DIRECTIONS:

If your admissions officer or department advisor has told you that you must take certain coursework for review for admission to a graduate program, you may be eligible to be considered for loans from the Direct Loan program for one, consecutive, 12-month period.

To be considered for financial aid for prerequisite courses, you must complete this form and have it signed by your graduate advisor or admissions representative. You will have to list the course(s) you are required to take in order to be considered for admittance to a program. Prerequisite or preparatory coursework must be part of an eligible program offered by Hofstra University or any accredited college or university.

You will have to complete this form for every semester in which you will be registering for prerequisite courses.

Taking courses for the purpose of raising your GPA to be admitted into an eligible program does not meet the requirement; the specific course(s) that you take must be required for admission into the eligible program.
