

CHOREOGRAPHY PROJECT PROPOSAL

This project proposal should be submitted to the Project Director for review and comment and then to each member of the Project Committee. The student must be registered for DNCE 5913 MFA Choreography Portfolio.

The proposal should include the following and be attached to this form:

1. A brief description of the initial concept or starting point for the work. This may include a description of the idea as a point of entry or initial thoughts about the content and/or format of the project.
 2. A brief discussion of how you envision the working process at this initial stage. This may include an indication of the goals and desired outcomes of the project with respect to your personal artistic growth as a choreographer and/or performer.
 3. Specifics of the project, such as performance venue, number of performers, special technical requirements.
