JUSTIFICATION:

One of the program concentration courses for new option in Workforce Development Advocacy (master degree option for students who have completed the BA in Vocational Education). This course develops the background and skills necessary to effectively evaluate workforce settings and programs by exploring the aspects of selection, use, and interpretation of qualitative and quantitative tools for use with adult learning communities. To be an effective workforce development advocate, one must have a working knowledge of assessment and accountability as it relates to the field and that is the purpose of this course.

NEW COURSE DESCRIPTION: (Not to exceed 80 words, and language should conform to catalog copy. See <http://www.csus.edu/acaf/univmanual/crspsl.htm> - Guidelines for Catalog Course Description)

This course explores workforce assessment and accountability. Emphasis is on the selection and use of qualitative and quantitative tools that are most appropriate for adult learning communities along with interpretation and reporting findings.
