

It's time. Call to Conference has finally arrived. But why attend conference? Consider this:

- No registration fee. Friday night hospitality suites free. Rotarians, guests, family members are welcome. Please be sure to send in your registration and meals package selection form. You will be required to present your registration badge for admittance to all sessions.
- Kick up your heels and socialize at Friday night all clubs' hospitality suites—Decades themes.
- Saturday night—annual Foundation night—Keynote speaker, Foundation presentations.
- Inspiring speakers, informative fast paced “best practices” sessions. Hot button topics include membership, foundation, youth.
- Expos for business and clubs projects and ideas including attractive pricing for advertising in district conference program and on district website. SWAG bag inserts welcome.
- Clubs, individual awards presentations. Celebrate 2011-2012 accomplishments.
- Recharge your Rotary batteries—rekindle your focus with Rotary world updates.
- Sample Prescott—Everybody's Home Town—host city for district conference:
 - Conveniently located 96 miles NW Phoenix and 90 miles SW Flagstaff, mile high community. June temperatures—mean mid 80s days, low 50s nights.
 - Arts, boutiques, dining and entertainment conveniently located around town including Prescott downtown square.
 - Explore various outdoor activities including hiking, boating, golf in the rolling hills and pine covered forest surrounding Prescott.
- Relax, enjoy the mountain top views, beautiful sunrises and sunsets at the renovated, family friendly Prescott Resort Conference and Center —host facility for our conference.
- Official club make up meeting. Clubs encouraged to go dark to attend district conference.
