DATE: July 6, 2010

SUBJECT: By-Law T-142, Administrative Amendments to By-law T-108
Respecting the Regulations of Taxis and Limousines

ORIGIN

On February 2, 2010, Regional Council was presented with By-law T-141 for First Reading. Due to concerns relative to the elimination of taxi zones, Regional Council chose not to proceed with First Reading, however By-Law T-141 also included a number of other administrative amendments relative to By-law T-108, Administrative Order #39, Administrative Order #21, and Administrative Order #15. Proposed By-law T-142, consisting only of the administrative amendments to By-law T-108, is before Regional Council for consideration.

RECOMMENDATION:

1. It is recommended that Regional Council approve in principle By-law T-142 (attached as Appendix A), Administrative Order #39 (attached as Appendix B), Respecting Taxi Fares & Taxi Roof Light Sign Requirements, Administrative Order #15 (attached as Appendix C), Respecting Licence, Permit and Processing Fees, Administrative Order #21 (attached as Appendix D), Respecting the Appointment of the Taxi and Limousine Inspector.
2. It is further recommended that Regional Council direct staff to arrange for the formal introduction of the said amendments for First Reading.

BACKGROUND

On February 2, 2010, By-law T-141 which contained several amendments to By-law T-108 and other related legislation was presented to Regional Council for First Reading. However, one of the items contained in By-law T-141, was the elimination of taxi zones, which was not supported by Regional Council and By-law T-141 did not receive First Reading.

By-law T-142, contains only the administrative amendments to By-law T-108 and other related legislation, has been prepared for Regional Council consideration.

DISCUSSION

The proposed By-law T-142, (attached as Appendix A) contains administrative amendments relative to By-law T-108, Administrative Order #39, Administrative Order #21 and Administrative Order #15. The amendments have been requested by a number of sources including but not limited to, staff, HRM Legal Services, Taxi & Limousine Advisory Committee and the HRM Appeals Committee.

The following is a high level overview of the amendments outlined in the chart, (attached as Appendix E). A number of items referenced in the chart are house keeping amendment, such as reference to subsection numbers, forms and the Licencing Authority definition.

1. Definitions

“Halifax Zone” amended to include Harrietsfield, Sambro, Ketch Harbour and Portuguese Cove.

“Inspector” amended to be referred to as “Licensing Authority”.

“Owner” amended to address the vehicle ownership & leasing issue.

“Passenger” added definition to clarify what constitutes a passenger.

“Accessible taxi” amended to reflect vehicle standard moving to Administrative Order #39.

“Limousine” amended to reflect vehicle standard moving to Administrative Order #39.

“Taxi” amended to reflect vehicle standard moving to Administrative Order #39

2. Administration - amended to reflect the “Licensing Authority” and clarify the duties and authority.

3. Owner - portions of sections 8, 9 and 10 are amended by removing reference to form numbers and Taxi Inspector. Portions of sections 11, 12, 13, 18, 21 and 22 are amended to reflect changes to subsection numbers, the requirements for Criminal Record/Vulnerable Sector Checks, vehicle specifications, Motor Vehicle Inspections, maintenance of passenger and trunk area, types of vehicles and permitting suspensions during insurance investigations and to consolidate wording.

4. Applicant/Driver Requirements - portions of sections 35 and 36 to be amended to reflect the definition of “driver”, simplify wording, clarify requirements for an applicant, permit Statutory Declaration if Criminal Record/Vulnerable Sector Check is delayed, provide proof of registration for National Standards Certification and provide drivers with a two year grace period.

5. Applicant Re-Testing - sections 37 and 39 to be amended, remove reference to subsection numbers, clarifying applications are valid for twelve months, to reduce an applicants wait time from one year to six months before re-applying after unsuccessfully completing the testing requirements.

6. License Holder Eligibility - portions of sections 40, 42, 43 and 47 to be amended to address individuals who may be subject to Court Proceedings or Orders arising from charges or convictions, refusal of a fare when a destination conflicts with zone regulations, licence not being operational following the expiry date and to reduce wording.

7. Taxi Signs - addition to Schedule 4 Administrative Order 39, that high sided taxi vehicles such as Van’s, Crossover’s and SUV’s, may display markings on both sides of the vehicle which indicate the company name and the taxi licence number under which the taxi is being operated, to enhance public visibility.

8. Offences & Penalties - section 72 to be amended, clarifying appeal and notification process and to remove wording which was consolidated into new amended items. Section 74 and 76 to be repealed, no longer applicable.

9. Waiting List - portions of sections 77, 78 & 78A, to be amended to apply the same consistent application process for the waiting lists, consistent for all zones and remove redundant wording.

10. Seniors Shared-Ride - section 80 to be removed, a shared ride can be accommodated currently within the by-law without a specialty licence.

11. Hotel Standards - section 81 to be amended to permit new vehicle standards applicable to Hybrid and Smaller fuel efficient vehicles.

Administrative Order #39 - wording is amended to introduce vehicle standards, side markings for high sided vehicles, amend wording of Special Rate clause, remove reference to a shared ride licence & rate schedule and remove reference to the seven dollar additional charge for a mini van or station wagon.

Administrative Order #15 - wording is amended to remove reference to section and subsection articles within the By-law and identify a fee for a partial licencing period.

Administrative Order #21 - is being repealed to reflect the definition change from Inspector to Licencing Authority.
