

Art skills in drawing & painting, printmaking and ceramics will be presented by upper division Art Education majors at CSULB under the direction of Dr. Silveira, professor of Art Education.

All classes will be conducted in the Art Department's Studio Facilities. Instructors specialized in drawing & painting, printmaking and ceramics will be available to further assist students with equipment and technical work.

There will be an exhibition of student art work followed by a reception at the end of the Young Artist Camp. Parents will be informed of the date and time for the exhibition during the weeks prior to the end of camp.
