

F-1 Visa Students Financial Certification Form ~Claremont McKenna College~

Financial Information

Applicants holding or requiring F-1 student status are required to provide documentation of financial support before a form I-20 can be issued. Required documentation includes each of the following:

1. Signed written statement from sponsor (parents, other family members, etc...) declaring their relationship to the student and their intent to provide financial support throughout the student's period of study at Claremont McKenna College. You may use the bottom portion of this form or a separate letter may be submitted.
2. Documentation from financial institution(s) (banks, investment firms, etc ...) showing the availability of the approximate cost of one full academic year for tuition, fees, room, board, personal and travel expenses (actual expenses will vary):
 - $62,000 for undergraduate students
 - $67,000 for graduate students
3. Copy of the identification page of your passport

Applicants should not assume that financial aid will be provided or that it will be sufficient to cover all expenses. Applicants receiving financial aid from CMC can deduct the amount of that aid from the above amounts for purposes of showing documentation of financial support from other sources.

If you are currently enrolled at a U.S. school and need to transfer your F-1 status to CMC, please have your current international student advisor transfer your SEVIS record to Claremont McKenna College, SEVIS School Code LOS214F00336000.
