AZ&me AstraZeneca
Prescription Savings
program for people without insurance

What is the AZ&Me Prescription Savings program for people without insurance?

- The AZ&Me Prescription Savings program for people without insurance (the Program) is a program offered by AstraZeneca that allows you to get free medicines if you qualify. It is not a government program or an insurance plan.
- If you qualify, you will get free medicine for up to one year. At the end of that year, AstraZeneca will send you an application for renewal.
- Most medicines will be sent to your home. Some medicines will be sent to your doctor's office.
- Most medicines are sent in a 90-day supply.

The Program can be changed or stopped by AstraZeneca at any time or for any reason.

Who is AstraZeneca?

- AstraZeneca is a company that makes prescription medicines.
- AstraZeneca has offered prescription savings programs to people who qualify since 1978.

Do you qualify for the Program?

You probably qualify for the Program if:

- You don't have other insurance that helps pay for your medicines.
- You meet the income limits in the table below.

How do you get started?
