Generally, we seek information about you: (1) age; (2) occupation; (3) physical condition; (4) medical history; (5) hobbies; and (6) other relevant activities.

The MIB is a not-for-profit organization of life insurance companies which operates an information exchange for its members. This information may alert us to a need for further investigation, but under MIB rules such information cannot be used: (1) either wholly or in part to increase the premium for insurance; or (2) to deny issuance of insurance.

Please be assured that although such disclosures may occur, they are not always or even often made. When a disclosure is necessary, only as much information as is reasonably necessary to achieve the intended purpose will be disclosed.

You have the right to acquire and, if necessary, correct any personal information we or the MIB collect. Upon written request to us, we will within 30 days of receipt: (1) inform you of the nature and substance of the recorded information; (2) permit personal viewing and copying of the information in our possession; (3) disclose the identities of those persons such information has been disclosed to within the last two years; and (4) provide you with procedures for correction, amendment or deletion of the recorded information.
