International Student Application

International Admissions • California State University San Marcos • San Marcos, CA • 92096-0001

Dear International Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in California State University San Marcos. All the information you need to apply is contained in this application packet. Although we make every effort to ensure that the application materials are current, you should check our website at <http://www.csusm.edu/global/admissions> to ensure that information contained here is correct.

Owing to visa issuance procedures at U.S. Consulates, we advise all international applicants outside the U.S. to complete their applications as early as possible to ensure sufficient time for us to process the application and issue an I-20 and for you to obtain a student visa.

Applicants who do not have the required TOEFL score for admission (80/213/550) may enroll first in the American Language and Culture Institute (ALCI). The University will issue conditional admission to ALCI applicants and will waive the TOEFL requirement for students who successfully complete the highest level of ALCI. For an ALCI application, please go to: <http://www.csusm.edu/alci>

California State University San Marcos

International Student Application Instructions

International Admissions • California State University San Marcos • San Marcos, CA • 92096-0001

Undergraduate Applicants

Admission Requirements

First Time Freshmen: Applicants must have the equivalent of a U.S. high school diploma with a “B” average (3.0 GPA). Neither the SAT nor ACT exams are required, unless the applicant has attended an American or international secondary school where the language of instruction was English, but applicants with less than a “B” average may be eligible for admission if these scores are reported.

Transfer students: Transfer applicants from foreign universities must have a GPA of 2.4 and the equivalent of a U.S. high school diploma. Transfer students from a school in the U.S. must have 60 or more transferable credits, with a GPA of 2.4 on all transfer work, and the equivalent of a U.S. high school diploma, and must complete the four CSU Basic Skills required courses (Oral Communication, Written Communication, Critical Thinking, and College Mathematics) with a grade of C or better.

Second Bachelor’s Degree: Applicants must have the equivalent of a four-year bachelor’s degree with a GPA of 2.5 in the last 60 credit units attempted.

English Language Proficiency: Undergraduate applicants must present a TOEFL score of 80 iBT (550 paper-based, 213 computer-based) or above, unless they have attended schools at the secondary level or above for at least three years full-time where English is the principal language of instruction, or come GE Certified from a California Community College. IELTS Band 6.0 also accepted

Note: Undergraduate applicants who meet all admission requirements, except TOEFL, may be granted conditional admission if they enroll in the American Language and Culture Institute (ALCI). Upon completion Level 5 of the Intensive Academic Preparation program, ALCI students can be admitted to the university without a TOEFL score. For more information, see ALCI’s website at: <http://www.csusm.edu/alci>.

How To Apply

- Submit the International Student Application with the $55 nonrefundable application fee during filing period.
- Request that required official transcripts (see Required Education Records section) from schools attended be sent to the International Admissions Office.
- Request that an official TOEFL score be sent (Institution code 5677), if required.
- Submit a completed Affidavit of Financial Support with bank certification and/or scholarship certification showing support for study.

Undergraduate Application Filing Periods:

Fall Semester Open: October 1 Close: May 1
Spring Semester Open: August 1 Close: October 1

All transcripts, financial statements, and test scores must be received by the close dates.

Graduate Applicants

Admission Requirements

University Requirements: All graduate applicants must have the equivalent of a four-year bachelor’s degree from an accredited academic institution with a GPA of 2.5 in the last 60 credit units attempted. Graduate applicants with a three-year bachelor’s degree should contact the International Admissions Office to determine their eligibility.

Department Requirements: Each department has its own admissions criteria. Most require the GRE and some require the advanced portion of the GRE. The MBA program requires the GMAT. Departments may also require personal statements and letters of recommendation. Please contact the department for their application form and admission requirements.

English Language Proficiency: Graduate applicants who have not earned a bachelor’s degree at an institution where the principal language of instruction is English must present a TOEFL score of 80 iBT (550 paper-based, 213 computer-based) or above. IELTS Band 6.0 also accepted

Note: Graduate applicants who meet all admission requirements, except TOEFL, may be granted conditional admission if they enroll in the American Language and Culture Institute (ALCI). Upon completion of Level 5 of the Intensive Academic Preparation program, ALCI students can be admitted to the university without a TOEFL score. For more information, see ALCI’s website at: <http://www.csusm.edu/alci>.

How To Apply

- Obtain a department application form from the graduate program.
- Submit the International Student Application with the $55 nonrefundable application fee to the International Admissions Office, and the department application to the graduate department.
- Request that required official transcripts (see Required Education Records section) be submitted to both the International Admissions Office and the graduate department.
- Request that an official TOEFL score be sent (Institution code 5677), if required.
- Submit a completed Affidavit of Financial Support with bank certification and/or scholarship certification showing support for study.

Graduate Application Filing Periods

Fall Semester: March 15
Spring Semester: November 15

While we will accept applications received after these dates, we may not have sufficient time to admit late applicants.

Required Education Records (All Applicants)

The following official academic records must be sent directly from the schools you attended to Cal State San Marcos:

Freshman Applicants	Secondary school transcripts and graduation certificates
Transfer applicants	Secondary School Transcripts, graduation certificate, and College/University transcripts
Second Bachelor's	College/University transcripts and diplomas
