

ART SCHOLARSHIPS

in Art, Art Education, Applied Design and Art History

UALR DEPARTMENT OF ART

2011-2012 Windgate Foundation Scholarships

Use of Scholarships:

The $4000.00 Windgate Foundation Scholarships may be used for tuition and fees, books and art materials only for the academic year of 2011-2012, excluding summer. The scholarship will be awarded in two installment with the first half paid in at the beginning of the fall semester and the second at the beginning of the spring semester. Students must remain eligible in order to receive the second installment.

Recipient Qualifications:

- The recipients shall be full- or part-time degree seeking students who are declared majors in the Department of Art.
- Recipients in art history must show evidence of strong academic accomplishments through two research papers.
- Recipients in studio art and applied design must show evidence of strong artistic accomplishment through a visual portfolio of their own artwork.
- Recipients in art education must show strong academic or strong artistic accomplishment through a research paper or a visual portfolio of their own artwork.
- Students must be in "Good" academic standing with the university.
- Recipients shall write a letter of appreciation to the Donors, which shall serve as their official notice of acceptance.

Selection Process:

The art department scholarship committee will identify candidates based on the Recipient Qualifications and Application Materials stated above. The entire Department of Art faculty will make the final selection. If no qualified candidates are identified, funds will be retained for use in the next academic year.

Notification:

The Windgate Foundation Art Scholarship award winners will be notified by the end of April and are required to be present at the College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences award ceremony in May.

Materials Required for Application:

Applicants will need to supply the following materials in order to be considered for the 2010-2011 Windgate Foundation Art Scholarships in Art, Art Education, Applied Design and Art History:

- A completed 2011-2012 Windgate Foundation Scholarship application form.
- An unofficial college transcript. (BOSS transcript)
- Examples of work pertaining to degree sought.
