“An Argentine is an Italian who speaks Spanish, thinks he’s French, but would like to be English.”

~ Argentine saying

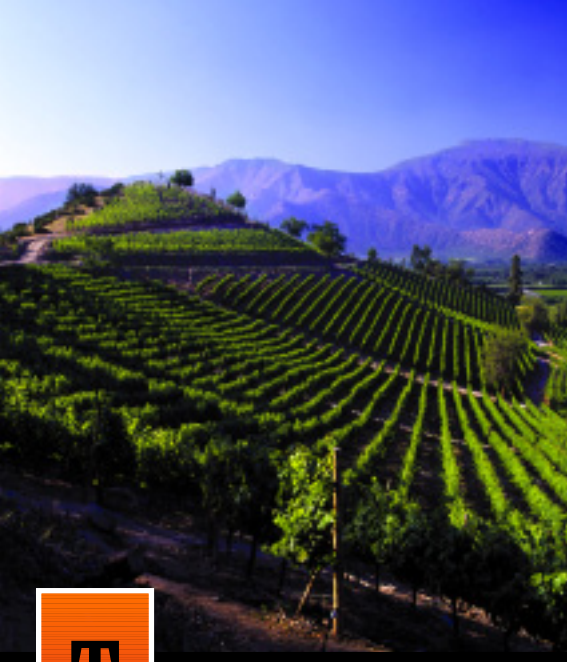

“It is cheaper to live extravagantly all your life than to be buried in Recoleta.”

*~ Anonymous,
Inside South America
by John Gunther, 1967*

“It is not, one feels, for nothing that it was named Buenos Aires, since the airs are admirable and every air a tango.”

~ Philip Guedalla, Argentine Tango,

1932

The rich heritage of Argentina, the melting pot of South America, is fueled by a mix of European cultures and those of the indigenous residents. In fact, Buenos Aires has an unmistakable European air! This flavor largely comes from the 19th and 20th centuries, when Italian and Spanish immigrants poured into the country. Chile, Argentina's neighbor to the west, also enjoys great diversity due to European immigration. Lively Santiago is the country's capital and cultural center. It is filled with museums, music venues and universities.

THE ONE WHO LOVES YOU WILL MAKE YOU WEEP.

Educational Focus: A History of Buenos Aires. Explore the political and cultural heritage of the Argentine capital. Learn about its early indigenous inhabitants, Spanish colonization in the 16th-18th centuries and life since the country declared independence from Spain in 1810.

Take an orientation walk of your hotel's neighborhood with your Campus Director and familiarize yourself with its environs.

DAY THREE

BUENOS AIRES

Buenos Aires, but this passionate dance is now performed in ballrooms around the world!

we can make reservations for you to have dinner and see a performance at one of the city's famous tango houses.

DAY FOUR

THE PAMPAS

Educational Focus and Excursion: The Pampas—Meet the People. Visit the legendary Draghi silversmith workshop and museum, where artisans create exquisite and ornate spurs, bolos and other ornaments associated with the way of life in the Pampas. Continue to an estancia, a traditional ranch in the Pampas where the work and play of gauchos is steeped in tradition. See a demonstration of gaucho skills.

Local Flavor: Beef is the mainstay of the Argentine diet. Asado, grilling, is the preferred way of preparing it. After a delicious asado lunch, enjoy a traditional folk singing and dancing performance.

This morning, fly to Puerto Iguazú, Argentina, and transfer to the Amerian Portal del Iguazú Hotel.

Excursion: Walk the Falls. Discover Iguazú Falls, which forms part of the border between Brazil and Argentina. The 275 falls, which stretch twice as long as Niagara Falls, are home to a diversity of plants and animals. View the spectacular beauty and feel the power of the falls as you cross the catwalks built directly over the falls.

CHILE

DAY NINE ANDEAN CROSSING

Excursion: Journey Across the Andes Mountains. Travel to Santiago, Chile, through the scenic Potrerillos and Uspallata valleys. This region was inhabited by the Huarpes people long before the Spanish claimed the territory, but it was the Spanish who developed this famous route from Chile to Argentina to expand their territory east of the Andes. See the beauty of the Andes unfold. See Aconcagua Mountain, which at 22,834 feet (6,959 meters), is the highest mountain in the Western Hemisphere.

See the Parque Forestal and the Fine Arts Museum. Take in a panoramic view of the city with the Andes in the background from San Cristobal Hill.

Later this afternoon, transfer to the airport for the return flight to your gateway city. (Provided for Air Program participants only.)

NOTE: Itinerary schedule may change due to local conditions. Many excursions involve an element of walking, as some of the finest attractions are not closely accessible by motorcoach.

Malbec, the star of Mendoza

Mendoza is a favorite of wine enthusiasts around the world. Surrounding the city are some of South America's best and most fertile vineyards. The region's vineyards produce roughly 70 percent of Argentina's wine. Here, winegrowers favor Malbec, Mendoza's signature grape. This temperamental vine, difficult to grow in many places because it is susceptible to disease, rot, mildew and other viticultural nuisances, flourishes in the arid plains near the city. The Andes block eastward-moving clouds, limiting rain to barely 8 inches each year. Instead, water is provided by acequias, irrigation ditches, that carry snowmelt from the mountains. Those factors, along with long hours of sunshine and mild winds, have produced the ideal growing conditions for Malbec, which traditionally has been one of the grapes used to blend Bordeaux. In Mendoza, however, the Malbec grape produces an outstanding varietal wine.
