898.
