Housing Policy

California State University, Los Angeles respects the right of the landlords to select their tenants from among the students and staff/faculty who apply. However, it is the University Policy to maintain a non-discriminatory list of off-campus housing for the campus community. This policy is consistent with State and Federal Laws which stipulate that State Universities may not become a party to any agreement, arrangement, or plan which restricts services because of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, handicap, or any other classification that precludes a person from consideration as an individual.

Your listing with the University of available housing facilities and your signature on this form indicates your willingness to comply with the above stated policy. Evidence of a householder's refusal to comply with the above non-discrimination statement will result in the listing being removed from our files.
