In consideration of the Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission (hereinafter called the "Commission") accepting uncertified cheques drawn by the licensee upon:

_____ Name of Bank _____ Branch _____

(hereinafter called the "Bank"), and payable to the Commission, the Bank undertakes to honour all cheques so drawn, up to a weekly limit of Canadian Dollars

The amount of the cheques issued during any given calendar week will be determined by the dates of issue on the cheques. The amount of the weekly liability of the Bank is understood to be non-cumulative.

This undertaking will continue in effect until it is revoked by the Bank, as described below.

The Bank may revoke this undertaking at any time, providing that written notice of revocation is delivered to the Commission at the above address, or at any other address the Commission may subsequently advise to the Bank. The Bank will use its best efforts to advise the Commission's Banking & Liquor Revenue Section, Corporate Services Division, by telephone as soon as its intention to revoke this undertaking is known but failure to do so shall not invalidate any notice of revocation given by the Bank. Notwithstanding revocation by the Bank of this undertaking, the Bank will honour any cheque drawn as described above that is received by the Commission prior to receipt of notice of revocation, provided that such cheque is negotiated without undue delay.

Yours truly,
