IMPORTANT:

- * Your UW Bothell I-20 cannot be issued until you have met all admission requirements, paid your Admissions Confirmation deposit, submitted sufficient financial document(s) & valid passport copy, and your current I-20 has been released (if applicable). Incomplete information will delay processing of your UW Bothell I-20.
- * Incoming students are encouraged to visit www.uwb.edu/iss/next-steps for important information to prepare for their studies.
- * The start date at UW Bothell must be within 5 months of your program completion date OR "transfer out" date in SEVIS, whichever is earlier.
- * If you have graduated, your I-20 must be transferred to UW Bothell within your 60-day grace period.
- * If you are on OPT, please note that if the SEVIS transfer date is earlier than your OPT expiration date, then your OPT will automatically terminate.

12. Submit Current Financial Support Documents

Student's Personal Resources:

Parents and/or Other Sponsors(s):

Federal U.S. immigration regulations require all international students to verify sufficient funding available to pay for tuition and living expenses for at least one academic year at the University. You should not plan on providing support for your education through employment in the U.S. Federal financial aid is not available for international students on an F1 visa.

Examples of financial documents include certified letter from the bank, certified bank statement, or certified scholarship letter from the time period you will be studying at UW Bothell.

The financial documents must:

Name (Last, First)

For each dependent, please submit:

- 1) Be photocopies or originals. Students are encouraged to keep originals for future immigration purposes, such as at the visa interview or port of entry.
- 2) Be dated no more than 6 months from the date you intend to begin your studies at UW Bothell, and
- 3) Meet the minimum estimated expenses for your first year of study (as described at: www.uwb.edu/admissions/international/), and
