Letter of Recommendation Release Form

Non-directory information should not be included in a letter of recommendation without the student's written consent. Comments regarding personal observations DO NOT require such a release.

Faculty/Staff: If a letter of recommendation contains any non-directory information, then written authorization is required. This includes recommendations sent to employers, individuals, or educational institutions, including professional school admission services. Examples of non-directory information include: birth date, religion, citizenship, disciplinary status, ethnicity, gender, GPA, marital status, UWSP ID or social security number, grades/exam scores, and standardized test scores.

School officials intending to include non-directory information in a letter of recommendation should use this form, or a related document, to obtain signed and dated consent from the student. The type of nondirectory information that will be disclosed (i.e. grades, test scores), and to whom, should also be documented.

Students: Complete this form and return to the school official writing your letter of recommendation.

I give permission to
